THE UNIVERSITY OF DURHAM.

THE great and increasing population of the North of England, and its remoteness from the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, long pointed out the expediency of establishing in that part of the kingdom an institution which should secure to its inhabitants the advantages of a sound yet not expensive academical education. It was perceived by Bishop Van Mildert, and by the Dean and Chapter of Durham, that the means of supplying this acknowledged deficiency might be provided from the resources of that body, in exact conformity with the principles on which it was incorporated; the education of youth being enumerated among the objects of the establishment both in its Charter of Foundation and in its Statutes.*

In accordance with these views, a scheme was arranged between the Bishop and the Dean and Chapter for the foundation of a University in connexion with the Cathedral Church; the Chapter undertaking to assign immediately to this purpose property producing £3,000 per annum; and the Bishop promising to provide eventually for the Warden, the Professor of Divinity, and the Professor of Greek, by attaching Prebendal stalls to the several offices.

In pursuance of this arrangement, a Bill was introduced into Parliament in 1832, to enable the Dean and Chapter to appropriate an estate at South Shields for the establishment of a University. The Bill, being

---

* It is also a fact worthy of notice, that the Dean and Chapter were endow'd by Henry VIII. not only with the revenues of the Benedictine Priory of Durham, but also with those of the College connected with it in the University of Oxford. This College, though in existence at an earlier period, seems to have owed much of its prosperity to Bishops Richard de Bury and Hatfield, and at the death of the latter prelate, in 1381, is stated to have enjoyed a provision for eight Fellows (one of whom was Warden or Prior), and eight secular Scholars. It was dissolved at the Reformation on account of its connexion with the Priory of Durham; and its advowsons and other endowments were granted by Henry VIII. to the new Dean and Chapter. This body, therefore, is the representative of two ancient Colleges, as well as of the ancient Priory; and thus there is a peculiar fitness in their endeavour to replace the suppressed establishment for education in Oxford by the foundation of a new one of a similar nature at Durham.

supported by the Premier (Earl Grey) in the House of Lords, and by Lord Althorp in the House of Commons, passed the two Houses; and on the 4th July, 1832, received the royal assent.

By this Act, the Dean and Chapter of Durham were empowered to appropriate the above-mentioned estate "for the establishment and maintenance of a University for the advancement of learning, in connexion with the said Cathedral Church; such University to consist of such Warden or Principal, of such Professors and Readers in such branches of learning and sciences, of such Tutors, Students, and other officers and persons, and generally to be established, and instituted, and continued, according to such scheme and regulations as the said Dean and Chapter for the time being shall, from time to time, by writing under their common seal, with the consent of the Lord Bishop of Durham for the time being, order and prescribe." And it was further enacted, "that the government of the said University, and the order and discipline to be observed therein, according to the scheme and regulations which the said Dean and Chapter of Durham for the time being, with such consent as aforesaid, are hereinbefore empowered to order and prescribe, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the said Dean and Chapter of Durham for the time being"; and that "the said University shall be subject to, and under the jurisdiction of the Lord Bishop of Durham for the time being, as the Visitor thereof."

Under the authority of this Act, the University was opened in October, 1833, and in July, 1835, a statute was passed by the Dean and Chapter, and approved by the Bishop, entrusting the ordinary management of the University, under the Bishop as Visitor, and the Dean and Chapter as Governors, to the Warden, a Senate, and a Convocation. The Senate is composed of the Warden, of the Professors of Divinity, Greek, Mathematics, and Hebrew, the two Proctors, the Master of University College, the Principal of Hatfield Hall, the President of the College of Medicine, the Principal of the College of Science, and six other members of Convocation; the Convocation consisted originally of the Warden, and of a certain number of Doctors and Masters in the Faculties of Divinity, Law, Medicine, and Arts, from the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge; and consists at present of all such persons as have been regularly admitted to the like degrees in the University of Durham, and have conformed to the regulations thereof.

The Senate, in the exercise of the powers vested in them by the statute, prepared a body of Regulations for conducting the studies and the general business of the University. These regulations were submitted to Convocation, and approved by it on the 4th March, 1836.

The constitution and studies of the University having thus been arranged in accordance with the Act of Parliament, a Royal Charter was granted under the Great Seal on the 1st June, 1837, incorporating the persons therein described by the name of "The Warden, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Durham," recognizing and confirming the constitution of the University as established by the Dean and Chapter, and authorizing the body corporate to have perpetual succession and a common seal, and to enjoy all the rights and privileges which are assured to the University by the Act of Parliament, or are incident to a University established by Royal Charter. The first degrees were conferred under the sanction of this Charter on the 8th June, 1837.*

In 1895 a supplementary charter was granted, enabling the University to grant Degrees in all Faculties (with the exception of the Faculty of Theology) to women†; and to hold Convocations in Newcastle-upon-Tyne and elsewhere.

* In the year 1813 the following arms were by Letters Patent granted to the University: Argent, a Cross Patée, quadrate gules; a Canton Azure charged with a Chevron Or between three Lions rampant of the First, together with this motto:—"Fundamenta eius super montibus sanctis."

† A Hostel for women was opened in Easter Term, 1899.

By an Act of Parliament of 1 Victoria, c. 56, sec. 1, passed July 15th, 1837, entitled, "An Act for amending the several Acts for the regulation of Attorneys and Solicitors," the provisions of former Acts, relating to the admission and enrolment as Attorneys of Bachelors of Arts or Law of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Dublin, are extended to Bachelors of Arts or Law of the University of Durham.

The intentions of Bishop Van Mildert respecting the endowment of the University were not carried fully into execution, in consequence of the appointment of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners; but the claims of the University were taken into consideration by that body, and a further provision was in consequence made for it by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, June 4th, 1841.

By this Order in Council it was provided that the office of Warden should in future be permanently annexed to the Deanery of Durham; a Canonry in the Cathedral Church was annexed to each of the Professorships of Divinity and Greek; the Professor of Mathematics was appointed Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy, with an increased salary. It was also provided that, when the office of Warden should be annexed to the Deanery, a Professorship of Hebrew and the Oriental Languages should be founded: and, in addition to the six Fellowships which had previously been established by the Dean and Chapter, eighteen other Fellowships were founded.*

Towards providing the funds for these purposes certain estates were assigned to the University immediately; and power was reserved for making a further endowment at a future period. This power has since been exercised by Orders in Council, conferring on the University an additional grant in money, and vesting in it certain landed estates formerly belonging to the Deanery or Prebendal stalls.

* The Professorship of Hebrew was founded in 1881; and in 1883 the Fellowships were increased to ten in number.

The founders of the University, in framing their plans for efficient academical education, desired to provide, not only for the delivery of able lectures, but also for the maintenance of the system of domestic discipline and instruction which has been found so efficacious in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge. With this view they formed a College in the University, fitting up buildings for the reception of Students, and appointing Censors and Tutors to watch over their conduct and direct their studies, under the superintendence of the Warden. These accommodations to Students were subsequently much enlarged, especially by the addition of the Castle of Durham, with its precincts, which is now held in trust by the Bishop for the benefit of the University, under an Order of the Queen in Council made on the 8th of August, 1837, in pursuance of the Act 6th and 7th of William IV, for carrying into effect the Reports of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. This acquisition provided the College with an excellent Chapel and Hall, besides affording a number of convenient rooms for the reception of Students and for general academical purposes.

Upon the same principle of uniting domestic discipline with efficient lectures, and with the especial view of placing these advantages within the reach of persons of limited means, a new Hall, called "Bishop Hatfield's* Hall," was opened in Michaelmas Term, 1846, and enlarged by a considerable building in 1849. And the applications for admission at this Hall continuing to increase, another Hall, called "Bishop Cosin's† Hall," was opened in Michaelmas Term, 1851.

The rooms in Bishop Hatfield's Hall are let furnished, by which plan the expenses of a Student's outfit are greatly diminished; and in other respects also their * Bishop Hatfield was a liberal contributor to the endowment of Durham College in Oxford.—See p. vii. note.

† John Cosin, translated to the See of Durham in 1660, was not only a Theologian of a high order, but memorable in the Diocese for the restorations he effected, and for his munificent benefactions, of which the Library, founded by him for the use of the Clergy, is an instance. Bishop Cosin's Hall is no longer in existence.

arrangements are made on an economical scale. Students in every faculty are received in the Hall as in the College. The members of each Society are subject to the same discipline, are under the same Tutors, and are eligible for the most part to the same endowments.

In Michaelmas Term, 1870, a regulation was passed providing that persons should be admissible as members of the University without becoming members of any College, Hall, or House, on condition that they reside in some house or lodging approved by the Warden and Proctors.

In Michaelmas Term, 1904, St. Chad's Hall was opened for Students in Theology, Arts, and Letters.

In Michaelmas Term, 1909, St. John's Hall was opened for Students in Theology, Arts, and Letters.

Provision is thus made (as may be seen more fully by reference to the Regulations) for a regular course of general academical education similar to that which is given at Oxford and Cambridge. The qualifications of Students to enter on this course are ascertained by examination before admission; their proficiency during its continuance being ascertained by public examinations held, one at the end of the first, and the other at the end of the second year of residence for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

In 1910 Regulations were made for a Modern Degree of Bachelor of Arts, the details of which will be found under the heading "Subjects of Examination."

Besides this general academical education, provision was at the same time made for a course of Theological study. Those who have passed the Examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts at Durham, or who have passed the Examination for the Degree of B.A., or any higher degree, at another University, provided that the examination for that degree is of a similar character to that required in this University, are admitted as Students in Theology, on producing testimonials of character. Other persons also, above the age of 19, are admissible to this class, on passing an examination in the Greek and Latin Languages and in the Elements of Theology. At the end of the course, the Students of this class, on passing the requisite Examination, and producing the necessary testimonials, receive under the common seal of the University a certificate of competency, which is called a Licence in Theology. Those who have passed the Examination for the Degree of B.A. at Durham obtain the Licence after a further residence of one Term. Those who have passed a similar Examination at another University obtain the Licence at the end of one year.

In the year 1837 the benefits of the University were extended by the establishment of a course for Students in Civil Engineering and Mining. The Regulations then made were modified in Convocation, January 30th, 1855.

In the year 1852 an addition was made to the Regulations of the University, with the view of giving increased facilities for Students in Medicine.

In Easter Term, 1852, the Newcastle-upon-Tyne College of Medicine was received into connexion with the University in conformity with the above-mentioned Regulations; and the terms of that connexion were sanctioned by Convocation. The Medical School of King's College, London, and the Senior Medical Department of Queen's College, Birmingham, were subsequently admitted under the Regulations.

In the year 1870 the Newcastle-upon-Tyne College of Medicine was taken into closer connexion with the University, the chief provisions of the new connexion being that the College should in future be called the Durham University College of Medicine, Newcastle-upon-Tyne ; that the Readership in Medicine should be constituted a Professorship ; that the College should elect a Representative to sit in the Senate of the University ; and that residence at the College should be allowed to count as residence in the University towards a Degree in Medicine or Surgery.

Under the University of Durham Act, 1908 (8 Edw. VII, c. 20), the College of Medicine was constituted an integral part of the University.

In the year 1887 the Professor of Medicine was made ex-officio a member of Senate, the College retaining its right to elect a Representative. In the year 1888 there were founded two Professorships, the one in Surgery, the other in Physiology ; and in 1893 two additional Professorships, the one in Anatomy, and the other in Comparative Pathology.

In the year 1903 the Statute of 1887 was cancelled, and the President of the College of Medicine was made ex-officio a member of Senate, the College still retaining its right to elect a Representative.

In the Medical Act of 1858 (21 and 22 Vict., c. 90), the University of Durham occupies the same position with the other English Universities. It elects, like each of them, a Member of the General Council of Medical Education and Registration, and its Licentiates and Graduates are in like manner entitled to be registered as qualified Medical Practitioners.

To obtain a Degree in Medicine or in Surgery a Student in Medicine, after Registration, must spend five years in Medical study at some School of Medicine approved by the University, one at least of the five years at the College of Medicine, Newcastle-upon-Tyne ; must produce such certificates of character and of attendance on Lectures and Hospital practice as are required by the Warden and Senate, and must pass four Professional Examinations.

To obtain the Degree of B.S., a candidate must have passed the Examination for the Degree of M.B. To obtain the Degree of M.S., a candidate must be a B.S. of two years' standing. For the B.S. and M.S. special Examinations are provided.

In 1876 a special Examination was instituted with the view of affording practitioners of fifteen years' standing an opportunity of obtaining the Degree of M.D. The Regulations will be found in the Appendix.

In 1891 the Degrees of Bachelor of Hygiene and of Doctor of Hygiene were instituted. The candidate for the B.Hy. must be a registered Medical Practitioner, not less than twenty-two years of age, and must have spent one year of professional study subsequent to the attainment of a first registrable qualification in Medicine, Surgery, and Midwifery, in attendance at the College of Medicine, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and must pass an examination on specified subjects. The candidate for the D.Hy. must be a B.Hy., and have been engaged for two years subsequently to the date of his acquirement of the Degree of B.Hy., in practice, as a Medical Officer of Health, must write an essay upon some practical hygienic subject, selected by himself, and approved by the Lecturer on Public Health, and be examined thereon, and upon questions relative to the subject of the essay.

In 1894 the Diploma in Public Health was instituted. The candidate for the D.P.H. must be a registered Medical Practitioner, not less than 22 years of age, and must have spent one year of professional study subsequent to the attainment of a first registrable qualification in Medicine, Surgery, and Midwifery, and must pass an examination on specified subjects.

A Diploma in Dental Surgery has recently been instituted. The candidate for the Diploma must pass the necessary Examination required by the General Medical Council for Registration as a Dental Student, together with other Examinations in specified subjects. Before admission to the Final Examination, the candidate must furnish evidence (1) of having attained the age of 21 years, (2) of having undergone a three-years' pupillage in Mechanical Dentistry with a registered Dentist, and (3) of having been engaged in professional study for at least four years subsequent to Registration as a Dental Student. He must also sign such Declaration as the University may determine, binding himself not to advertise for professional purposes.

In 1865, by an Act of the Dean and Chapter, a change was made in the Regulations of the University. Students became admissible to the Degree of B.A. after residing two academical years, the period of residence in each year being eight months. It was further provided that no Student who was not a member of the United Church of England and Ireland should be obliged to attend the services of that Church; and that no religious test or subscription be required from any member of the University, with the following exception, viz., that "no person shall become a Licentiate in Theology, or take any Degree in Theology, or become a member of the Senate or Convocation, unless he has previously declared in writing that he is a bonâ fide member of the Church of England as by law established."

By the same Act there was founded in Michaelmas Term, 1865, in the Faculty of Arts, a School of Physical Science, "including Pure and Applied Mathematics, Chemistry, Geology, Mining, Engineering, and the like." It was provided that Students in this School, after two years' residence of eight months in each year, should be admissible as Associates in Physical Science; and that Terms kept by a Student in this School might, by consent of Senate, count towards the Degree of B.A.

In 1871 a College of Physical Science was founded at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, by the joint co-operation of the University and the leading land proprietors, employers of skilled labour, &c., in the North of England. Chairs were founded in Pure and Applied Mathematics, Chemistry, Physics, and Experimental Philosophy, and Geology ; and Lectureships were established in Classics and English History and Literature. It was arranged that the course of study should extend over two years, and that at the end of that time Students who had passed the required examinations should be admitted to be Associates in Physical Science of the University.

In 1874 an additional chair was founded in Biology and Physiology ; the privilege of electing a representative in the Senate of the University was granted to the Council of the College by an Act of the Dean and Chapter ; the College was formally incorporated with the University ; and Regulations were passed determining the scientific titles and degrees to be conferred, and the conditions upon which they might be obtained.

In 1892 the Principal of the College of Science was elected an ex-officio member of Senate by an Act of the Dean and Chapter.

Means were also provided by which students of the Colleges of Physical Science and Medicine might proceed to the Degree of B.A.

In 1878 Regulations were passed determining the conditions upon which the Degree of M.Sc. might be obtained ; and in 1882 Regulations were passed determining the conditions upon which a Master of Science might proceed to the Degree of D.Sc.

In 1904 it was agreed that the College of Science should be called Armstrong College, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the University of Durham.

In 1871 the periods of residence in the respective Faculties of Arts and Theology were equalized, one uniform academical year of twenty-six weeks being established. At the same time it was provided that Graduates of Durham should be allowed to proceed to the Licence in Theology, and Licentiates in Theology to the Degree of B.A. respectively, after a further residence of either one ordinary Term or two shorter Terms of five weeks each.

In the same year, in consequence of the passing of the University Tests Bill in Parliament, the qualification of bona fide membership of the Church of England for a vote in Convocation or a seat in Senate was abolished.

In 1910 Regulations were made for a curriculum for a degree of B.A. for students of Armstrong College. The Regulations will be found under the heading "Subjects of Examination."

In 1875, Codrington College, Barbados, and in 1876, Fourah Bay College, Sierra Leone, was affiliated to the University. The regulations will be found at length in the Appendix.

In 1876 Regulations were passed providing that Students who have completed their course of study and examinations at any of the following Theological Colleges:—St. Aidan's, St. Augustine's, Burgh, Chichester, Cumbrae, Dorchester, Edinburgh, Gloucester, Highbury, Islington, Jamaica, Lichfield, Lincoln, Moore College, Sydney, Salisbury, Truro, Warminster, Bishop Wilson School, Isle of Man, the Theological Department of King's College, London, the Theological Department of Queen's College, Birmingham, or Selwyn College, Dunedin, shall be allowed, after residing three terms at Durham and passing the Final Examination, to proceed to the Degree of B.A.

In 1894 the Central Entrance Examination, instituted by the Archbishops and Bishops of England, was adopted as the Entrance Examination for the Theological course.

In 1906 Regulations were passed providing that any Student who has (a) resided for two years at one of the Theological Colleges mentioned in the last paragraph, (b) passed the First Public Examination in Theology of the University of Durham, and (c) has subsequently taken at least a Second Class in the Universities' Preliminary Examination, shall be thereby qualified for the Licence in Theology.

In 1910 Regulations were passed by which students of the Australian College of Theology who have resided at least two years at a Theological College in Australia, recommended by the Australian College of Theology and approved by the University of Durham, or are Graduates of a University in Australia recognised by the University of Durham, are allowed to present themselves for the First Year and Final Examinations for L.Th. and to take their L.Th., and to be admitted as students in Arts; and scholars in Theology of the Australian College of Theology are eligible as Candidates for the B.D. Degree of Durham.

In 1880 Degrees in Music were established under Regulations which will be found at length in the Appendix. In order to obtain a Degree in Music, a candidate who has not graduated in Arts in some University in the United Kingdom must have passed the Examination for Matriculation in the Faculty of Music.

In 1805 Degrees in Letters were established under Regulations which will be found at length in the Appendix.*

Under a Scheme framed in 1805, the University is prepared to examine Grammar and other secondary schools.

Information as to this scheme may be obtained from the Secretary of Examinations.

The University also arranges for Local University Extension Lectures, under the direction of a joint board

* At a Convocation of the University of Oxford, held on May 24th, 1866, it was agreed :—

- (a) That any member of the University of Durham who shall have pursued at that University a course of study extending over two years at the least, and shall have passed the second public examination for the degree of Bachelor of Letters, shall be eligible for admission to the status and privileges of a Junior Affiliated Student.
- (b) That any member of the University of Durham who shall have pursued at that University a course extending over three years at the least, and shall have passed with distinction the final examination for the degree of Bachelor of Letters, shall be eligible for admission to the status and privileges of a Senior Affiliated Student.

comprising representatives of the University and of important public bodies. These lectures will be delivered in courses of three or more lectures each.

The University is prepared under certain conditions* to grant certificates to students who have attended courses of Local Lectures.

THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY.

The University Library was founded on the opening of the University, the late Bishop Van Mildert contributing, with other costly works, a collection of the Benedictine Fathers.

The Library is under the direction of a Board of Curators, and is continually being augmented by purchase and presents of books. Books may be taken out by members of the University, under regulations fixed by the Curators.

The following were the principal benefactors in the early days of the University :—

Bishop Van Mildert.	T. Carr.
Bishop Maltby.	Rev. T. L. Strong.
Archdeacon Thorp.	Rev. C. Simeon.
Rev. Dr. Prosser.	Rev. J. Collinson.
Rev. Dr. Townsend.	J. Leybourne.
Rev. G. S. Faber.	Rev. E. S. Thurlow.
Rev. H. J. Rose.	E. Shipperdson.
R. Surtees.	Rev. T. Baker.

In more recent times the Library has received the considerable additions known as the Routh, Maltby, Winterbottom, and Lightfoot Libraries.

The following conditions have been sanctioned by Senate :—

- a) Before or after each lecture, a class shall be held by the Lecturer for catechetical or informal teaching, in which each student shall receive individual attention.
- b) On the Subject-matter of each Lecture, questions shall be set. The student shall submit his or her answers to the Lecturer for correction or comment.
- c) At the end of each course of not less than twelve lectures, an examination shall be held by the University, to which examination only those students shall be admitted who have attended at least ten out of every twelve lectures, and have satisfied the lecturer in respect of class and paper work. Certificates will be granted to students who pass this examination.
- d) Certificates which, by their number, and by the subjects of instruction, satisfy the conditions of Title XVIII of the Regulations shall entitle their holders to the privileges of that Regulation, as regards residence for the degree of B.A.

Dr. Martin Joseph Routh, President of Magdalen College, Oxford, some time before his death, made over to the University of Durham, by deed of gift, his extensive library, containing many rare and valuable printed books. This collection came to the University in 1855, and consists of about 16,143 volumes, including an important series of political and religious tracts, from 1582 to the middle of the eighteenth century.

Bishop Maltby, on his resignation of the See of Durham, in 1856, presented to the University 2,408 volumes collected by him at Auckland Castle, with an endowment of £1,000 three-per-cent. consols, vested in trust.

Thomas Masterman Winterbottom, M.D., of Westoe, South Shields, bequeathed to the University his library, consisting of works in Philology, the Classics, and general literature, including a large collection of dictionaries, and many works in various European languages. This library came into the possession of the University in 1859, and consists of about 5,147 volumes.

Bishop Lightfoot bequeathed to the University about 1,700 volumes, including the magnificent work of Lepsius on Egyptian Antiquities. The rest are chiefly classical, general, and archaeological.

The number of volumes in the University Library is about 37,000. There are printed catalogues of the Maltby and Lightfoot collections.

A complete set of Migne's Patrologia Græca, 166 volumes, and Patrologia Latina, 221 volumes, was obtained by purchase in 1894.

Several recent facsimiles of Biblical and Classical MSS. have also been procured for the Library.

THE MUSEUM.

Soon after the University was founded, the Rev. Thomas Gisborne presented a collection of objects of natural history, which has received additions by donations from members of the University and others.

The Museum, which is open to the public, now contains a nearly complete collection of British birds ; some are still wanting to complete the 288 species in Selby's catalogue. It contains also a fine collection of Roman Antiquities from Binchester.

The Museum is under the direction of a Board of Curators.

THE OBSERVATORY.

In the year 1839, a collection of astronomical instruments, including a transit instrument, a telescope of above eight feet focal length, by Fraunhofer, mounted equatorially, and a clock by Hardy, was purchased by the members and friends of the University, to furnish an Observatory.

An eligible site was obtained upon ground belonging to the Dean and Chapter. The Observer resides at the Observatory, and observations are regularly made.

The Duke of Northumberland, in the year 1846, made an addition to the instruments, by presenting an excellent refracting telescope.

In the year 1891 the Fraunhofer Equatorial was dismantled, and was replaced by one of equal aperture and modern construction by Sir Howard Grubb.

An Almucantar, of six inches aperture, constructed by Messrs. T. Cooke & Sons, was added to the equipment in 1900, and is placed in a new building to the south-east of the old Observatory.

In the year 1901 a new sidereal clock by Kullberg, and a printing chronograph designed by Prof. Hough, of Dearborn Observatory, U.S.A., were acquired for use with the Almucantar or transit circle.

The Observatory is placed under the direction of a Board of Curators.

In 1908 an Act of Parliament was passed for reconstituting the University. A copy of the Act, the Order in Council, and the Statutes of the Commissioners will be found at the end of the book.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. For candidates desiring to be admitted to the Durham Colleges, and for candidates in Music the Examination is held in Durham (Lecture Rooms, Palace Green) in January, April, and October.

In 1911 the Examination in Durham for candidates for the Modern B.A., and for candidates in Music begins on Tuesday, April 25th; and Tuesday, October 10th; for Candidates for B.A. (in litteris antiquis) on Thursday, April 27th; and Thursday, October 12th, at 9 a.m.

For candidates desiring to be admitted to the College of Medicine or to Armstrong College, the Examination is held in Newcastle in March, July (at Armstrong College), and September (at College of Medicine).

In 1911 the Examination in Newcastle for admission to the College of Medicine or to Armstrong College begins on Tuesday, March 21st; Tuesday, July 4th; and Tuesday, September 19th, at 10 a.m.

Each Candidate who wishes to be admitted to any of the Durham Colleges shall, a fortnight before the examination, send his name together with the required fee, to the Head of the College which he wishes to join.

Each candidate in Music shall send to the Rev. H. Ellershaw, Secretary of Examinations, University Offices, North Bailey, Durham, one calendar month before the first day of the Examination at which he wishes to present himself, a paper containing name, in full, the particular subjects in which he wishes to be examined, together with the required fee.

Each candidate who wishes to enter the College of Medicine shall send to Professor Howden, College of Medicine, Newcastle-on-Tyne, and each candidate who wishes to enter Armstrong College, shall send to F. H. Pruen, Esq., Armstrong College, Newcastle-on-Tyne, a paper containing name in full, the particular subjects in which he wishes to be examined, together with the required fee, on calendar month before the first day of the Examination at which he wishes to present himself.

2. Each Candidate shall pay a fee of £1 10s. on each separate occasion on which he desires to be examined.

3. Candidates sending in their names after the time appointed pay an additional fee of 5s. Names of Candidates sent in after the time table is printed can only be accepted (if at all) on payment of an additional fee of £1. The time-table is printed a fortnight before the Examination commences.

4. No entry can be accepted unless it be accompanied by the fee and no late entry unless it be accompanied by the extra fee required.

5. No fee will be returned.

6. Candidates who have entered for the Examination may withdraw their names upon giving the Secretary nine days' notice and in that case may enter either at the next Examination or the next but one (but not afterwards) without further payment.

7. Candidates who have withdrawn their names will have their place on the list for the next Examination, and if Candidates wish to defer being examined to the next Examination but one, they must give due notice as provided in 6 above.

8. Persons who have passed any of the Examinations considered by the University equivalent to its Matriculation Examination (for list see below), and who therefore wish to be examined the Matriculation Examination, must, if they wish to enter the College of Medicine or Armstrong College, send to Prof. Howden, at the College of Medicine, Newcastle-on-Tyne, or F. H. Pruen, Armstrong College, Newcastle-on-Tyne, respectively proof that they have passed such Examination, together with the fee of £1 10s. In all other cases application must be made to Mr. Ellershaw (see 2 above).

SUBJECTS OF EXAMINATION.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION. —Some specified portion of the Old or of the New Testament. For September, 1910: History of Solomon and of the Kingdom of Judah to the death of Hezekiah, to be studied in the Books of Kings and Chronicles, with the Book of Micah. For March, April, September and October, 1911: Genesis, Exodus, Joshua, Judges, and the Four Gospels. All to be studied in the revised version.

ANCIENT HISTORY. —Some specified portion of Greek or Roman History. For March, April, September and October, 1911, and January and March, 1912, Greek History, 510-431 B.C.

ELEMENTARY MATHEMATICS. —(a) Arithmetic. (b) Elementary Geometry of the triangle and parallelogram, including the substance of Euclid, Book I, with easy deductions and practical construction with ruler and compasses, &c. No candidate to pass who cannot make intelligent application of the subject-matter. (c) Algebra, up to and including Simple Equations.

In and after April, 1911, to pass in this Section candidates must satisfy the Examiners in (a) Arithmetic and EITHER (b) Algebra, up to and including Quadratic Equations involving one unknown quantity, OR (c) Elementary Geometry of the triangle and parallelogram.

ADDITIONAL MATHEMATICS. —(i) Arithmetic. (j) Geometry of the triangle, parallelogram and circle, including the substance of Euclid, Books I, II, III, with easy deductions and practical constructions with ruler and compasses, &c. No candidate to pass who cannot make intelligent application of the subject-matter. (k) Algebra up to and including Quadratic Equations.

EXTRA MATHEMATICS. —(a) Arithmetic, with practical application. (b) Geometry of the triangle, parallelogram, circle and similar figures, including the substance of Euclid, Books I—IV, and VI, with deductions. (c) Algebra, up to and including the Binomial Theorem for a positive integral index. (d) Trigonometry, including the solution of triangles. (e) Use of Logarithmic tables.

ENGLISH. —Grammar. Analysis and parsing of sentences. Paraphrasing, and Composition of a Short Essay. General Questions on English Literature. A portion of a special author. For September, 1910, and January, March and April, 1911, Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream. For September and October, 1911, Shakespeare's Henry Vth.

LATIN.*—Grammar. Translation of short sentences from English into Latin. Translation into English of passages from books not previously specified. Translation into English of books previously specified. For September, 1910, and March, 1911, Cicero, Second Philippic Oration. For April, September and October, 1911, either Ovid, Tristia I, or Caesar, De Bello Civili I.

N.B.—For Candidates who prefer it, in place of translation from the prescribed book, further passages from books not previously specified will be set. Candidates, however, must notify their wish when sending in their names.

GREEK.*—Grammar. Translation into English of passages from books not previously specified. Translation into English of books previously specified. For September, 1910, and March, 1911, Euripides, Hecuba. For April, September and October, 1911, either Euripides, Hecuba, or Xenophon, Anabasis II, III.

N.B.—For Candidates who prefer it, in place of translation from the prescribed books, further passages from books not previously specified will be set. Candidates, however, must notify their wish when sending in their names.

FRENCH.—Grammar. Translation from English into French, or the composition of an Essay in French. Translation into English of passages from books not previously specified.

GERMAN.—Grammar. Translation from English into German, or the composition of an Essay in German. Translation into English of passages from books not previously specified.

or

Some other language, approved by the Matriculation Board.

BOTANY.—The external form and gross anatomy of flowering plants as far as they can be studied with the aid of a lens. The structure and pollination of flowers. The fundamental facts of plant physiology, as derived from experiments that have been performed by the candidates themselves. The examination shall include practical questions upon common British plants.

or

ZOOLOGY.—The elementary anatomy and physiology of the Rabbit; the structure of the cell, and the general microscopical structure of the tissues of the body of such an animal as the Rabbit; the elementary structure, habits, and life-history of the Amoeba, the fresh-water Polype (Hydra), the Earthworm, and the Frog.

* By permission of the Matriculation Board candidates may offer, instead of the prescribed books, other books of similar character and difficulty. Application to do this must be made at least three months before the date of the examination.

PHYSICAL AND GENERAL GEOGRAPHY.—The elementary facts of the earth in its relation to the solar system. Day and night. Climate and the seasons. Eclipses. Distribution of land and water. Continental and oceanic areas. Contours. Heights and depths. Mountain and river systems. Atmosphere. Physical characteristics. Thermometer and barometer. Climate. Rain-fall and winds. Sea: composition, temperature, waves and currents. Earth sculpture and the agents by which it is effected. Earth movements and their results. The elements of the distribution of animals and plants. Political Geography generally as dependent upon Physical Geography. The elements of the Political Geography of the British Empire, especially that of the United Kingdom.

ENGLISH HISTORY.—The general facts of English History, a choice of questions being given.

EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE.—Measurement of length, area, and volume. The balance, and weighing. Comparison of the metric and British systems of weights and measures. Velocity, acceleration, force. The relation of mass and weight. Measurement of forces (e.g., by the spring balance). Composition of two forces acting at a point. Resolution of forces. Atwood's machine, and the general laws of falling bodies. The characteristics of matter in solid, liquid, and gaseous states. The principle of Archimedes. Density and specific gravity determinations. Atmospheric pressure. The barometer. Boyle's law. General ideas of the effect of heat on matter. Measurement of temperature. Thermometers. The principle and construction of the mercurial thermometer. Changes of length, area, and volume of solids, and volume of liquids, and gases, with change of temperature. Measurement of quantity of heat, and calorimeters. Specific heat. The following in reference to ice, water, and steam: Change of state, latent heat, melting point, boiling point. Simple phenomena of heat in connection with conduction, convection, and radiation. Heat as a form of energy. Chemical and physical change. Compounds; elements; mixtures; oxygen; nitrogen; air; combustion; respiration; water; composition of water; natural waters; saline constituents of natural waters; salt; limestone.

CHEMISTRY. Chemical and Physical Change. Mixtures. Compounds. Elements. Formulae. Equations. Calculations of Weights of Materials taking part in chemical reactions. Air. Oxygen. Nitrogen. Combustion. Respiration. Correction of Gas Volumes for Temperature and Pressure. Water. Hydrogen. Composition of Water. Natural Waters. Water as a Solvent. Sulphur—its compounds with Hydrogen and with Oxygen. Sulphuric Acid. Sulphates. Salt. Chlorine—its compound with Hydrogen: the Oxy-acids of Chlorine. Carbon. Typical Hydrides. Oxides of Carbon. Fuel—Coal. Nitric Acid. Nitrates. Oxides of Nitrogen. Ammonia. Phosphorus. Its Hydride and Chlorides. Phosphoric Acids. Law of Constant Proportion. Law of Multiple Proportion, and the Law of Volumes as illustrated by the composition of the compounds of the commoner non-metals. Calculation of the Volumes of Gases resulting from chemical reactions. The general Physical and Chemical characters of the Metals.

or

PHYSICS. Simple physical measurements, and the principles and uses of the apparatus required. Expansion of solids, liquids and gases due to change of temperature. Thermometry. Calorimetry. Specific Heat. Liquefaction and Solidification. Vaporization and Condensation. Ebullition. Latent Heat. Conduction, Convection and Radiation. Heat and Work. Propagation of Light. Velocity of Light. Photometry. Reflection and Refraction of Light. Formation of Images by plane and spherical mirrors and thin lenses. The prism. The spectrum. Simple phenomena of magnetism and magnetic measurements. Terrestrial Magnetism. Electrostatics. Batteries and the production of Electric Currents. Ohm's law and simple electrical measurements. Magnetic chemical and heating effects of the electric current. Simple phenomena of electro-magnetic induction.

NOTE. Candidates in Physics should have had practical experience in a Laboratory.

ELEMENTARY MECHANICS.—Rectilinear Motion. Laws of Motion. Composition and Resolution of Vectors. Theory of Moments. Elementary Principles of Statics. Centres of Gravity of simple solids. Uniform Circular Motion.

SUBJECTS REQUIRED IN THE VARIOUS FACULTIES.

ARTS (in litteris antiquis).—In order to enter on a Course of Study for a degree, a student must have previously satisfied the Examiners in the following subjects:—(1) Religious Knowledge or Ancient History. (2) Greek. (3) Latin. (4) Elementary Mathematics.

ARTS (other than in litteris antiquis).—In order to enter on a Course of Study for a degree at Durham, a student must have previously satisfied the Examiners in the following subjects:—(1) English. (2) English History. (3) Elementary Mathematics or Additional Mathematics if the candidate intends to take no Mathematics as a subject for the degree. (4) Religious Knowledge or Ancient History. (5) One Ancient and one Modern Language.

MEDICINE.—In order to enter on a course of study for a degree in Medicine a student must have previously satisfied the Examiners in the following subjects:—(1) Additional Mathematics. (2) English. (3) English History. (4) Physical and General Geography. (5) Latin. (6) One subject selected from the following:—Greek. French. German.

- (10) General Paper: Theory of Equations, Hydrostatics.

Candidates for Honours must offer Greek Testament and Evidences at one time, and their other subjects, whether Classical or Mathematical, at another time, provided neither is taken before six terms have been kept.

JUNE, 1911 AND 1912.

- (1) OLD TESTAMENT. The Hebrew Text of Exodus i-xxiv, and Psalms i-xli, with Hebrew Grammar and easy Composition.

<sup>1</sup> Candidates must not have exceeded the standing of three years from Matriculation or other qualification as Students in Arts.

(2) NEW TESTAMENT. The Greek text of St. Mark, the Acts of the Apostles, St. Paul's Epistles to the Romans and Ephesians, and the Epistle to the Hebrews, with Grammar and Composition in the style of the Greek of the New Testament.

(3) DOGMATIC THEOLOGY.

(a) The Three Creeds.

(b) The doctrine of the Incarnation and the Atonement, with the following texts :—

Athanasius, De Incarnatione.

Anselm, Cur Deus Homo.

(4) ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY.

A. General Church History to 451 A.D., with either

(a) The Epistle of Clement, the Epistles of Ignatius, and the Epistle of Polycarp (in Lightfoot's smaller edition); or

(b) Jerome, Epistolae Selectae (ed. Hurter), and The Octavius of Minucius Felix.

B. English Church History.

The Reformation Period, 1509–1603, with Documents illustrative of English Church History (ed. Gee and Hardy).

(5) BIBLICAL CRITICISM.

(a) Old Testament. The Hexateuch and Isaiah, to be studied in Driver's Introduction to the Literature of the Old Testament, and Orr's The Problem of the Old Testament, with Buhl's Canon and Text of the Old Testament.

(b) New Testament, with Stanton's The Gospels as Historical Documents, Knowling's The Testimony of St. Paul to Christ, and Kenyon's Handbook to the Textual Criticism of the New Testament, with exact study of the text of the Epistle to the Ephesians.

(6) APOLOGETICS, with the following texts :—

Tertullian, Liber Apologeticus.

Illingworth, Personality Human and Divine.

Caldecott and Mackintosh, Selections from the literature of Theism.

Jevons, Introduction to the History of Religion.

All candidates must take (1) and (2), and two other subjects, of which one at least must be (3) or (4).

ARTS COURSE.

MODERN B.A.

1. Candidates for the Modern B.A. Pass Examination are required to keep nine terms, i.e., three academical years and to pass an Intermediate Examination, and a Final Examination.

2. Candidates are required to pass a Matriculation Examination before beginning to keep terms and are not eligible for the Intermediate Examination until they have kept three terms.*

3. Candidates for the Intermediate Examination are required to satisfy in Religious Knowledge or an alternative, in English Language and Literature, and in three of the following subjects, of which two shall be languages, one being an ancient language : Latin or Greek, French, German, Mathematics, English History.

4. Candidates for the Final Examination are required to satisfy in Religious Knowledge or an alternative, in English Language and Literature, and in three other subjects, of which one shall be a language.

5. In the case of subjects for the Final Examination which are divided into two parts, candidates shall offer Part I at the end of their second year of residence, and Part II not before the end of their third year of residence.

6. Excepting Logic, Psychology, and Education no candidate may offer a subject in the Final Examination which he has not offered in the Intermediate Examination save by leave of the Council of the Durham Colleges.

7. No candidate may attend lectures in more than two languages other than English without obtaining the leave of the lecturers concerned.

8. A candidate who has failed to satisfy the Examiners in any portion of the Final Examination may be exempted from re-examination in such subjects as the Examiners think fit.

INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATION.

The subjects of the Intermediate Examination shall be the following :—

- (a) Religious Knowledge or an alternative,
- (b) English Language and Literature,
- (c) English History,
- (d) Latin or Greek,

* In 1910 candidates who pass an examination accepted by the Council of the Durham Colleges in lieu of the Intermediate Examination, and, up to and including 1913, candidates who pass the Intermediate Examination, not having previously kept terms in either case, shall be excused from the Matriculation Examination and from the first year of residence.

For Modern B.A. Courses (Pass and Honours) at Armstrong College, see Armstrong College Calendar.

- (e) French,
- (f) German,
- (g) Mathematics.

June and September, 1911.

(a) Religious Knowledge :—The History of the Kingdom of Judah from the accession of Manasseh to the Fall of Jerusalem (inclusive), to be studied in the books of Kings and Chronicles, and the illustrative passages of Jeremiah.

Or

Life and Thought in Greece in the Fifth Century B.C.

(b) English Language and Literature :—

- (i) The History of English Literature from 1790 to 1850, with a study of the following books :—

Coleridge, Ancient Mariner, Christabel, Odes on Dejection, France, Liberty ;

Wordsworth, Arnold's Selection (Golden Treasury) ;

Byron, English Bards and Scotch Reviewers ;

Shelley, Adonais, Ode to the West Wind ;

Keats, Odes ;

Tennyson, The Princess ;

Lamb, Essays of Elia.

A competent knowledge must be shown (1) of the general literary tendencies of the above period, (2) of the text of the specified books, (3) of questions of literary criticism and history arising out of them. Candidates will also be expected to have such a knowledge of grammar as may be gathered from such manuals as Mason's Senior English Grammar (Bell).

(c) English History :—English History from 1066 to 1485.

(d) Latin :—Translation into English of passages selected from the prescribed books.

Prose Composition.

Prescribed Books :—

Cicero, Pro Lege Manilia ;

Vergil, Eclogues.

Merivale, The Roman Triumvirates (Longmans).

Prose Composition.

Prescribed Books :—

Euripides, Medea ;Thucydides, Colson's Selections from Book I (Macmillan).Outlines of Greek Tragedy (in Barnett's Greek Drama, Dent).(e) French :—Grammar : Accidence and Syntax.

Translation into English of prose and verse passages selected from prescribed and unprescribed books.

Elements of Versification.

Translation into French of easy idiomatic sentences and of an easy continuous prose passage.

Oral Examination : Reading aloud a passage in the prescribed prose books, with vivâ voce examination in French thereon or on the books generally. Dictation.

Prescribed Books for 1911 :

Daudet, Jack, Part I. (ed. Goldberg ; Macmillan).Berthon, Specimens of Modern French Verse : Lamartine, Vigny, Hugo. (Macmillan).

Prescribed Books for 1912 :

Souvestre, Un Philosophe sous les Toits. (ed. Eve ; Pitt Press).Berthon, Specimens of Modern French Verse : Lamartine, Vigny, Hugo. (Macmillan).(f) German :—Grammar : Accidence and Syntax.

Translation into English of prose and verse passages selected from prescribed and unprescribed books.

Elements of Versification.

Translation into German of easy idiomatic sentences and of an easy continuous prose passage.

Oral Examination : Reading aloud a passage in the prescribed prose books, with vivâ voce examination in German thereon or on the books generally. Dictation.

Prescribed Books for 1911 :

Freytag, Die Ahnen-Ingo. (ed. Siepmann ; Macmillan).Buchheim, Balladen und Romanzen. Dritte Periode. (Golden Treasury Series ; Macmillan).

Prescribed Books for 1912 :

Elster, Zwischen den Schlachten. (ed. Hirsch ; Macmillan).Buchheim, Balladen und Romanzen : Goethe, Schiller, Uhland. (Golden Treasury Series ; Macmillan).

(g) Mathematics :—

Algebra : Theory of Quadratic Equations. Indices, the Geometrical Series and its Convergency. Permutations. The Binomial Series for Positive Integral Exponents. Approximations. Graphs of functions with not more than two zeroes and one infinity ; gradients of these. Application to the solution of equations. Logarithms and the use of four-figure tables.

Geometry : The theory of proportion and similar rectilinear figures ; orthogonal projection ; simple geometry of the conic sections ; elementary solid geometry of the line and plane ; mensuration of the pyramid, prism, sphere, and cone.

Trigonometry : properties and graphs of the trigonometric functions ; addition theorem ; properties of the triangle ; solution of triangles with numerical applications.

FINAL EXAMINATION.

The subjects of examination shall be the following :—

- (a) Religious Knowledge or an alternative,
- (b) English Language and Literature,
- (c) Latin or Greek,
- (d) French,
- (e) German,
- (f) Modern History,
- (g) Mathematics,
- (h) Logic,
- (i) Psychology.
- (j) Education.

Of these, (a), (b), (c), (f), (g), (j), are divided into two parts, of which Part I shall be taken at the end of the second year of residence.

(a) Religious Knowledge :—

Part I, Life of Christ, to be studied in the Four Gospels ;

Part II, Fisher, Grounds of Theistic and Christian Belief (omitting ch. i, iii).

Or

Part I, The subject matter of the Republic of Plato, to be studied in Boyd, An Introduction to the Republic of Plato (Sonnenschein) ;

Part II, Berkeley, The Principles of Human Knowledge.

PART I.

- (i) The History of English Literature from 1580 to 1660, with a special study of the following representative books :—

Marlowe, Dr. Faustus (Temple Classics).

Shakespeare, Midsummer Night's Dream, Twelfth Night, Othello, Tempest.

Spenser, Faerie Queene, Bk. I (Clarendon Press Ed.), Shepherd's Calendar.

Milton, Paradise Lost, Bks. I, II; Samson Agonistes, Areopagitica.

Bacon, Essays I-XX; Advancement of Learning, Bk. I.

Sidney, Apology for Poetry.

In this subject, a competent knowledge must be shown (1) of the general literary tendencies of the above period, (2) of the text of the specified books, (3) of questions of literary criticism and history arising out of them.

- (ii) Chaucer, Man of Lawe's Tale.

Bradley, Making of English.

PART II.

- (i) The History of English Literature from 1660 to 1790, with a special study of the following books :—

Dryden, Absalom and Achitophel, Part I, MacFlecknoe, Essay of Dramatic Poesy, Aureng-zebe.

Pope, Essay on Criticism, Rape of the Lock, Epistle to Dr. Arbuthnot.

Swift, The Battle of the Books.

Johnson, London, The Vanity of Human Wishes.

Thomson, The Seasons—Winter.

Gray, Poems.

Eighteenth Century Essays, ed. by Austin Dobson (Kegan Paul).

In this subject, a competent knowledge must be shown (1) of the general literary tendencies of the above period, (2) of the text of the selected books, (3) of questions of literary criticism and history arising out of them.

- (ii) Elements of Anglo-Saxon (Sweet's Primer).

Chaucer, Prologue, Nonne Prestes Tale, Hous of Fame.

Langland, Prologue and Passus, i, ii, (Skeat's edd. of Chaucer and Langland).

Toller, History of the English Language.

(c) Latin:—*PART I.

Translation into English of passages from the prescribed books.
Questions on Accidence and Syntax arising out of the prescribed books.

Prose Composition.

Prescribed Books :

Vergil, Aeneid II, IV, VI ;

Livy, Book XXI.

PART II.

Translation into English of passages selected from books,
prescribed and unprescribed.

Roman History : The Period of the Flavian Emperors (69-98 A.D.)

Prose Composition.

Prescribed Books :

Tacitus, Agricola, Germania and The Histories, Books IV and V.

Or

Greek :*PART I.

Translation into English of passages from the prescribed books.
Questions on Accidence and Syntax arising out of the prescribed books.

Prose Composition.

Prescribed Books :

Aeschylus, Prometheus Vinctus ;

Euripides, Alcestris ;

Demosthenes, Olynthiacs.

PART II.

Translation into English of passages selected from books,
prescribed and unprescribed.

Questions on Accidence and Syntax arising out of the prescribed books.

Questions on the subject matter.

Prose Composition.

Prescribed Books :

Plato, Republic, I, II ; Euthyphro ; Apology.

(d) French :

Translation into English of prose and verse passages selected from prescribed and unprescribed books.

Questions on Language and Metre arising out of the passages set.

Translation into French of passages from English authors.

French Essay.

Questions on a special period of literature or an author specified.

Oral Examination : Reading aloud a passage in one or more of the prescribed books, with vivâ voce examination in French thereon or on the books generally. Written reproduction of a passage read by the Examiner.

Prescribed Books and Period for 1911 :

Madame de Staël, De l'Allemagne. (ed. Eve ; Clarendon Press).

Victor Hugo, La Préface du Cromwell. (ed. Wahl ; Clarendon Press) ; Les Burgraves. (ed. Eve ; Pitt Press) ; Bug Jargal. (ed. Boïelle ; Whittaker).

Boileau, Art Poétique. (ed. Smith ; Pitt Press).

Racine, Andromaque. (ed. Wells ; Heath).

Period : The Romantic Movement in France.

Corneille, Le Cid. (ed. Eve ; Pitt Press) ; Nicomède. (ed. Clarke ; Macmillan).

Molière, L'Avare. (ed. Braunholtz ; Pitt Press).

Racine, Andromaque. (ed. Wells ; Heath) ; Athalie. (ed. Eve ; Pitt Press).

Sainte-Beuve, Trois Portraits Littéraires. (ed. Savory ; Clarendon Press).

Period : The French Theatre in the Seventeenth Century.

(e) German :

Translation into English of prose and verse passages selected from prescribed and unprescribed books.

Questions on Language and Metre arising out of the passages set.

Translation into German of passages from English authors.

German Essay.

Questions on a special period of literature or an author specified.

Oral Examination : Reading aloud a passage in one or more of the prescribed books, with vivâ voce examination in German thereon or on the books generally. Written reproduction of a passage read by the Examiner.

Prescribed Books and Period for 1911 and 1912 :

Goethe, Italianische Reise. (ed. Buchheim ; Nutt) ;

Iphigénie auf Tauris. (ed. Breul ; Pitt Press) ; Hermann

und Dichtung. (ed. Cartmell; Pitt Press). Egmont. (ed. Buchheim; Clarendon Press); Selected Poems. (ed. Atkins and Karstner; Blackie).

Period: Life and Works of Goethe.

(f) Modern History :—

PART I.

The scope of the course is indicated by the following books :—

English History from 1435 to 1802 (Fletcher, Introductory History, vols ii, iii).

European History from 1453 to 1802 (Bourne, Mediæval and Modern History).

English Economic History (H. de Gibbins, The Industrial History of England).

PART II.

The scope of the course is indicated by the following books :—

Longman, Political History of England, vols. xi, xii.

Alison Phillips, History of Modern Europe.

Cunningham, Growth of English Industry, vol. 3.

H. de B. Gibbins, The Industrial History of England.

(g) Mathematics :—

PART I.

The subjects of the Second Examination, in addition :—
The use and elementary theory of the Binomial Series and Exponential series; properties of the hyperbolic sine and cosine; the geometry of the straight line, circle, parabola, ellipse and hyperbola, treated algebraically (including outlines of the general equation of the second degree); outlines of the infinitesimal calculus, limits, differentiation, integration, easy definite integrals, including applications to the theory of maxima and minima, curves, their gradients, arcs and areas, and simple volumes.

PART II.

Mechanics employing the methods of the Calculus, with easy differential equations throughout. Kinematics. The Hodograph. Projectiles. Circular motion. Harmonic Motion. Dynamics. Units and Dimensions. Conditions of Equilibrium. Centre of Mass. Statical Problems. The Common Catenary. Laws of Motion. Kinetic and Potential Energy. Simple cases of Stability. Friction. Motion and Equilibrium with the simple machines. The Pendulum. Statics of Liquids and Gases. Pressure and Energy. Atmospheric Pressure. Centre of Pressure. Floating Bodies. Easy cases of Metacentre. Hydrostatical Machines.

(h) Logic :—

Deduction and Induction, with Mill, Logic, Books ii, iii.

- (i) Psychology :—The methods of psychology. The general nature of consciousness and its ultimate modes. The structure of the nervous system and its general relation to the process of consciousness. The modes of cognition ; sensation and the mechanism of the sense-organs ; perception, ideation. Association and habit. Self consciousness and its development. Hedonic tone, sentiment, emotion. Attention, the simpler forms of action ; volitional action. Abnormal consciousness, dream consciousness, hypnosis, multiple personality.

(j) Education :PART I.(1) History of Education.

Modern Public Schools.

Life and Letters of Thring.

Arnold of Rugby (Findlay).

(2) Practice of Education.

The main principles of instruction deduced from the above, and from recognised school practice, and the application of these principles to the teaching of ordinary school subjects.

The training of interest and attention.

The assimilation of knowledge.

The arrangement, concentration, co-ordination, and co-relation of studies.

The problem of discipline and class management.

The formation of character. Authority and obedience.

Rewards and punishments.

The curriculum. Values of the subjects of study.

School organization.

School hygiene and physical exercises.

PART II.*(3) Theory of Education.

A general knowledge of psychology, with its bearing upon education.

The physical, mental, and moral development of the child, and the inter-relations of these three aspects. The influence of physical and social conditions upon development. Child study, childhood and adolescence. The unity of child development.

The application of elementary logical processes to school practice.

The aims of education as influenced by the facts of childhood, the claims of the individual and of the community. School and home. The formation of character.

CIVIL LAW.<sup>1</sup>

FOR THE DEGREE OF B.C.L.

- (1) Roman Law (to be studied in the Institutes of Justinian, Moyle's edition recommended).
- (2) Jurisprudence (in Holland's Jurisprudence, parts i and ii; and Maine's Ancient Law).
- (3) The Principles of the English Law of Contract (Anson).<sup>2</sup>
- (4) Principles of the Law of Real Property (Joshua Williams), or Jenks' Modern Land Law.
- (5) Principles of the Law of Personal Property (Williams) and Raleigh's English Law of Property.
- (6) Either International Law<sup>3</sup> (in W. E. Hall's Treatise on International Law);
- (7) Or Constitutional Law<sup>3</sup> (in Anson's Law and Custom of the Constitution, parts i and ii; and Dicey's Law of the Constitution).

Candidates will be expected to show an acquaintance with the chief cases mentioned in their English Law Books.

The Degrees of B.C.L. and D.C.L. may be obtained by Students who have passed the examination for the Degree of B.A., and are of the requisite standing, and have passed the further examinations, or performed the exercises required by the University, and have paid the requisite fees. For particulars of the Degree of D.C.L. apply to the Secretary of Examinations.

<sup>2</sup> A Selection of Cases on the Law of Contracts, by C. C. Langdell (Boston, Little, Brown, & Co.), or failing that the Selection by G. B. Finch (Cambridge University Press), is recommended to those students who cannot obtain access to a Law library.

<sup>3</sup> Candidates for distinction must take both International and Constitutional Law.

FOR THE DIPLOMA IN THE THEORY AND PRACTICE OF TEACHING.

1. Candidates before beginning the course for the Diploma must be graduates of some University in the United Kingdom, or must have obtained one of the qualifications recognized by the Board of Education in "The Regulations for the Training of Teachers for Secondary Schools."

2. The course of study shall extend over at least three terms, and shall include attendance upon prescribed courses of lectures in the University, and practical work in recognized schools.

3. The Examination for the Diploma shall be divided into two parts :—

Theory, see 4.

Practice, see 5.

4. Theory. Candidates shall be required to pass written examinations in the following :—

The study of children during the school period as regards

1. Health and physical development.

2. Mental and moral development.

The principles of Education, including the application of Psychology, Ethics, and Logic. One paper.

A prescribed period in the history of Education, with set books. One paper.

1911.—Education in Ancient Greece. The Education of the young in Plato's Republic (Bosanquet), Aristotle on Education (Burnet).

Class and school management. The preparation of school lessons. Method in school. The teaching of the ordinary school subjects. Special method in at least one special subject. One paper.

In addition each candidate shall during the final term prepare and present to the examiner an essay on some special subject of school work.

5. Practice. Candidates shall attend approved schools for purposes of practice. The time spent in connection with a class under proper supervision shall not be less than 60 school days, and two-thirds of this time shall be in an approved Secondary School.

The candidate shall be tested in practice

By reports from the teacher of the school in which the student has practised, and from the Professor or Lecturer in Education; and by giving one or more lessons before the examiners, and by submitting to the examiners records of school work.

Unless specially exempted a candidate must include in his course a special study of the teaching of one definite branch of the curriculum of a Secondary School. Success in this particular work will be recorded upon the diploma.

6. The examiners shall publish the names of the successful candidates in Theory and in Practice in alphabetical order, and shall indicate, by distinguishing marks placed against their names, the candidates (if any) who excel in the written or practical parts of the examination, or both. Candidates must present themselves for both parts of the examination, but candidates who pass in Theory may be allowed subsequently to present themselves for the practical examination without undergoing a further examination in Theory.

7. Candidates before entering for the examination must present certificates of satisfactory attendance in Theory and Practice, and must pay a fee of £3.

8. The University will deliver the Diploma to candidates who have passed both portions of the examination upon payment of a fee of £3.

FOR THE DIPLOMA IN ORAL FRENCH AND GERMAN.

The examination for a Diploma consists in reading, conversation, dictation, and oral and written reproduction of a passage read by one of the Examiners.

Candidates must possess ready comprehension, fluent expression, and correct pronunciation.

FOR THE DIPLOMA IN PUBLIC HEALTH.

Sanitary Chemistry.

Physics.

Sanitary Legislation.

Comparative Pathology, Bacteriology, etc.

Vital Statistics.

Nosology.

Sanitary Medicine.

Practical Hygiene.

FOR THE DIPLOMA IN DENTAL SURGERY.

Chemistry.

Physics.

Dental Mechanics, Theoretical and Practical.

Dental Metallurgy.

Dental Materia Medica.

Anatomy.

Physiology and Histology.

Dental Anatomy and Dental Histology.

Surgery.

Dental Surgery, including Prosthetics and Orthodontia

Operative Dental Surgery, Practical Examination.

MEDICAL COURSE.<sup>1</sup>

FIRST EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF MEDICINE.

1. Elementary Anatomy :

Bones, Joints, and Ligaments of the Body generally, together with the Muscles of the Extremities.

2. Chemistry :—

General characteristics of Chemical action. Conditions under which Chemical Changes take place. Difference between Mechanical Mixtures and Chemical Compounds. Difference between Elementary and Compound Substances. Explanation of Chemical Symbols, Formulae, and Equations. Calculation of Quantities of Materials necessary to produce or resulting from given Chemical Reactions. Conversion from Volume into Weight and vice versa. Corrections for Temperature and Pressure in the Measurements of the Volumes of Gases.

Characteristics of Acids, Bases, and Salts. Nomenclature. Laws of Chemical Combination. Combination of Gases by Volume. The Atomic Theory. Molecules and Molecular Weights. Avogadro's Hypothesis.

Hydrogen, Oxygen, Ozone, Water, its Physical and Chemical Properties. Hydrogen Peroxide. Nitrogen. The Atmosphere, its Relations to Life. Combustion. Diffusion of Gases. Principles of Ventilation. Ammonia and Ammonium Compounds, Nitric Acid, and Nitrates. Oxides of Nitrogen. Nitrous Acid and Nitrites.

Carbon, Carbon Monoxide, Carbon Dioxide. Carbonates. Marsh Gas, Olefiant Gas, Coal Gas. Flame, its Structure and Luminosity. Chlorine, Bromine, Iodine, and Fluorine, and their commonly occurring Compounds.

Sulphur, Sulphuretted Hydrogen, and Sulphides, Sulphur Oxides, Sulphuric Acid and Sulphates, Sulphurous Acid and Sulphites.

Phosphorus, Arsenic, and Antimony, and their compounds with Oxygen and with Hydrogen. Phosphoric Acid and Phosphates, Arsenious Acid and Arseniates, Arsenic Acid and Arseniates. The detection of Phosphorus, Arsenic, and Antimony. Boron, Boracic Acid and Borates.

General properties of the more common Metals and their Compounds. The preparation and properties of such as are used in Medicine.

Differences between Organic and Inorganic Compounds, and Organic and Organized Bodies. Methods of determining the composition of Organic Compounds.

Explanation of the terms "Homologue," "Isomerism," "Polymerism," "Metamerism."

Cyanogen, Hydrocyanic Acid, Cyanic Acid and Urea, Uric Acid.

General Characteristics of Hydro-carbons, Alcohols, Ethers, Ethereal Salts, Amines, Aldehydes, Acids, Ketones, Amides.

Methyl and Ethyl Alcohols, their more important derivatives. Acetic Acid and its derivatives. Glycol. Lactic Acid and its homologues. Oxalic Acid and its homologues. Malic and Tartaric Acids.

Glycerol. Fats. Saponification. Allyl Compounds, Carbohydrates. Fermentation. Benzene, Phenol, Benzoic Acid, Salicylic Acid. Glucosides.

Principal Vegetable Acids. The Alkaloids, Nicotine, Conine, Morphine, Strychnine, Brucine, Quinine, Cinchonine. Chemical constituents of Vegetable and Animal Organisms.

Practical Chemistry :—

The Examination will consist of :—

- (1) The qualitative analysis of solutions and solids, containing not more than one acid or one base. The bases may be one of the following: Silver, Mercury, Lead, Bismuth, Copper, Arsenic, Antimony, Tin, Iron, Aluminium, Chromium, Zinc, Manganese, Barium, Strontium, Calcium, Magnesium, Potassium, Sodium, and Ammonium. These bases may be combined as Oxides, Sulphates, Nitrates, Chlorides, Bromides, Iodides, Cyanides, Sulphides, Phosphates, Arsenites, Arsenates, Carbonates, Acetates, Oxalates, and Tartrates.
- (2) The preparation of simple compounds, such as the above.
- (3) Simple exercises in volumetric analysis: e.g., Acidimetry, Alkalimetry, and the use of standard solutions of Potassium Permanganate.

4. Physics :—

EXPERIMENTAL MECHANICS. —Laws of Motion considered experimentally, and simple applications. General properties of Solids, Liquids, and Gases, treated in an elementary manner.

HEAT. —Thermometry. Coefficients of Expansion. Calorimetry. Change of State. Hygrometry. Conduction, Convection, and Radiation.

MAGNETISM AND ELECTRICITY. Simple Phenomena in Magnetism. Batteries : their Constitution and use. The Magnetic, Chemical, and Heating effects of the Electric Current, Ohm's Law, Simple Phenomena of Induced Currents. Elementary Phenomena in Electrostatics.

OPTICS. Propagation, Reflection, and Refraction of Light. Formation of Images by Mirrors and Lenses. The Prism.

5. Practical Physics :—

Candidates will be expected to be familiar with the use of simple Physical Instruments, and to perform simple experiments in Experimental Mechanics, Heat, Electricity, and Optics.

6. Elementary Biology :—

- (1) The distinctive properties of Living and Non-living Bodies.—The general conditions favourable and unfavourable to Life.

The structure, growth, and chemical composition of the cell-wall, protoplasm, and nucleus. The properties of protoplasm. The growth, modification, and division of cells. Formation of tissues. Division of Labour. The Elements of Vegetable Physiology treated experimentally.

- (2) The differences between Animals and Plants.

- (3) The Structure, Morphology, Physiology, and Life-histories of :—Saccharomyces (Yeast); Bacterium; Penicillium (Mould); Pythium; Haematococcus; Spirogyra; Fucus (Brown Seaweed); Fermentation; Putrefaction.

- (4) The Anatomy, Morphology, and Physiology of the Flowering Plant as illustrated by a consideration of the structure and functions of Stem, Leaf, and Root. The various parts of the Flower and their functions. Fertilization. Germination of Seeds.

- (5) The general characteristics of Invertebrate and Vertebrate Animals.

- (6) The Morphology, Physiology, and Life-histories, of the Invertebrata as exemplified by the study of Amoeba, Vorticella, Hydra, Lumbricus (Earthworm), Tenia, Nephrops (Norway Lobster).

- (7) The Morphology and Physiology of the Vertebrata as exemplified by the study of Amphioxus, Raja (Skate), Rana (Frog), and Lepus (Rabbit).

- (8) The elementary principles of Animal Embryology, as illustrated by a study of the general developmental history of Amphioxus, Rana, and Gallus.

7. Practical Biology :—

Candidates will be required to show a practical acquaintance with the Animals and Plants mentioned above ; they will be expected to make dissections of the animals and expose the various important organs, and to make preparations to illustrate the structure of the various plants. Candidates are required to bring their own microscopes, razors, and dissecting instruments, for this examination.

SECOND EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF MEDICINE.

1. Anatomy :—

In addition to a general knowledge of the subject as tested by the written part of the Examination, each Candidate will be required to make a dissection on the recent subject. In the viv voce examination he will also be required to recognize parts on recent or prepared dissections, and to answer questions on Bones, Joints, etc. He must also have a knowledge of the more important facts regarding the development of the various systems.

2. Physiology :—

In addition to the written Paper, the Candidate will be subjected to a practical examination comprising (a) in Chemical Physiology, identification of commonly occurring proximate principles and demonstration of properties of body secretions ; (b) in Experimental Physiology, the performance of simple experiments and explanation of use of apparatus ; (c) in Histology, methods of preparation in common use, with recognition of specimens under the microscope.

THIRD EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF MEDICINE.

1. Materia Medica and Pharmacy, including the Physiological action of Drugs :—

Recognition of the official Drugs of the British Pharmacopœia, knowledge of sources whence they are obtained, and their general properties. The physical and chemical characteristics of Drugs derived from the Inorganic Kingdom, and of the active Principles of Drugs derived from the Organic Kingdom. The Impurities and Adulterations to which the principal Drugs in the Pharmacopœia are liable.

The several Pharmaceutical Groups. The Official Preparations of the more important Drugs. The essential ingredients in the more important Preparations and the proportion of these ingredients. The ordinary Doses of the principal Drugs and their Preparations.

2. (a) Pathology :—

In the written examination the Candidate's knowledge of the Principles of General and Special Pathology will be tested. In addition to the vivâ voce examination, a practical examination will be conducted in which the Candidate will be tested in elementary pathological methods, and in the description of naked eye and microscopical pathological specimens. The Candidate will also be expected to be familiar with the mode of conduction of post-mortem examinations.

(b) Elementary Bacteriology :—

In addition to the viâ voce examination, Candidates will be examined practically in the elements of bacteriological technique.

3. Medical Jurisprudence :—

Obligations of Medical Men as Witnesses. Forms of Evidence. Courts. Dying Declarations. Wills. Certificates of Death. Malapraxis. Identity. Signs of Death. Modes of Death. Wounds. Assaults. Murder. Manslaughter. Homicide. Pregnancy. Delivery. Birth. Sex. Foeticide. Infanticide. Concealment of Birth. Rape. Impotence. Sterility. Legitimacy. Inheritance. Survivorship. Life Assurance. Accident Assurance. Compensation for Injuries. Medico-legal Post-Mortem Examinations. Examination of Stains and Fabrics. General Principles of Toxicology. The mode of action, symptoms and treatment of the more important poisons.

4. Public Health :—

Sanitary Medicine. General Mortality, and its principal features (statistical and other). Zymotic Diseases. Epidemic and Endemic Diseases. Epizootic and Enzootic Diseases, and their relation to Human Diseases. Hygiene in relation to Meteorological and Topographical conditions, climate, air, water, food, clothing, occupation.

Practical Hygiene. The dwelling (site, foundations, structure, etc.). Water supply, Ventilation and Cubic space, Warming and Lighting. Conveniences. Drains, sewers. Refuse disposal, destructors. Sewage disposal and treatment. Sewerage works. Hospitals for Infectious Diseases. Disinfection. Vaccination.

FINAL EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF MEDICINE.

Medicine, Clinical Medicine and Psychological Medicine.
Surgery and Clinical Surgery.
Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children.
Clinical and Practical Examination in Gynæcology.

EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF HYGIENE.

Examination on the subject of an essay upon some practical Hygienic subject, written by the candidate, and upon questions relative to the subject of the essay.

No one, not being a Graduate, shall be held to be a Student in Science unless he shall have passed the University Matriculation Examination, or an approved equivalent Examination.

No grace for the Degree of Bachelor of Science shall be granted to a Student in Science unless the petitioner shall have attended, at Armstrong College, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, the courses of Lectures and Laboratory Practice extending over three years, consisting of three terms each, as required by the University Regulations, and shall have passed the several public examinations, to be conducted in Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

By attending for three terms from date of matriculation courses of study in Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, and either Geology or Natural History, to the satisfaction of the Professors in the several subjects ; and by proving his knowledge of Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, and Geology or Natural History, including practical exercises at an examination, to be styled the First Examination. A candidate who has satisfied the examiners in three only of these subjects must satisfy in the remaining subject at some subsequent examination before proceeding to the Final Examination.

After completing the First Examination he may qualify for admission to the Final Examination by attending for two academical years the courses of study in accordance with the requirements set forth below, provided he can produce certificates of attendance to the satisfaction of the Professors concerned, and shall at the Final Examination be required to prove his knowledge in three different subjects, one chief and two auxiliary subjects. In a chief subject a qualifying course must extend over two years, whereas in an auxiliary subject it may extend over one year only. The examination in auxiliary subjects may be taken at the end of the qualifying courses.

The following form chief subjects—one to be selected :—
Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Geology, Zoology and Comparative Anatomy, Botany and Vegetable Physiology, Animal and Human Physiology.

The following form auxiliary subjects—two to be selected :—
Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Geology, Crystallography, Mineralogy, Zoology and Comparative Anatomy, Botany and Vegetable Physiology, Animal and Human Physiology, Education.

In the Final Examinations, honours may be awarded in the chief subject only.

Registered Students in Medicine, who have passed a satisfactory Matriculation Examination before entering on study in the University, and who desire to take the degree of B.Sc., will be excused from study and examination in Mathematics after Matriculation, and will be allowed to take Human Anatomy as an auxiliary subject, provided that they qualify for the degree of B.Sc. with Human Anatomy and Human and Animal Physiology included among their final subjects, and their studies and examinations in Physics, Chemistry, Natural History, Anatomy and Physiology for the degree of B.Sc. will be allowed to count as studies and examinations for the degree of M.B. also.

(B) Agriculture.

Students in Science, who are also Students in Agriculture, may qualify for the Degree of Bachelor of Science by complying with the following conditions :—

IN THE FIRST YEAR.—Must attend the first year's course of instruction as in section A, Natural History being compulsory, and pass the examination in Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, and Natural History.

IN THE SECOND YEAR.—Must attend courses of instruction in Organic and Agricultural Chemistry, Botany, and Agriculture (Part I), and pass an examination in each of these subjects.

IN THE THIRD YEAR.—Must attend courses of instruction in Agricultural Chemistry, Animal Physiology and Pathology, and Agriculture (Part II), and pass an examination in each of these subjects.

(C) Engineering, Naval Architecture, Mining, and Metallurgy.

Students in Science, who are also Students in Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Naval Architecture, Mining or Metallurgy, may qualify for the Degree of B.Sc. by complying with the following conditions :—

All Students in Course (C).

IN THE FIRST YEAR. —By attending the courses of instruction in Junior Mathematics, Junior Physics and Practical Physics (one day a week), Junior Chemistry and Practical Chemistry (one day a week), Applied Mechanics, and Mechanical Drawing, and by passing an examination in these subjects, styled the First Examination in Applied Science.

IN THE SECOND YEAR. —By attending the courses of instruction in Senior Mathematics, Senior Physics and Practical Physics, Junior Engineering, Junior Engineering Laboratory, Mechanical Drawing, Junior Electrical Engineering, and the Junior Electrical Engineering Laboratory (three hours a week), and by passing an examination in these subjects, styled the Intermediate Examination in Mechanical Engineering.

IN THE THIRD YEAR. —By attending the courses of instruction in Special Mathematics, Senior and Advanced Engineering, Senior Engineering Laboratory, and Mechanical Drawing, and by passing an examination in these subjects, styled the Final Examination in Mechanical Engineering.

IN THE THIRD YEAR. —By attending the courses of instruction in Special Mathematics, Senior Electrical Engineering, Senior Electrical Laboratory, Senior Engineering, Advanced Engineering, Senior Engineering Laboratory, and Mechanical Drawing, and by passing an examination in these subjects, styled the Final Examination in Electrical Engineering.

IN THE THIRD YEAR. By attending the courses of instruction in Special Mathematics, Senior Civil Engineering, Senior Engineering, Senior Engineering Laboratory, Special Drawing and Calculations, Practical Geology, Surveying, Practical Surveying and setting out works, and by passing an examination in these subjects, styled the Final Examination in Civil Engineering.

IN THE SECOND YEAR. —By attending the courses of instruction in Senior Mathematics, Senior Physics and Practical Physics, Junior Naval Architecture, Junior Ship Drawing and Calculations, Junior Engineering, and Junior Engineering Laboratory, and by passing an examination in these subjects, styled the Intermediate Examination in Naval Architecture.

IN THE THIRD YEAR. —By attending the courses of instruction in Special Mathematics, Senior Naval Architecture, Senior Ship Drawing and Calculations, Senior Engineering, Senior Engineering Laboratory, Metallurgy and Metallurgical Laboratory, and by passing an examination in these subjects, styled the Final Examination in Naval Architecture.

IN THE SECOND YEAR. —By attending the courses of instruction in Junior Geology, Economic Mineralogy, Mineral Deposits, Junior Engineering, Engineering Laboratory, Mechanical Drawing, and Practical Chemistry (two days a week Laboratory work), and by passing an examination at the end of the year in these subjects, styled the Intermediate Examination in Mining.

IN THE THIRD YEAR. —By attending the courses of instruction in Mining, Surveying, Practical Surveying, Dressing of Minerals, General Metallurgy and Assaying, Senior Engineering, Junior Electrical Engineering, and by passing an examination at the end of the year in these subjects, styled the Final Examination in Mining.<sup>1</sup>

IN THE SECOND YEAR. —By attending courses of instructions in Junior Geology, Economic Mineralogy, Mineral Deposits, Advanced Inorganic Chemistry, Practical Chemistry (two days a week Laboratory work), Metallurgy, Practical Metallurgy, and by passing an examination at the end of the year in these subjects, styled the Intermediate Examination in Metallurgy.

<sup>1</sup> Students in Mining, before being presented for a degree, must produce satisfactory evidence that they have spent a period of not less than four months altogether in or about a mine, with the object of acquiring a practical insight into the elements of their future profession.

IN THE THIRD YEAR.—By attending courses of instruction in General Metallurgy, Special Metallurgy, Practical Metallurgy Dressing of Minerals, Practical Chemistry (one day a week Laboratory work), Junior Engineering, and by passing an examination in these subjects, styled the Final Examination in Metallurgy.

Candidates in Course C who in the First or in any Intermediate Examination fail in a single subject must pass in that subject in some subsequent examination before proceeding to the next examination. Candidates in Course C who in a Final Examination fail to pass in some single subject may qualify by passing in that subject alone at a subsequent examination.

The following are recognized as subjects for the purpose of the above regulation: Engineering, Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Naval Architecture, Mining, Metallurgy, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, and Geology.

In the Final Examinations, distinction may be awarded in Professional subjects only.

The examinations shall be conducted by Examiners, who shall be suggested by the Council of Armstrong College, nominated by the Warden, and approved by Convocation.

The First Examinations, the Second Examinations in Section II B, and the Intermediate Examinations in C, shall be held in June and September. All Final Examinations shall be held in June.

Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Science may be exempted from the first year of study required therefor, provided that they have pursued in this or any other University a course of study equivalent thereto, and may further be exempted from the first examination for the degree provided that they have passed in this or any other University an examination equivalent thereto.

The Faculty of Science shall have authority to determine in any particular case whether a course of study pursued or an examination passed by a candidate in this or any other University may be accepted for the purpose of the above Regulations, and may delegate this authority from time to time to any Committee approved by Senate consisting of not less than five members of its own body.

The Faculty of Science shall currently report to Senate all proceedings taken under the foregoing Regulation.

FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF LETTERS.

Anyone may be admitted as a Student in Letters who has either passed the Matriculation Examination of the University, or obtained the Certificate of the University of Durham Local Examinations, or passed some examination which shall be held equivalent.

Lectures for the degree of B.Litt. are given at Durham and at Armstrong College, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

At the end of the first year students will be admitted to the Intermediate Examination. It is allowable to take this as an Entrance Examination. If it be passed, the course for the Second Examination may be commenced at once, and the degree obtained after two years' residence.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The University Scholarships and Exhibitions are awarded by examination, and are open to all competitors, except in cases where the contrary is specified. A necessary condition of tenure is residence in the University as a Student in one of the regular courses.

Students holding Scholarships in Classics or Mathematics are required to read for Honours both in the First Year and Final Examinations, and those who hold Scholarships in Theology to pass in Hebrew in the First Year Examination (provided that Theological Scholars taking Classical Honours be required to satisfy neither in Scripture History nor in Logic) and to read for Theological Honours in the Final Examination.

IN ARTS.

There are six Foundation Scholarships of the annual value of £70 each.

Two Foundation Scholarships of £40 each.

Two Foundation Scholarships of £30 each.

Two Entrance Exhibitions of £20 each, restricted to candidates of limited means.

The above are tenable for one year in the first instance, after which they may be continued or discontinued, increased or diminished, according to the recommendations of the Examiners in the First Public Examination.

Scholarships to the amount of £70, and Exhibitions to the amount of £30, offered in October to Women Students entering in Arts.

Two Second Year Scholarships of £30 each, tenable for one year.

A Scholarship of £30, tenable for one year, offered at the First Year Examination in Arts in December, open to all candidates who do not hold any Scholarship or Exhibition. Students entering from Theological Colleges may be candidates for this Scholarship.

The Gisborne Scholarship, of the same value, offered upon the same terms in June.

A Scholarship of £30, tenable for one year, offered at the Senior Local Examinations.

An Exhibition of £20, tenable for two years, offered annually at the Intermediate Public Examination in Letters. The Exhibitioner must pursue his studies in Durham.

No holder of a Foundation Scholarship of £70 a year can hold together with it a Pemberton Scholarship, or any other Foundation Scholarship, except the Classical and Mathematical Scholarships, or any Scholarships or Exhibitions of private foundation (exclusive of the Barry Scholarship) amounting to £30 a year. No holder of a Foundation Scholarship of £30 a year can hold together with it a Foundation Scholarship of £70 a year, or Scholarships or Exhibitions of any kind (exclusive of the Classical, Mathematical, and Barry Scholarships) amounting to £70 a year. No holder of a Foundation Scholarship of £40 a year can hold together with it Scholarships or Exhibitions of any kind (exclusive of the Classical, Mathematical, Barry and De Bury Scholarships) amounting to £60 a year.

VAN MILDERT SCHOLARSHIP.

This Scholarship, founded in memory of the late Bishop Van Mildert, is of the annual value of £50.

Regulations for the Van Mildert Scholarship.

1. Unless examiners shall be specially appointed for the purpose by the Warden and Senate, the electors for the Van Mildert Scholarship shall be the examiners for the Degree of B.A.

2. The candidates for the Van Mildert Scholarship shall be such undergraduates admitted to the examination for the Degree of B.A. as are desirous of pursuing a course of study in Theology, and are recommended as fit by the Warden and their tutor, and have signified their desire to the examiners before the examination.

3. Unless there be a special examination for the purpose, the examination for the Degree of B.A. shall be also the examination for the Van Mildert Scholarship.

4. The examiners shall elect that candidate who, from the talents and acquirements shown in the examination, shall appear to them to be the best qualified to pursue the study of Divinity with success.

5. The election shall be certified to the Warden in writing, attested by the signatures of the examiners.

6. The Van Mildert Scholarship shall be tenable for one year, provided that the Scholar shall during that time keep his terms and pursue his studies in the University of Durham as a Student in Theology as a candidate for Honours in Theology.

7. The Scholar, after the Final Examination for Honours in Theology has been passed, shall receive only such portion of the proceeds of the Scholarship as may be due for the terms which he has kept. The residue which may be occasioned, either by his non-residence or by any other circumstances, shall be either laid out in prizes for those who distinguish themselves at the Final Examination in Theology or applied in such other manner as the Warden and Senate may think most conducive to the interests of the University.

8. No Van Mildert Scholar shall receive the proceeds of the Scholarship unless he produces a certificate from his tutor of good conduct and attention to his studies.

LINDSAY SCHOLARSHIP.

1. The above-mentioned Foundation and its endowment are administered by the Warden, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Durham (hereinafter called the Trustees), in conformity with the provisions of a Scheme, dated June 19th, 1906, under the name of the Ralph Lindsay Scholarship, hereinafter called the Foundation.

2. After payment of the expenses of administration, the Trustees shall apply a yearly sum of not less than £40, and not more than £60, in the maintenance of a Scholarship, to be called the Lindsay Scholarship, tenable at Durham University, and to be awarded to boys, who—

- (i) are and have for not less than three years been in attendance at Durham Grammar School, and
- (ii) either (a) were born in the dioceses of Durham or Newcastle, or (b) are of kin to the Founder, Ralph Lindsay.

Provided that any Scholarship for which there is no candidate qualified under both the foregoing paragraphs (i) and (ii) hereof, who on examination is adjudged worthy to take it, may for that turn be awarded to a candidate qualified under paragraph (i) only. Each Scholarship shall be awarded for a period of three years.

The Trustees may in any year apply any accumulations of income of the Foundation in increasing the value of the Scholarship, provided that the yearly value of the Scholarship shall not exceed £60.

3. Within the limits fixed by this Scheme, the Scholarship shall be freely and openly competed for, and shall be awarded for merit on the result of such examination, and under such regulations and conditions as the Trustees think fit, provided that, in the award, preference shall be given for proficiency in classics. Any Scholarship, for which there is no duly qualified candidate who, on examination, is adjudged worthy to take it, shall for that turn not be awarded.

4. The Scholarship shall be tenable only for the purposes of education. If the holder of a Scholarship is, in the judgement of the Trustees, guilty of serious misconduct or idleness, or fails to maintain a reasonable standard of proficiency, or wilfully ceases to pursue his education, the Trustees may deprive him of the Scholarship, and for this purpose may act on the report of the proper authorities of the said University, or on such other evidence as the Trustees think sufficient. Under this clause the decision of the Trustees shall be final in each case.

5. No boy shall, by reason of any exemption from attending prayer or religious worship, or from any lesson or series of lessons on a religious subject, be deprived of any advantage or emolument out of the endowment of the Foundation, to which he would otherwise have been entitled.

6. The Scholarship is awarded on the results of the Matriculation Examination.

ELLERTON SCHOLARSHIP.

The Rev. Edward Ellerton, D.D., Fellow of Magdalen College, Oxford, by deed dated February 22nd, 1848, founded a Scholarship of £30 a year, for natives of the North Riding of York, tenable in ordinary cases for three years.

Deed of Foundation.

In gratitude to Divine Providence, I am desirous of assisting some of my compatriots, natives of the North Riding in the County of York, by founding for their benefit in the University of Durham a Scholarship of £21 per annum, tenable in ordinary cases for three years.

The qualifications of the candidates shall be the following:—

1. That they be natives of the North Riding of Yorkshire.
2. That they be sons of parents who are members of the Church of England.
3. That they shall have received their education at Richmond Grammar School.
4. That they shall not exceed their twentieth year on the day of their first election.
5. That they be in need of such assistance.

But if no candidate appear from Richmond School, or if such candidate be declared by the examiners to be incompetent,* a native of the North Riding of Yorkshire educated elsewhere is to be elected Scholar. And if more candidates than one should appear, either from Richmond School or of those who have had their school education elsewhere, I desire that the best scholar be elected.

* Aptus ad proficiendum is the qualification required in our Oxford Statutes, and if the candidate is not so far advanced in learning as to be competent to profit by the lectures he will attend, he may be declared incompetent.

I consider it most safe to elect the scholar only for one year; and, if his conduct be satisfactory, to repeat the election at the commencement of the second year and third year; that if a youth elected scholar should, in the judgement of the Senate of the University, have forfeited his claim to re-election by indolence or immorality, he may be removed; and I hereby authorize and request the University to elect another scholar* in the room of him who has been found unworthy; and the scholar so elected, if he approve himself to the University by his diligence as a Student and his exemplary life as a Christian, shall enjoy the Scholarship for three years, having been three times elected, and at the end of the third year shall vacate it, to make room for another possessing all the requisite qualifications enumerated above.

The event contemplated, that there may be no native of the North Riding a candidate for the Scholarship founded by me is possible, but not probable; but such a contingency should be provided for.

If such a case actually arise, I wish that the Scholarship should be thrown open to natives of the East and West Ridings of the county pro istâ vice, and that the person elected, if his conduct be satisfactory to the University, should enjoy it after three elections for three years.

Regulations for the Ellerton Scholarship.

1. The Ellerton Scholar shall, in ordinary cases, be elected by the Warden and Senate in the Michaelmas Term of each year.
2. Each candidate, before he is admitted to examination, must submit to the Warden testimonials of character, and certificates to show that he possesses the qualifications specified in the Deed of Foundation.
3. The examination for admission to the Scholarship shall be conducted by two or more Examiners, to be nominated by the Warden.

The Examiners, being furnished with a list of the candidates, shall make to the Warden and Senate a report of the proficiency of each.

4. The Ellerton Scholar will be required to keep his Terms and pursue his studies in the University as a Student in Arts.

No extraordinary election of this sort would, of course, be communicated to the Master of Richmond School, that he may avail himself of the vacancy, if he have any boys sufficiently advanced to fill it; if not, the election must be made out of natives of the North Riding educated elsewhere.

5. The Warden shall have authority to dispense with the keeping of not more than one Term of residence in the course of two years; and not more than two Terms of residence in the course of three years.

6. In such cases the Scholar shall receive only such portion of the proceeds of the Scholarship as may be due for the Terms he has kept.

The residue which may arise, either from this cause or from any other circumstance, shall be added from time to time to increase the value of the Scholarship.

7. The University shall have power to alter and amend these Regulations from time to time, consistently with the Deed of Foundation.

BARRY SCHOLARSHIP.

James Barry, late of the City of Durham, devised to William Lloyd Wharton, Francis Dixon Johnson, Anthony Wilkinson, the Rev. James Raine, and John Fogg-Elliot, such part of his effects as should enable them to invest in the parliamentary or public stocks of this kingdom a sum producing £30 per annum for a Divinity Scholarship.

In the year 1893 the following scheme was approved :—

1. From and after the day on which this Scheme is approved and established by an Order of the Charity Commissioners, the above-mentioned Charity and its endowment shall be administered and managed by the body of Trustees hereinafter constituted, subject to and in conformity with the provisions of this Scheme, under the title of the James Barry Divinity Scholarship.

2. The sum of Stock comprised in this Scheme shall be forthwith transferred, under the authority of a further Order of the Charity Commissioners, into the name of "The Official Trustees of Charitable Funds," and all sums of cash now or at any time belonging to the Charity, and not required for current expenditure, shall as soon as possible be invested, under the like authority, in the name of the said Official Trustees.

3. The body of Trustees shall consist of the Warden of the University of Durham, and the Professors of Divinity, Greek, and Hebrew in the said University.

4. There shall be a quorum when two Trustees are present at any meeting. The Trustee present who holds the Senior Office shall be the Chairman of the meeting. Every matter shall be determined by the majority of the Trustees present and voting upon the question. In case of equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

5. All the proper costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the administration and management of the Charity shall be first defrayed by the Trustees out of the income thereof.

6. Subject to the payments aforesaid, the yearly income of the Charity shall be applied by the Trustees in the maintenance of one or more Scholarships, tenable for one year in the University of Durham by Divinity Students or Licentiates in Theology, to be elected by the Trustees subject to the following regulations :—

- (a) The election shall take place at such time in Easter term as the Trustees shall fix.
- (b) Candidates must be of not less than three nor more than nine terms' standing.
- (c) Candidates must have received such testimonials of good conduct and studious habits as shall be satisfactory to the Senior Proctor of the University.
- (d) Each Candidate must deliver to the Registrar of the University, at such times as the Trustees shall fix, an essay, either on the Liturgy of the Church of England, or on such part thereof, or on such one or more of the Articles of the Church of England, or on some subject thereto allied, as the Professor of Divinity shall appoint.
- (e) Candidates need not be required to read their essays to the Trustees, and the award shall not depend on excellence in elocution and delivery.
- (f) Subject as aforesaid the Scholarship or Scholarships shall be awarded and held under such regulations and conditions as the Trustees think fit. If at the time of election there shall be no candidate qualified for the same as aforesaid, whose essay shall be adjudged worthy to entitle him to take the Scholarship, no Scholarship shall for that turn be awarded.
- (g) The Scholarship cannot be awarded twice to the same candidate.

LIGHTFOOT SCHOLARSHIP.

This Scholarship, given by the Rev. Alfred William Gross, of Hatfield Hall, in memory of the late Bishop Lightfoot, is of the annual value of £50. Its object is to encourage those who have taken Honours in Arts to devote at least three terms to the study of Theology and take Honours in Theology.

Regulations.

1. The Examiners for the Final Examination in Classics or Mathematics shall award the Lightfoot Scholarship each June to the candidate for Honours in Arts who seems to them to be the most promising as a student of Theology, and has signified to the Examiners before the examination his intention of competing for the Scholarship.

2. The candidate selected must have taken Honours in the Final Examination in Arts. During his tenure of the Scholarship he shall read for Honours in Theology.

3. The Lightfoot Scholarship shall be tenable for one year, and one-half shall be payable after the Scholar has kept two terms as a student in Theology, the other half after he has kept a third term and has taken Honours in Theology. Holders of the Lightfoot Scholarship, being Bachelors of Arts, shall be allowed to offer, from amongst the subjects required for Honours in Theology, New Testament, and three other subjects, of which one must be Dogmatic Theology or Ecclesiastical History.

4. The Lightfoot Scholarship shall not be tenable with the Van Mildert Scholarship.

5. These regulations shall not be changed during the lifetime of the founder without his consent.

PEARS SCHOLARSHIP.

This Scholarship was founded on a Bequest made to the Dean and Chapter of Durham, as Governors of the University, by George Pears, of Witton-le-Wear, in a Will dated 31st May, 1898.

The conditions of this Scholarship, as set forth in the Bequest, are :—

1. That it should be granted to a Candidate who has not yet matriculated.

2. That the elected Candidate should begin Residence in the University in the Term next ensuing after his election.

3. And that such Scholar may follow out his education in the Faculty of (a) Arts, or (b) Theology, or (c) Medicine.

4. The Scholarship may be tenable for three years ; with power to the "University Authorities," in case of misconduct or idleness, to withdraw the Scholarship from any holder of it.

5. The Donor directs that, though the Scholarship is to be open to all, other things being equal, a preference should be given to a native of Witton-le-Wear or of Bishop Auckland, or of any place within a radius of two miles from either of these places. Candidates must be persons who "but for the help of the Scholarship would not be able to meet the expenses of a University course."

Regulations.

1. The Examination on which this Scholarship shall be awarded shall be the "Matriculation Examination in Medicine, Science, Letters, and Music." Candidates for the Scholarship must offer English, Latin, Additional Mathematics, Greek (if he proposes to enter under Arts or Theology); or (if he proposes to study Medicine) either Greek, or French, or German.

 STEPHEN SCOTT SCHOLARSHIP.

The late Stephen Scott, of Harrogate, formerly of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, generously presented to the College of Medicine the sum of £1,000, for the purpose of founding a Scholarship. The competition shall be by an original Essay. By the terms of Mr. Scott's gift, the subject of the Essay was at first limited to "Hernia and Allied Subjects," but afterwards he kindly consented to extend the scope of the Essay so as to include any Surgical subject. Any Graduate in Medicine or Surgery of the University of Durham, or any Student of the College of Medicine, shall be eligible to compete for the Scholarship, provided that such Student shall have kept at least one academical year in attendance at the College, and that in any case his age does not exceed thirty years at the time when the Essay is sent in.

The Competition shall take place every year, and the Essays must be presented not later than the 15th day of July.

The Essay must be type-written and may be illustrated by drawings, preparations, and specimens, at the choice of the Essayist. The judge shall be the Professor of Surgery, to whom the subject of the proposed Essay must be submitted for approval. The Scholarship shall not be awarded unless the Examiner deems the Essay of sufficient merit, and, in case it is at any time withheld, the proceeds shall be applied to the purposes of the Scholarship in such manner as the Trustees may direct, either by addition to the capital sum or by giving an additional prize on any other occasion when a second Essay shall be deemed to deserve it. The Essays shall be the property of the College of Medicine, and also all specimens, preparations, etc., illustrating them, but the writer of the successful Essay shall be permitted to publish it.

HEATH SCHOLARSHIP.

The late George Yeoman Heath, M.A., M.D., D.C.L., F.R.C.S., Professor of Surgery in the University of Durham, and President of the College of Medicine, bequeathed the sum of £4,000, to found a Scholarship in Surgery, the interest to be awarded every second year.

In accordance with the will of the late G. Y. Heath, the Trustees of the Heath Scholarship will award and pay to the writer of the best original Essay the sum of £200.

All Graduates in Medicine or in Surgery of the University of Durham are eligible to compete for this Scholarship.

The subject of the Essay for 1912 is "Inflammations of Bone, excluding Tuberculous and Syphilitic."

N.B. The views advanced by the writer must be illustrated by carefully prepared dissections and specimens.

The Essay must be type-written or printed, and delivered to the Professor of Surgery not later than March 31st, in the year above-mentioned. The Essay, together with any specimens, drawings, casts, microscopical preparations, or other means of illustration accompanying it, will become the property of the College of Medicine.

By permission, the Essay may be printed for general circulation by the Heath Scholar.

ARMSTRONG COLLEGE.

PEMBERTON FELLOWSHIP AND SCHOLARSHIPS.*

In the year 1844, Mrs. Pemberton, of Sherburn Hall, in compliance with the recommendation of her late husband—John Pemberton, M.A., one of the first members of the University—founded a Fellowship of the annual value of £100, and two Scholarships of the annual value of £30, to be called the Pemberton Fellowship and Scholarships.

In the year 1876 the Fellowship was temporarily suspended, and the Scholarships were divided into a Senior Scholarship of £40 and two Junior Scholarships of £15 per annum. The Council of Armstrong College determine the conditions on which the Scholarships are awarded.

In the year 1882 the following regulations were agreed to :—

Regulations for the Pemberton Fellowship.

1. The electors to the Pemberton Fellowship shall be the Chancellor and Senate ; and the election shall take place in the Michaelmas Term immediately succeeding any vacancy.
2. The Fellowship shall be awarded upon the results of an examination in Physical Science to be held for that purpose ; the examiners being appointed by the Chancellor and Senate.
3. All graduates of Science in the University shall be eligible to the Fellowship, provided that they are not of more than six years' standing from their first Degree in Science.
4. No one shall be eligible unless he shall have produced satisfactory testimonials of good character, and unless he be a bonā fide member of the Church of England.
5. The annual value of the Fellowship shall be £120 ; and it shall be tenable for a period of three years.
6. The Pemberton Fellow shall be required to reside in Durham or Newcastle, and to take part in the teaching of the University, if he be requested to do so by the Chancellor ; such residence, however, may be dispensed with by the Chancellor, if he think fit.
7. The Pemberton Fellow shall proceed to the Degree of M.Sc. as soon as he is of sufficient standing to do so. If he neglects thus to proceed for a period of one year, the Chancellor shall declare the Fellowship vacant, unless such neglect arise from a cause which in the judgement of the Chancellor shall be deemed satisfactory.

8. The Fellowship may not be held in conjunction with any Scholarship or Exhibition.

Two Fellowships of the value of £125 a year each are offered for competition in June of each year. A fellowship is tenable for two years or in exceptional cases for three years. It is tenable upon condition of the holder engaging in advanced study or research to the satisfaction of the Council either in the College itself or in some other approved place. A fellowship may not be held concurrently with any other fellowship, scholarship or like emolument without leave of the Council, and its holder may not without leave of the Council engage in any remunerative employment during his tenure of the fellowship. Candidature for fellowships is open to any graduate of the University of Durham, in whatever Faculty, who studied in Armstrong College during the final two years of his curriculum for the degree of Bachelor. Notice of candidature in any year must be given before the first of May. Candidates must specify their ages, their degrees, any honours or prizes they may have previously gained, the lines of advanced study or research they propose to pursue, and the places in which they desire to pursue it, and may furnish any such other information as to their qualifications as they may deem advisable. Appointment to fellowships is made by the Council of the College on the recommendation of the Board of Professors. In making an award the candidate's place in examination lists, his general capacity and aims, and any original work he has already done are considered. No fellowship is awarded unless the Board of Professors recommends a candidate as a person suitable to carry out the intentions of the foundation. In the event of a fellowship not being awarded in any one year, an additional fellowship may be offered in the following year. A fellow is required to make a full report of his proceedings to the Board of Professors before the first of June in each year of his tenure of the fellowship. The continuance of a fellowship is conditional upon the satisfactory character of the report received. The yearly stipend of a fellowship is paid in two instalments of £62 10s. od. each, of which one is paid on the first of October and one on the first of April in the year to which it applies.

SENIOR PEMBERTON SCHOLARSHIP.

There shall be one Senior Pemberton Scholarship, tenable for two years, of the annual value of £40, or under, as the funds may permit.

The Scholarship shall be awarded on the results of a Special Examination at the end of the Second year.

Candidates must have passed the First B.Sc. Examination and must not have kept more than three terms since completing that Examination. Candidates are required to send in their names to the Secretary before 30th April, and to specify the subject in which they offer themselves; the subject must be either the chief subject selected by the candidate for the Final B.Sc. Examination, or Engineering, Naval Architecture, or Mining, or Metallurgy. In the award of this Scholarship, preference will be given to the candidate intending to remain for a fourth year.

Provided there are fully qualified candidates, the award will, as far as possible, be made alternately for Pure and Applied Science.

The Scholar will be required to attend classes or Laboratory work at the College to the satisfaction of the Professors for not less than twenty hours per week during term for such time as he shall continue to hold the Scholarship.

The Scholar will be allowed to attend the classes and Laboratories of the College without payment of fees, but will be required to pay for material he may use or apparatus he may injure in the Laboratories.

Ten Exhibitions, giving free admission to any ordinary day course of the College, are annually at the disposal of the City Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and may be awarded to candidates of either sex who are resident in Newcastle. Students of the College, who have already entered upon a course of study in it for a University Degree or a College Diploma, are not eligible for candidature for these Exhibitions. Each Exhibition is tenable for two years, provided the Exhibitioner's progress during the first year is satisfactory, and renewable for a third year if the Exhibitioner is recommended by the Board of Professors. Applications for these Exhibitions should be made to the Secretary, Education Committee, Education Offices, Northumberland Road, Newcastle, before 24th June in each year.

DAGLISH FELLOWSHIP.

Under the will of the late Mr. John Daglish, funds have been placed at the disposal of Armstrong College for founding a Travelling Fellowship to be called the "Daglish" Fellowship. The Fellowship, which is of the value of about £120 per annum, is tenable for one year, and renewable for a second year under exceptional circumstances. The object of the Fellowship is to enable the holder to spend a period of twelve months in travelling chiefly in foreign mining districts so as to enable him to enlarge his technical experience. The Fellowship is to be awarded to a Mining Student, of not less than 20 years of age, who need not necessarily be a student of this College. Full information may be obtained from the Secretary, to whom applications must be sent by December 1st. The election to the Fellowship will be made in January

ROYAL (1851) EXHIBITION SCHOLARSHIP AND PROBATIONARY BURSARIES.

His Majesty's Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851 have instituted a number of Science Scholarships to be held by Students of not less than three years' standing in Universities or Colleges at home or in the Colonies, on condition that the Scholar indicates high promise of capacity for advancing Science or its applications.

The Scholarships are of the annual value of £150, and tenable for two years, or, in rare cases, for three years. They are limited to those branches of Science the extension of which is specially important for our national industries. The Scholarships are tenable in any University or University College at home or abroad, or in any other Institution approved by the Commissioners. The holder of a Scholarship must give an undertaking that he will wholly devote himself to the object of the Scholarship, and that he will not hold any position of emolument during its continuance.

One Scholarship (tenable for two years) is allotted annually to the Armstrong College. The Scholars will be nominated by the College Council, and appointed by the Commissioners.

Candidates for the Scholarship must have attended the College for at least three years. Evidence of capacity for original research, as shown by actual work done, is strictly required, this being the main qualification for a Scholarship.

1910 Bowden, E.

1905 Smith, S. P.

1910 Forster, A.

1905 Lebour, M. V.

H. M. Commissioners are prepared to award Bursaries in certain cases, where the nominee of an Institution invited to recommend a Science Scholar appears not to be immediately qualified for a Scholarship, but gives promise of becoming so, after a year's further experience of research work.

The Bursaries are of the value of £70 and tenable for one year. Candidates for a Bursary must, except as to evidence of capacity for original research, fulfil all the conditions for the time being laid down for appointment to a Science Research Scholarship. The holder of a Bursary must give an undertaking that he will wholly devote himself to research and work preparatory to research, that he will spend none of his time in assisting a teacher in his duties, and that he will not hold any other Bursary, Scholarship, or position of emolument.

COUNTY COUNCIL SCHOLARSHIPS.

The County Councils of the district offer the following Major Scholarships, tenable at the College :—

CUMBERLAND.—Two Major Scholarships, open to both sexes, and two Agricultural Scholarships, of the value of £50 each, tenable for two years and renewable for a third year.

One Scholarship, in connexion with the new Wintey Course in Agriculture, of the value of £35, tenable by Newton Rigg pupils at Armstrong College.

DURHAM.—Central Evening Scholarships of the value of tuition fees and railway fares. Junior Exhibitions of the value of £60, tenable for one year but renewable for a second, third, or fourth.

One Senior Exhibition, not exceeding £100, tenable for one year, but renewable for a second or third year, provided the Exhibitioner's progress is satisfactory. The Exhibition is held on condition of the holder prosecuting studies or research bearing on the application of Science or Art to specific Industries or Employments carried on in the County of Durham.

Special Exhibitions, value, period and mode of award to suit circumstances—e.g., College course for six weeks in Autumn in Agriculture, Sessional course in same subject, Dairy work (advanced), &c.

LANCASHIRE.—Senior Science and Agricultural Scholarships of the value of £60 per annum, and Junior Agricultural Scholarships of the value of £30 per annum, open to both sexes. Each Scholarship is tenable for one year, but renewable for a second or a third year.

NORTHUMBERLAND.—One major Scholarship of the value of £40 and tuition fees to an amount to be determined by the County Education Committee, tenable for two years.

FREIRE-MARRECO MEDAL AND PRIZE.

A bronze medal and prize of books, not exceeding the value of £5, founded in memory of Algernon Freire-Marreco, the first Professor of Chemistry at the College, are awarded at the close of each session, for the most complete series of Chemical substances prepared in the Chemical Laboratory of the College during the session, preference being given to original investigation in Chemistry conducted at the College.

Candidates must have studied Chemistry in the Laboratories of the College for a period of not less than one entire session, and must give satisfactory proof of a general knowledge of the science. It may be required of a candidate, before competing, to give evidence of a knowledge of Mathematics and Physics, such as is required in the higher branches of Chemistry.

REGULATIONS OF THE DURHAM COLLEGES.

TITLE I. OF ADMISSION

1. Candidates for admission as students in Arts in litteris antiquis shall be required to pass an examination in the rudiments of the Christian religion or in an alternative subject to be prescribed by Council, in the Greek and Latin languages, and in Arithmetic and the elements of Mathematics. The examination shall be conducted by examiners appointed by the Council of the Durham Colleges.

Candidates for admission as students in Arts for a degree other than in litteris antiquis shall be required to pass an examination in the rudiments of the Christian religion, or in an alternative subject to be prescribed by Council, in two languages other than English, of which one shall be an ancient and one a modern language, in Arithmetic and Mathematics, in English History and in English.

2. — Anyone who has completed his course of study and examinations at any of the following Theological Colleges: — St. Aidan's, St. Augustine's, Burgh, Chichester, Cumbrae, Dorchester, Edinburgh, Gloucester, Highbury, Islington, Jamaica, Lichfield, Lincoln, Moore College (Sydney), Salisbury, Selwyn College (Dunedin), Truro, Warminster, Bishop Wilson School (Isle of Man), the Theological Department of King's College, London, or the Theological Department of Queen's College, Birmingham, and has produced satisfactory testimonials of character, shall be admitted as a student in Arts, provided that at the time of his course such college was connected with the University. Such a student, in order to keep terms, must have been admitted to the Licence in Theology either before or in the course of his first term of residence as a student in Arts.

3. — Candidates for admission as students in Theology must have attained the age of nineteen years, have produced satisfactory testimonials of character, and have passed the examination prescribed by Council, except as provided in the following paragraphs.

4. — Any student of the University of Durham, who has passed the examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and has produced, if required, satisfactory testimonials of character, shall be admissible as a student in Theology.

Any student of the Durham Colleges who, having passed the First Public Examination in Arts, shall have completed the residence required for admission to the Final Examination in Arts at a time when no such examination is appointed to be held, shall be allowed, with the consent of Council, to keep the ensuing term as a student in Theology.

5.—Anyone who has passed the examination for the degree of B.A., or any higher degree, at another University, and has produced satisfactory testimonials of character, shall be admissible as a student in Theology, provided that the examination for that degree is of a character similar to that required at this University.

6.—Candidates for admission as students in Letters are required to pass the examination prescribed for such students in the University Regulations.

7.—Candidates for admission as Students in Music must have previously satisfied examiners appointed by the Council in English, and in two other prescribed subjects of examination, unless they have passed an examination recognised as equivalent.

TITLE II.

OF THE LICENSING OF HALLS AND HOUSES FOR THE RECEPTION OF STUDENTS.

1.—Halls and Houses may be opened for the reception of students by licence from the Council of the Durham Colleges.

2.—No such licence shall be granted unless the Hall or House is under the immediate care of a Master or other chief officer, of the degree of Master of Arts at least. The Master, or other chief officer, may or may not be assisted by a Council. The President of the Council of the Durham Colleges shall either be Visitor of any such Hall or House, or preside in it, according to the terms of the licence.

3.—The buildings shall in every case be described, and the conditions stated, in the licence, which shall be null and void if the buildings be changed, or if any of the conditions be disregarded.

4.—Any licence may be revoked, and any Master or other officer may be removed by the Council of the Durham Colleges; an appeal being in every case open to the Visitor.

TITLE III.

OF DISCIPLINE.

1.—In Durham the public Divine Services of the University shall be those of the Cathedral. All resident members of the University, who are members of the Church of England, shall attend the same on Sundays, and at such other times as the Council of the Durham Colleges, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter, shall require, unless they shall have received a dispensation from the said Council. They shall also attend daily the Chapel Prayers, unless they have received a like dispensation.

2.—The resident members of the University shall wear such academical dress as shall be appointed by Senate.

3.—Every resident member of the University who is in statu pupillari, and who is a member of any recognised College, Hall, or House, shall reside within its precincts, unless a dispensation to reside elsewhere has been granted by the Council of the Durham Colleges.

4.—Men students not less than twenty-three years of age shall be admissible as members of the University in the Durham Division without being members of any College, Hall, or House, provided they reside in some house or lodging approved by the Praelector and the Censor of Unattached Students.

Men students less than twenty-three years of age shall be admissible as members of the University in the Durham Division without being members of any College, Hall, or House, provided they are living with their parents or guardians.

5.—The residence of women students attending lectures in Durham shall be kept either (a) with parent or friend approved by the Council of the Durham Colleges, or (b) in St. Hild's College, Durham, or (c) in some building licensed for the purpose by the said Council, and under the Council's control.

6.—The gates of every College, Hall, or House, shall be shut at night-fall; and an account shall be kept of all students who go in and out after that time.

TITLE IV.

OF KEEPING TERMS IN DURHAM.

1.—No student shall be held to have kept any term unless the Praelector shall have certified that he has kept forty-five days at least by attendance upon all required occasions during that term, except as provided in the following paragraph.

2.—If a Member of the University has been prevented by illness or other urgent cause from keeping any term, that term may be granted by grace of the Council, provided that not more than one term be so granted to any individual in any one academical year.

3.—After the end of every term the Praelector shall deliver to the Registrar of the University a list of all those who have kept the term, in order that certificates of having done so may be issued to them at the beginning of the succeeding term.

TITLE V.

OF ATTENDANCE AT LECTURES.

1. Every Member of the University shall be admissible to any lecture in the ordinary course of instruction, on paying the terminal tuition fee.

2.—Any person, whether he be a member of the University or not, may be admitted by leave of the Council and subject to the approval of the Lecturer to attend any particular course of lectures, on paying to the chest of the Durham Colleges the sum of ten shillings terminally, and to the Lecturer such fee as the Council shall direct.

3.—The Professor, Reader, or Lecturer, shall in every case have the power of excluding any person from his class, subject to an appeal to the Council of the Durham Colleges.

TITLE VI.

OF THE PRESIDENT.

1.—The President shall hold office for a period of five years and shall be eligible for re-election.

2.—There shall be a Senior and a Junior Vice-President, appointed from among members of Council by the President, to hold office for one academical year, to preside at meetings of the Council in his absence, and to exercise such other of his powers as he may from time to time request them to perform.

3.—The President, or in his absence a Vice-President nominated by him, shall preside at Collections.

4.—The President shall have power to dispense any member of the teaching staff from lecturing for brief periods in cases of urgency, and temporarily to sanction any arrangements that may be necessitated thereby.

5.—The President shall be the Visitor of any Hall or House opened by Licence of the Council.

6.—The President may, on application from the Head of a House, Hostel, or body of Unattached Students in the Durham Division, rusticate or (with the approval of Council) expel a student guilty of misconduct.

7.—The President shall be an ex-officio member and Chairman of (a) the Board of Curators of the Library, (b) the Board of Curators of the Museum, (c) the Board of Curators of the Observatory, and shall, if present, preside at the meetings of these Boards.

8.—The President shall be ex-officio a member of all Committees of Council.

9.—In matters which are not provided for by the Regulations of the Council, and in which action is necessary before Council can be consulted, the President shall have power to act on behalf of Council, and shall inform Council of the action he has taken.

10.—The President, or in his absence a Vice-President, shall have an ordinary and a casting vote at all meetings at which he presides.

TITLE VII.

OF THE CENSOR OF UNATTACHED STUDENTS.

1. —The Censor of Unattached Students shall be responsible for the general care and discipline of Unattached Students in the Durham Division of the University, and shall be paid such stipend as the Council may determine.

2. —He shall be responsible for receiving the names and examining the testimonials and certificates of candidates for admission as Unattached Students.

3. —He shall, at the beginning of each term, send to the Secretary of the Council a list of Unattached Students who intend to keep that term.

4. —In conjunction with the Praelector he shall license houses for the reception of Students in statu pupillari.

5. —He shall be appointed annually at the first ordinary meeting of Council in Easter Term, and shall be eligible for re-election.

TITLE VIII.

OF THE PRAELECTOR.

1. —There shall be a Praelector appointed by the Council who, shall be paid such stipend as the Council may determine.

2. —He shall be responsible for the arrangements in connection with Collections.

3. —He shall keep the records of a student's attendance at Morning Chapel and Lectures, and shall send such record to the censor to whose authority the student is liable.

4. —He shall draw up the list of Readers in Morning Chapel.

5. —In conjunction with the Censor of Unattached Students he shall license houses for the reception of students in statu pupillari.

6. —He shall be appointed annually at the first ordinary Meeting of Council in Easter Term, and shall be eligible for re-election.

TITLE IX.

OF THE SECRETARY.

1. —There shall be a Secretary of the Council who shall keep the Minutes and conduct the correspondence of the Council, and shall be paid such stipend as the Council may determine.

2. —He shall be responsible for preparing and publishing the Lecture Lists.

3. —He shall, at the beginning of each term, prepare the list of students in residence.

4.—He shall be responsible for the custody of one of the two keys by which the Common Seal of the Council is secured.

5.—He shall receive and deal with applications for the use of the Lecture Rooms.

TITLE X.

OF THE LIBRARY, MUSEUMS, AND OBSERVATORY.

Section I.—Of the Library.

1.—The University Library shall be under the direction of a Board of Curators, consisting of

The President of the Council of the Durham Colleges,

The Professors of Divinity, Greek Mathematics, Hebrew, and Music,

The Dean of Durham,

The Librarian,

Four other persons appointed by the Council of the Durham Colleges,

And all members of the teaching staff in the Durham Division.

2.—Three members shall form a meeting competent to transact business, the President or Librarian being always one.

3.—The President, or in his absence a chairman appointed by the meeting, shall preside, and have an original and a casting vote.

4.—The Librarian shall convene the Board once at least in every term.

5.—The Librarian's accounts shall be laid before the Council of the Durham Colleges once a year, having been first passed by the Curators.

6.—When any books are presented or bequeathed to the University Library, the name of the donor shall be inserted in every volume, and no such books shall at any time be exchanged as duplicates or otherwise alienated from the Library, save by the vote of three-fourths of those present and voting at a meeting of the Curators.

Section II.—Of the Museums.

1.—The University Museums shall be under the direction of a Board of Curators, consisting of

The President of the Council of the Durham Colleges,

The Dean of Durham,

And six other persons appointed by the Council of the Durham Colleges.

2.—The President shall nominate annually one of the members to act as Treasurer and Secretary to the Board.

3.—Three members shall form a meeting competent to transact business, the President or Treasurer being always one.

4.—The President, or in his absence a chairman appointed by the meeting, shall preside, and have an original and a casting vote.

5.—The Secretary to the Board shall convene the Board once at least in every term.

6.—The Treasurer's accounts shall be laid before the Council of the Durham Colleges once a year, having been first passed by the Curators.

Section III. — Of the Observatory.

1.—The Observatory shall be under the direction of a Board of Curators, consisting of

The President of the Council of the Durham Colleges,

The Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy,

The Dean of Durham,

And four other persons appointed by the Council of the Durham Colleges.

2.—Three members shall form a meeting competent to transact business, the President or the Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy being always one.

3.—The President, or in his absence the Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy, shall preside, and shall have an original and a casting vote.

4.—The Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy shall convene the Board once at least in every term.

5.—The Observatory accounts shall be laid before the Council of the Durham Colleges once a year, having been first passed by the Curators.

6.—The Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy, with the concurrence of the Curators, shall nominate an Observer, to be approved by the Council of the Durham Colleges.

The Observer shall be removable by the Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy, with the concurrence of the Curators.

The Observer shall reside at the Observatory.

Section IV. — Of Admission to the Library and Museums.

Members of the University and persons who, though not members of the University, pay the sum of one guinea annually to the Library, shall be admitted to the Library and Museums under such regulations as the Curators may from time to time enact.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE.

This College was formed, at the opening of the University, for the purpose of uniting a system of domestic discipline and superintendence with academical instruction. The Castle provides accommodation for Students within its walls. The Hall of the Castle is occupied as a College Hall, and its Chapel as a College Chapel. Every Student in statu pupillari must reside within the College, unless a dispensation to reside elsewhere be granted.

The terminal College Expenses, including groceries and all provisions, may be calculated at from £21 to £30. It requires strict economy to reduce them to £21. There are three Terms in a year.

Clergy and married Students may lodge in the Town. The terminal College Expenses of those who do so amount to about £12; Caution Money £10 instead of £15.

Every B.A., in order to count terms, pays terminally to the College 5s. until he is of sufficient standing to take the degree of M.A.; or he may compound for this charge by a payment of £1 1s., made to the College upon his taking the degree of B.A.

* This is a guarantee fund against loss by terminal defalcation, and is returned to a student when he leaves the University, if his debts to the College have been discharged.

Upon admission to the high table £2 is paid to the College by those members who have proceeded to their degrees in Arts at Durham, and £5 by those who have been admitted ad eundem from other Universities.

All Fellows and late Fellows of the University, though not members of the College, may become members of the College high table.

Members of the College who distinguish themselves in the University examinations receive prizes varying in amount from £1 to £7, according to the character of the distinction gained.

BISHOP HATFIELD'S HALL.

This Hall was opened in October, 1846, for the reception of Students in any Faculty.

Members of the Hall are classed under the various Professors and Tutors according to their qualifications and attainments, and in this respect, as also in their being eligible to all Fellowships and Scholarships, are exactly on the same footing as members of University College. § In the management of the Hall the greatest regard is paid to economy.

ST. CHAD'S HALL.

This Hall was opened in Michaelmas Term, 1904, for the reception of Students in Theology, Arts, or Letters, but primarily for the training of Candidates for Holy Orders who are of limited means.

In the case of candidates of special ability who are wholly, or in part, unable to defray the fees of the University and of the Hall, the Council will, on the recommendation of the Principal, make grants of Exhibitions and Bursaries so far as the funds at their disposal admit. The following endowments are at present available for this purpose: The "Douglas Horsfall" Exhibition of the value of £60 per annum, the "William Jones" Bursary, the "Elen Elizabeth" Bursary, the "Frank Tobin" Bursary, the "Mouldale" Bursary, the "In Memoriam" Bursary, the "John Wakeford" Bursary, the "York" Bursary, and the "J. Marke Wood" Bursary, each of the value of about £30 per annum.

WOMEN'S HOSTEL.

This Hostel was opened in Easter Term, 1899, for the reception of Women Students in any Faculty except that of Theology.

Students of the Hostel are classed under the various Professors, Tutors, and Lecturers, according to their qualifications and attainments, and are on the same footing as other students of the University.

A Scholarship of £70, tenable for two years, is offered to Women Candidates in June.

An Exhibition of £20 per annum, tenable for two years, is open upon the results of the First B.Litt. Examination to Candidates (men or women) of merit who intend pursuing their studies at Durham.

An Exhibition of £20 a year, tenable for two years, in the gift of the Principal, is awarded without Examination to a promising student in Arts or Letters of limited means.

TERMINAL EXPENSES.

Unattached Students take lodgings for themselves and arrange what they will pay for Board and Lodging. The cost averages somewhat as follows :—

Lodging for a term, from £4 to £9;

Board (say) from £6 to £8.

Every Unattached Student pays to the University the ordinary terminal fee of £7, and is a member of all University Clubs and all Unattached Clubs without any further payment.

HOME STUDENTS (WOMEN).

Home Students were first admitted in Michaelmas Term, 1895.

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE,

NEWCASTLE-UPON-TYNE.

This College was founded in the year 1832 under the name of "the Newcastle-upon-Tyne School of Medicine and Surgery" and became associated with the University of Durham in 1851 under the style and title of "the Newcastle-upon-Tyne College of Medicine in connection with the University of Durham." In 1870 it was received into closer connection with the University and from that time has been known as "the University of Durham College of Medicine."

The present College buildings, in Northumberland Road, were opened in 1889, and are admirably adapted and equipped for the purposes of Medical Education. They contain large and well-lighted laboratories and lecture-rooms, student-rooms, museum, library and gymnasium.

The Students of the College receive instruction in Chemistry, Physics and Biology, at Armstrong College; in Clinical Medicine and Surgery in the Royal Victoria Infirmary; in Practical Midwifery in the Maternity Hospital; in Fevers at the City Hospital for Infectious Diseases; and in Psychological Medicine at the Northumberland County Asylum.

Students entering the Medical and Dental Professions are required to register on the books of the General Medical Council.

From their Registration Students may proceed to the Degrees of Bachelor and Doctor of Medicine, and to the Degrees of Bachelor and Master of Surgery, or may obtain the Degrees of Bachelor and Doctor of Hygiene, or the Diplomas in Public Health or Dentistry.

Regulations for Degrees in Medicine, Surgery, and Hygiene, and the Diplomas in Public Health and Dentistry, will be found in the Appendix, Title VIII, Sec. vi. Subjects of Examinations will be found at the beginning of the Calendar.

Full particulars regarding the courses of instruction together with all information necessary for students about to commence the Medical Curriculum will be found in the Calendar of the College, which may be obtained gratis from Professor Howden, Secretary.

Under the new Articles of Association the Authorities of the College are: The President, the Court of Governors, the Council, the Registrar, the Treasurer, and the Secretary.

The Court of Governors consists of:—

- (a) Elected Governors, thirty in number.
- (b) Contributory Governors, i.e., individual donors of £25 or upwards; the Representatives of Corporate Bodies or Associations, or any mercantile or other firm, contributing a donation of £100 or upwards; and the Representatives of the Executors or Administrators of any testator or intestate contributing a donation of £250 or upwards.
- (c) Representative Governors. The following are ex-officio and Representative Governors:—

THE CHANCELLOR OF THE UNIVERSITY.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE OF MEDICINE.

THE PRINCIPAL OF ARMSTRONG COLLEGE.

THE RIGHT REV. THE LORD BISHOP OF NEWCASTLE, D.D.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE HONORARY MEDICAL AND SURGICAL STAFF OF THE ROYAL VICTORIA INFIRMARY.

ARMSTRONG COLLEGE, NEWCASTLE-UPON-TYNE.

---

This College was founded in 1871, jointly by the University of Durham and the North of England Institute of Mining and Mechanical Engineers. The object of the College is the study and advancement of Science, Literature, Philosophy, and the Fine and Mechanical Arts. It has been officially recognized as a University College. Its Professors are members of the Faculty of Science or Arts or Letters in the University. In addition to courses in Pure Science, provision has been made for studying its practical applications to Engineering, Mining, Manufactures and Agriculture. On the Literary side the University curriculum embraces the study of English Literature, Ancient and Modern Languages, Ancient and Modern History, Logic, Mental and Political Philosophy, Law, and allied subjects. A department is devoted to the study of the Fine Arts, and the Life School is regularly visited by eminent artists.

The College is under the supreme government of a Body of Governors, comprising :—

- (a) The Subscribers to the Memorandum of Association.
- (b) Individual Donors of £25.
- (c) Representatives of Corporate Bodies and Associations contributing a donation of £250 or upwards.
- (d) Individual Subscribers of £2 for two successive years.
- (e) Representatives of Corporate Bodies subscribing £10 per annum.
- (f) Representatives of the Executors of any person who shall leave a legacy of £100 or upwards.

The following are also ex-officio and representative Governors of the College :—

- The Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Durham.
- The Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Newcastle.
- The Lord Lieutenant of Northumberland.
- The Lord Lieutenant of Durham.

The Lord Lieutenant of Cumberland.

The Lord Lieutenant of Westmoreland.

The Peers of the Realm in the Counties of Northumberland, Durham, Cumberland, and Westmoreland.

The Members of Parliament for the Divisions and Boroughs in the Counties of Northumberland, Durham, Cumberland, Westmoreland, and Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

The Chancellor of the University.

The Lord Mayor of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

The President of the North of England Institute of Mining and Mechanical Engineers.

All Members of the Council during office.

Five Governors elected by Convocation.

Two Governors elected by and from the Professors of the College.

Two Governors elected by the Council of the City of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

One Governor elected from each of the following bodies :—

The Chapter of Durham.

The College of Medicine.

The Council of the Borough of Gateshead.

The Council of the Borough of Tynemouth.

The Council of the Borough of South Shields.

The Council of the Borough of Jarrow.

The Council of the Borough of Sunderland.

The North of England Institute of Mining and Mechanical Engineers.

The North-East Coast Institution of Engineers and Ship-builders.

The Literary and Philosophical Society, Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

The Natural History Society, Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

The Education Committee of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

The Institute of Foremen Engineers and Draughtsmen.

The Newcastle Section of the Society of Chemical Industry.

The North of England Society for the Promotion of the Fine Arts.

Each Ex-officio and Representative Governor, elected as aforesaid, retains office for twelve years, unless his qualification terminates within that time.

The ordinary administration of the College is in the hands of a body called the Council, fifteen of whom are elected out of and by the Governors; three are nominated by the City Council of Newcastle, two by the County Council of Northumberland, two by the County Council of Durham, one by the North-East Coast Institution of Engineers and Shipbuilders, and two by the North of England Institute of Mining and Mechanical Engineers.

The year is divided into three terms, called respectively the Michaelmas, Epiphany, and Easter Terms.

CODRINGTON COLLEGE, BARBADOS.

This College was founded by Christopher Codrington, Captain-General of the Leeward Islands, and Fellow of All Souls' College, Oxford, who died in 1710. His estates in Barbados were left in trust to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, then lately incorporated, to found a College, with Professors and Scholars, who should study Divinity, Physic, and Chirurgery. The College was affiliated to the University of Durham in Easter Term, 1875, under regulations which are given at length in the Appendix. There are Scholarships of the aggregate value of about £300, three-fourths of which are for Theological Students.

FOURAH BAY COLLEGE, SIERRA LEONE.

This College was founded by the Church Missionary Society in 1827 for the purpose of training Africans as schoolmasters, catechists, and clergymen. It supplies men for the Yoruba and the Niger Missions as well as for Sierra Leone and the neighbouring districts. In 1876 its scope was enlarged to allow the admission of other students, and it was affiliated to the University of Durham, under regulations which are given at length in the Appendix. A Scholarship is maintained by the members of the University in Durham to enable a student to obtain a University course in preparation for work in connexion with the Sierra Leone Native Church or the Sierra Leone Mission of the Church Missionary Society.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF MEMBERS OF THE UNIVERSITY.

*Those marked thus (*) are Members of Convocation.*

In the case of Graduates in Arts, Theology (except in the case of Bachelors Divinity), and Civil Law, the dates refer to the Year in which the Examination for the Degree of B.A. was passed; in the case of Bachelors of Divinity who are not Graduates in Arts, of Licentiates in Theology, of Civil Engineers, and of Licentiates in Medicine, to the year in which each passed the Final Examination. In the case of Hygiene, Science, and Music, to the year in which the Examination for B.Hy., B.Sc., or B.Mus. was passed; and in the case of Graduates in Medicine to the year in which the Examination for the Degree of M.B. was passed, except in the case of Practitioners, when the date refers to the year in which the Examination for the Degree specified was passed.

In cases where no date is given the Degree is Ad Eundem, unless it is marked Honorary. In either case it will be found on pp. 380—392.

A date marked thus (†) refers to the Year in which the Graduate, admitted Ad Eundem from another University, passed the Final Examination in Theology at Durham.

* Provided they have taken the Arts course before that in Theology.

† These Fees are paid to the University of Durham if the Candidate is successful in passing the Examination.

Graduates of the University attending Lectures on Education pay £1 per term.

Students in Arts or Letters reading for the Diploma in Education pay an additional fee of £2.

Non-resident students, who are not Bachelors of Arts, or Licentiates in Theology, pay terminally 10s. to the Chest, 10s. to the Library, and if members of a College, Hall, or House, 10s. to such College, Hall, or House.

These payments are not required from students who have been prevented by illness from keeping any term or terms, nor in any case for more than three terms of non-residence.

Every B.A., in order to count terms, pays terminally to the chest 10s. until he takes the degree of M.A. This payment is not required for more than nine terms. In the case of a B.A., this charge, together with the annual payment of £1 required after the M.A. degree (see below), may be compounded for by one payment of £5 upon his taking the degree of B.A.

Every M.A. M.Sc. and M.Litt., who is not a member of the Teaching Staff, in order to be a member of Convocation, pays to the Chest £1 annually, or in lieu of it a composition of £2. This composition may be paid at an earlier period, as above specified.

COLLEGE REGULATIONS.

1.—Applicants for admission present a certificate of their age. They also send testimonials to their character and conduct during the two previous years.

2.—At the time of admission the applicant subscribes his name to a declaration of obedience.

3.—Students are required to be present at dinner in Hall, and, if members of the Church of England, at Chapel prayers, or at Cathedral service, at the time appointed. They are also required to attend such lectures of the Professors and Tutors, and such other lectures, as the College authorities may direct.

4.—No day counts as a day of residence unless the student has been present on all the occasions required; and if he absents himself on more than one occasion, he is liable to lose a day for each non-appearance.

5.—Students are expected to be in College before the gates are closed at night; a report of all those who come in afterwards is delivered to the Censor.

6.—Any stranger going out of College after the gates are shut is required to give the name of the student from whose rooms he comes.

AN ACT

TO MAKE FURTHER PROVISION WITH RESPECT TO THE UNIVERSITY OF DURHAM.

1ST AUGUST 1908.

WHEREAS it is expedient to reconstitute the University of Durham and for that purpose to appoint a statutory commission :

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows :

APPOINTMENT OF COMMISSIONERS.

I.—(1) There shall be a body of commissioners styled the University of Durham Commissioners, and consisting in the first instance of the following persons, namely :—

His Grace Henry George Percy, Duke of Northumberland, K.G., P.C., D.C.L., F.R.S. ;

The Right Reverend Archibald, Lord Bishop of Exeter, D.D., LL.D., sometime Vice-Chancellor of the University of London ;

The Right Honourable Sir Francis Mowatt, G.C.B., P.C., LL.D., sometime Permanent Secretary of His Majesty's Treasury ;

Sir William Selby Church, Bart., K.C.B., LL.D., D.C.L., M.D., D.Sc., sometime President of the Royal College of Physicians of London ;

John Scott Fox, Esquire, K.C., M.A., Chancellor of the County Palatine of Durham ;

The Reverend John Richard Magrath, D.D., Provost of Queen's College, Oxford, sometime Vice-Chancellor of the University of Oxford ;

Joseph Larmor, Esquire, LL.D., D.C.L., D.Sc., M.A., F.R.S., Lucasian Professor of Mathematics in the University of Cambridge ; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint a secretary to the commissioners.

(2) If and whenever any vacancy occurs among the commissioners, it shall be lawful for His Majesty the King to appoint a person to fill the vacancy ; but the name of every person so appointed shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within ten days after the appointment if Parliament is then sitting, or, if not, then within ten days after the next sitting of Parliament.

(3) The commissioners may appoint or employ such persons as they may think necessary for the execution of their duties under this Act, and may remove any person so appointed or employed.

DURATION AND PROCEEDINGS OF COMMISSIONERS.

2.—(1) The powers of the commissioners shall continue until the end of the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, and no longer; but it shall be lawful for His Majesty the King, from time to time, with the advice of His Privy Council, on the application of the commissioners, to continue the powers of the commissioners for such time as His Majesty thinks fit, but not beyond the end of the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(2) The commissioner first named in this Act shall be the chairman of the commissioners; and, in case of his ceasing from any cause to be a commissioner, or of his absence from any meeting, the commissioners present at each meeting shall choose a chairman.

(3) The powers of the commissioners may be exercised at a meeting at which three or more commissioners are present.

(4) In case of an equality of votes on a question at a meeting, the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote in respect of that question.

(5) The commissioners shall have a common seal, which shall be judicially noticed.

(6) Any act of the commissioners shall not be invalid by reason only of any vacancy in their body; but, if at any time, and as long as, the number of persons acting as commissioners is less than five, the commissioners shall discontinue the exercise of their powers.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF COMMISSIONERS.

3.—(1) The commissioners shall make statutes regulating the constitution of the University of Durham, and the powers and duties of its various authorities and constituent bodies and the disposition of its existing property in general accordance with the scheme scheduled as an appendix to this Act, but subject to any modifications of detail which may appear to them expedient after considering any representations made to them by or on behalf of any body or person directly affected, or by or on behalf of any college or institution giving university or higher education established within the counties of North-

Northumberland, Durham, Cumberland, and Westmoreland, or by or on behalf of any public education authority within the same counties.

(2) The commissioners shall take such steps as are in their opinion best adapted for facilitating the making of such representations before any such statutes are framed, provided that no costs incurred in making any such representations shall be chargeable to the University.

(3) The commissioners shall make statutes regulating the conditions upon which colleges other than those at present connected with the University may become affiliated to it and regulating the procedure by which a college may become so affiliated, and shall provide in such statutes that any college within the counties of Northumberland, Durham, Cumberland, and Westmoreland the application of which for affiliation to the University may have been refused, may appeal to His Majesty in Council, and that upon such appeal His Majesty in Council shall have power to decide whether such application ought or ought not to be granted, and if His Majesty in Council shall decide that such application ought to be granted, then such college shall become affiliated to the University, and shall be entitled to appoint so many representatives on senate as His Majesty in Council may determine.

(4) The commissioners shall make statutes providing that the technical college of the borough of Sunderland, as soon as it shall have satisfied such conditions as may before the passing of this Act have been specified by senate of the University as necessary to its being affiliated to the University in the faculty of science, shall thereupon become affiliated to the University in that faculty, and shall be entitled to appoint so many representatives upon Senate as the commissioners may determine.

The letter addressed by Senate of the University to the corporation of Sunderland under date the eighteenth day of June, nineteen hundred and seven, which is scheduled in an appendix to this Act, shall be construed as embodying the conditions above referred to.

(5) Statutes made under this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything in any Act of Parliament, charter, Order in Council, statute of the Chapter of Durham, deed, or other instrument.

APPROVAL OF STATUTES.

4.—(1) When any statute has been made by the commissioners, a notice of its having been made, and of the place where copies of it can be obtained, shall be published in the

London Gazette, and the statute shall be laid as soon as may be before both Houses of Parliament, and shall not be valid until it has been approved by His Majesty the King in Council.

(2) If either House of Parliament, within forty days, exclusive of any period of prorogation, after a statute has been laid before it containing any provision not already contained in Schedule I of this Act, presents an address praying the King to withhold His assent from the statute or any part thereof, no further proceedings shall be taken on the statute or on the part thereof to which the address relates, but this provision shall be without prejudice to the making of a new statute.

(3) Any authority of the University of Durham as now existing, or any college in the University, or any other person or body directly affected by any such statute, may, within three months after the notification thereof in the London Gazette, petition His Majesty in Council to withhold his approval of the whole or any part thereof.

(4) His Majesty in Council may refer any such petition to a committee of the Privy Council, with a direction that the committee hear the petitioner personally or by counsel, and report specially to His Majesty in Council on the matter of the petition.

(5) Thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, either to declare his approval of the statute in whole or in part, or to signify his disapproval thereof in whole or in part, but any such disapproval shall be without prejudice to the making of a new statute.

(6) The costs of any petition under this section may be regulated by the committee to which the petition is referred. No costs incurred under this section shall be chargeable to the University.

POWER TO COMMISSIONERS TO TAKE EVIDENCE AND TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS.

5.—The commissioners shall take evidence upon any of the matters hereby directed to be dealt with by them; and may, if they think fit, from time to time make a report or reports to His Majesty containing any recommendations which in their opinion ought to be made for the purpose of better enabling them to carry out any of the powers hereby entrusted to them.

POWER TO AMEND STATUTES.

6.—After the expiration of the powers of the commissioners, Senate of the University shall have power to make statutes for altering or supplementing any of the statutes made by the commissioners as far as they affect the Chancellor, Senate, or Convocation of the University or any advisory board thereof or any matter at the time under his or their authority and in particular for providing for the representation on Senate of any college which may hereafter become affiliated to the University ; and the authority established under this Act for the government of the Durham division of the University shall have power to make statutes for altering or supplementing any of the statutes made by the commissioners as far as they shall at the time affect the Durham division alone. Provided as follows :—

- (1) A statute made under this section shall be subject to the provisions of the foregoing sections with the substitution only of Senate or of the authority aforesaid, as the case may be, for the commissioners :
- (2) Before any statute (save any affecting the Durham division alone) is made under this section the draft thereof shall be communicated to Convocation, whose opinion thereon if returned to Senate within two months shall be taken into consideration. In computing this period of two months any part of the months of July, August and September, shall not be counted :
- (3) No statute made under this section shall alter the equality of representation in Senate of the Durham and the Newcastle divisions of the University, or alter any statutory provision made in direct pursuance of anything contained in Schedule I of this Act as far as it may have particular reference to property or finance, or to the faculty of theology, or to religious instruction.

PROVISOS.

7.—Nothing in this Act shall affect the mode of appointment to any canonry of the Cathedral Church of Durham.

Nothing in this Act shall affect the memorandum or articles of association of the university of Durham College of Medicine, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or the memorandum and articles of association of Armstrong College, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or any rights or privileges secured to either of the said colleges thereby.

SHORT TITLE.

8.—This Act may be cited as the University of Durham Act, 1908.

SCHEDULE I.

I.

VISITOR.

The Lord Bishop of Durham shall be the visitor of the University, and shall exercise in that capacity such general powers as are usually exercised by the visitor of a university as well as such particular powers as are hereby conveyed to him.

II.

CHANCELLOR.

1. There shall henceforth be a chancellor, who shall be the head and chief officer of the University. The Very Reverend George William Kitchin, D.D., Dean of Durham, shall be the first chancellor. Succeeding chancellors shall be appointed by convocation on the nomination of Senate.

2. From the time at which the said Very Reverend George William Kitchin shall become chancellor, or a chancellor shall be appointed, the office of warden of the University shall cease, and the name of chancellor shall thenceforth take the place of the name of warden in the name of the University.

3.—The chancellor, if present, shall preside over all meetings of Senate and of Convocation.

4.—Senate as herein constituted shall provide for the performance of the chancellor's duties in his absence.

III.

GOVERNORS.

The office and powers of the dean and chapter of Durham as governors of the University shall cease as soon as this scheme comes into operation.

IV.

SENATE.

Senate shall henceforth be constituted as follows :—

The chancellor ;

Six persons appointed from time to time by the Crown ;

The dean and the several members of the chapter of the cathedral church of Durham, and so many other persons appointed from time to time by the council of the Durham colleges as herein-after constituted as may at any time be required to raise the total number under this sub-clause to six. A time limit of not more than four years to be inserted in all appointments to Senate mentioned after this point ;

Six persons appointed from time to time by such professors, tutors, and lecturers of the Durham division of the University as are not members of the aforesaid Chapter ;

Four persons appointed from time to time by the University of Durham College of Medicine, Newcastle-upon-Tyne ;

Four persons appointed from time to time by the council of Armstrong College, Newcastle-upon-Tyne ;

Four persons appointed from time to time by the professors of Armstrong College, Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

Eight persons appointed by Convocation, of whom four shall be graduates and past students of the Durham division of the University, and four shall be graduates and past students of the Newcastle division, two of these being past students of Armstrong College and two of the College of Medicine ; being thirty-nine persons in all :

Provided that if at any time the constitution of the aforesaid college of medicine be so amended that its governing body shall consist wholly or partially of persons other than practitioners of medicine or surgery or teachers engaged in teaching in the college, then two of the four persons to be appointed by the college as aforesaid shall be appointed by the governing body and the other two by the principal academic board or other such academic authority existing in the college :

And provided that if at any time the said college of medicine and Armstrong College should unite to form a single institution, then the council or other principal managing authority of the united institution shall appoint six members of Senate and the professors of the united institution other six, of whom two at least shall be professors in the faculty of medicine.

V.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF SENATE.

1.—Senate shall determine the time, place, and procedure of its meetings.

2.—Senate shall have entire control of the real and personal property of which the University shall be or become possessed after the coming into operation of the scheme established under this Act. It shall prescribe the form and custody of the common seal of the University and shall be empowered to order the affixing thereof in respect of any matters within the scope of its powers.

3.—Senate shall keep the matricula of all persons entering the University, whether in the Durham or in the Newcastle division, and shall receive all fees paid to the University for matriculation, for examination, for admission to degrees, titles, and other University distinctions or for any other University privilege.

4.—Subject to anything herein contained, Senate shall be empowered to make regulations prescribing amongst other things the conditions whether of study, examination, or otherwise, upon which candidates may be admitted to the various degrees, titles, and other University distinctions conferred by the University provided always that religious knowledge shall continue to be a subject in the arts course ; the time, place, and manner of holding University examinations, the conditions qualifying for matriculation in the University; the fees to be paid for matriculation, for examination, for admission to degrees, titles, and other distinctions, and for any other University privileges; the conditions under which fellowships, scholarships, and other prizes and emoluments may be held of the University; and the conditions under which colleges may in future be affiliated to the University. Subject to anything herein contained, Senate shall be empowered from time to time to amend, extend, or abrogate any regulation, either now existing or hereafter to be made by Senate.

5.—Senate shall have the power of proposing persons to Convocation for admission to degrees.

6.—Senate shall be empowered to accept and administer, as trustee, endowments for the purpose of fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, and prizes; for the establishment of professorships, lectureships, or readerships, whether to be exercised in one or other division of the University alone or in both jointly; or for the promotion of post-graduate study or research.

7.—All examiners in University examinations shall be appointed by or with the authority of Senate, and Senate shall provide their remuneration and prescribe their duties.

8.—Senate shall be empowered to prescribe the duties of all officers whom it may appoint and to fix their remuneration and the terms and conditions of their appointments.

9.—Senate shall be empowered to undertake the inspection and examination of schools.

LIMITATIONS OF POWERS OF SENATE.

11.—No regulation affecting the faculty of theology shall as far as the said faculty is affected thereby be made, amended, or abrogated, except with the consent of the Lord Bishop of Durham for the time being.

12.—Except in the faculty of theology, Senate shall not require or impose any religious test unless in its capacity as trustee of a benefaction to which such a condition had been attached by its founder.

13.—Without the consent of the Visitor, Senate shall not abrogate the affiliation of any college now affiliated to the University.

14.—Senate shall not impose any examination as a test for matriculation upon students proposing to enter the Durham division of the University without the consent of the council of the Durham colleges as hereinafter constituted, or upon students proposing to enter either of the colleges of the Newcastle division as hereinafter defined without the consent of such college.

15.—If within seven days of the passing of any resolution of Senate for the making of a regulation of the University as aforesaid or for the amendment, extension, or abrogation of an existing regulation, any twelve members of Senate shall declare their intention of appealing to Convocation against it, then such resolution shall be without effect unless and until it is confirmed by Convocation. In the event of an appeal to Convocation being so demanded, the chancellor shall call a meeting of Convocation within a reasonable limit of time to consider it, and notice of such convocation shall be sent to every member thereof.

PROVISIONS AS REGARDS EXISTING REGULATIONS.

16. All existing regulations of the University and all resolutions heretofore passed by Senate shall, as far as they are not contradictory to anything herein provided, remain in force until abrogated or amended by the authority or authorities competent under these provisions to deal with the matters severally concerned: Provided that after the coming of this scheme into operation the word "warden" or "Senate" or the words warden and Senate" in such regulations and resolutions shall be construed to mean the council of the Durham colleges as hereinafter constituted when used in reference to matters authority over which has passed from the former to the latter, and shall be construed to mean Senate when used in other connections.

17.—So much of the said regulations as determines the periods of residence or of study in the University or elsewhere required as qualifications for the various degrees, titles, and other distinctions of the University shall not, as far as students of the Durham division are affected thereby, be altered without the consent of the council of the Durham colleges, and, as far as students of either of the colleges of the Newcastle division are affected thereby, shall not be altered without the consent of the college concerned.

VI.

DURHAM DIVISION. ITS GOVERNING BODY.

1.—The council of the Durham Colleges shall be constituted as follows:—

The dean and the several members of the chapter of the cathedral church of Durham.

The master for the time being of University College.

The principal for the time being of Bishop Hatfield's Hall.

The treasurer for the time being of the Durham division of the University.

The professor for the time being of mathematics in the Durham division of the University.

The professor for the time being of Hebrew in the Durham division of the University.

The professor for the time being of music in the Durham division of the University.

The censor for the time being of unattached students in the Durham division of the University.

Three persons appointed from time to time by such professors, tutors, and lecturers of the Durham division of the University as are not ex officio members of the council for terms not exceeding three years in such manner that the term of one of them at least shall expire each year.

The head for the time being of any hall of residence established in connection with the Durham division of the University and duly licensed as such by the council of the Durham colleges, as long as the number of students residing in such hall shall not be less than twenty-five.

One person to be appointed from time to time by Senate of the University of Durham for a term not exceeding three years.

Three graduates being past students of the Durham division of the University to be appointed from time to time by Convocation of the University of Durham for a term not exceeding three years.

2.—Every member of the council appointed as aforesaid for a fixed term shall be eligible for re-appointment on the expiry of the term.

3.—The said council shall be a body politic and corporate under the name of the council of the Durham colleges and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal with power without any further licence in mortmain to take, purchase, and hold, and also to sell, grant, exchange, demise, or otherwise dispose of, real and personal property, and to act under its seal in all matters within the scope of its powers.

4.—There shall be a warden, who shall be elected from time to time by the council from amongst its own members. He shall hold office for such period and shall exercise such powers and discharge such duties as shall from time to time be prescribed by the council.

The warden shall, if present, preside over all meetings of the council.

DURHAM PROPERTY.

5. — The entire property both real and personal now vested in the warden, masters, and scholars of the University of Durham, including the university library, observatory, and museum, as well as Bishop Hatfield's Hall and the interest possessed by the said warden, masters, and scholars in Durham castle, shall be transferred from the said warden, masters, and scholars to the council of the Durham colleges, who shall henceforth hold the said property in trust for the purpose, amongst other things, of carrying on University education in Durham, of maintaining University College and Bishop Hatfield's Hall as residential colleges, of maintaining the aforesaid library and observatory, of establishing and maintaining fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, bursaries, and prizes, of promoting research, or holding, should it see fit, "extension" classes, and of doing such other things of an allied nature as are generally done by university colleges :

Provided always that in the carrying out of all the above purposes due regard shall be had to the original purpose of the endowment and to its connection with the cathedral church of Durham.

CONTINUANCE OF PRESENT GRANTS FROM INCOME THEREOF.

And provided always that out of the income arising from the said property the said council shall annually pay to Armstrong College, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, the sum of one thousand two hundred and sixty pounds and such further portion of the said income as arises from a sum of four thousand and twenty-nine pounds six shillings and ninepence at present invested in London and North Western Railway three per cent. debenture stock and charged with the payment of a grant to the said college ; and shall annually pay to the University of Durham College of Medicine, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, such portion of the said income as arises from a sum of three thousand eight hundred and eighty-three pounds at present invested in the same stock as above-named and charged with the payment of a grant to the said college ; the moneys so paid to be used for the lawful purposes of the said colleges respectively as they may deem fit.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE COUNCIL.

6. — The said council shall be the governing body of the Durham division of the University, and the duty of providing for the teaching, residence, maintenance, and discipline of students in Durham, heretofore exercised by the warden and Senate of the University, shall henceforth belong to the council of the Durham colleges. The said council shall exercise such powers and enjoy such privileges in the University as are herein specified, or may hereafter be granted to it by Senate or by Convocation in the exercise of any of its powers as herein contained.

7.—All trusts for fellowships, scholarships, and prizes now vested in the University of Durham shall henceforth be vested in the Council of the Durham colleges :

Provided that in the interpretation of any trust deed applying to any of such fellowships, scholarships, and prizes the words "University of Durham," or any words of similar effect, where used for the purpose of defining the persons who may be beneficiaries of the trust, shall be construed, unless any contrary intention appears, as applying to the Durham division of the University only.

CANONICAL CHAIRS.

8.—The two canonries of Durham hitherto annexed to professorships of divinity and of Greek in the University of Durham shall remain so annexed. Appointments to these professorships shall be made, as now, by the Lord Bishop of Durham.

ACADEMIC OFFICES.

9.—The terms and conditions on which the existing professors of divinity, Greek, mathematics, Hebrew, and music in the University hold their appointments shall not be altered without their respective consent.

10.—The council of the Durham Colleges shall be empowered to prescribe the duties of all professors who may be appointed hereafter to these chairs, and to determine their remuneration except as far as it is determined by particular endowment, as well as to prescribe the duties and determine the remuneration of any other professor, tutor, lecturer, or other officer appointed by the said council :

Provided that no canonical professor shall be thereby debarred from performing the ecclesiastical duties of his canonry.

11.—There shall be a master of University College. The Reverend Henry Gee, D.D., at present master of University College, shall so remain, and the terms and conditions on which he holds his office shall not be changed without his consent.

12.—There shall be a principal of Bishop Hatfield's Hall. Frank Byron Jevons, D.Litt., at present principal of Bishop Hatfield's Hall, shall so remain, and the terms and conditions on which he holds his office shall not be changed without his consent.

13.—Appointment to all other offices in connection with University College or Bishop Hatfield's Hall shall be made by the master for the time being of University College or the principal for the time being of Bishop Hatfield's Hall as the case may be.

14.—Every person who at the present time is a tutor or lecturer or other officer by appointment of and under the authority of the University of Durham, shall continue to hold the same office as by appointment of and under the authority of the council of the Durham colleges, and the terms and conditions on which he holds it shall not be changed without his consent.

15.—So much of the University as is hereby placed under the control of the council of the Durham colleges shall be the Durham division of the University.

VII.

NEWCASTLE DIVISION.

The Newcastle division of the University shall consist of the University of Durham College of Medicine, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and Armstrong College, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, which shall severally or jointly exercise such powers and enjoy such privileges in the University as are herein specified or may hereafter be granted to them by Senate or by Convocation in the exercise of any of its powers as herein contained :

Provided that if at any time the said two colleges should unite to form a single institution, the powers until then exercised and the privileges until then enjoyed by the two institutions separately in virtue of this Act shall thenceforth jointly reside in the single institution.

VIII.

PROFESSORS.

1.—Professors of the University shall be :—

All existing professors of the University, as long as they shall continue to occupy their chairs.

All professors who may hereafter be appointed to the two chairs to which canonries are annexed as aforesaid as long as they shall continue to hold the said chairs.

All persons who may hereafter be appointed by Senate to professorships in pursuance of the sixth clause of Article V hereof as long as they shall continue to hold such professorships.

2.—Professors in the University shall be :—

All persons appointed to be professors by the council of the Durham colleges or by the College of Medicine or by Armstrong College during their continuance in office.

IX.

ACADEMIC BOARDS.

There shall be a board of faculties of the University and boards of the several faculties, each of which boards shall have in general such constitution, duties, and powers as the boards now established by regulations of Senate, saving only such powers as the said boards or their officers now possess of requiring, under certain circumstances, a postponement of part of the business of Senate.

X.

PROVISION FOR FREEDOM OF TEACHING.

1.—The council of the Durham colleges, the College of Medicine and Armstrong College, and any college affiliated in pursuance of this Act, shall severally have the right of proposing for the consideration of Senate curricula of University study and schemes of University examinations based upon them, to be prescribed, if approved by Senate, as qualifications for initial degrees applicable to their own students respectively.

2.—It shall not be required of senate that the curricula or schemes of examination prescribed by it for any degree shall be the same for all parts of the University.

3.—The privilege of appending the words "in litteris antiquis" to the title of their degree shall be open only to those graduates in arts who have pursued in the Durham division of the University a curriculum which has included both Latin and Greek.

XI.

INDEMNITY TO DURHAM.

1.—Senate shall annually pay to the council of the Durham colleges the sum of eight hundred and eighty pounds as an indemnity equivalent to the portion of the University's receipts from degree, examination, and convocation fees that has hitherto been applicable to purposes now to be transferred to the said council.

CONTINUANCE OF GRANT FROM FEES TO THE COLLEGE OF MEDICINE.

2.—Senate shall annually pay to the college of medicine the sum of four hundred pounds in lieu of the grants amounting in all to four hundred pounds hitherto paid to the said college out of the University's receipts from degree fees.

COMPENSATION TO DURHAM.

3.—Senate shall annually pay to the council of the Durham colleges the further sum of two hundred pounds as compensation equivalent to the value for the furtherance of purposes now to be transferred to the said council of the right of appointment to certain University offices to be retained by Senate, and after the treasurer of the University shall have ceased to be treasurer of the Durham division also, then an additional sum of one hundred pounds, making three hundred pounds in all.

MEDICAL SCHOLARSHIP.

4.—Senate shall, as now, annually devote one hundred pounds to the maintenance of a scholarship or scholarships in connection with the college of medicine.

CHARGES ON SENATE.

5.—Senate shall defray the cost of holding all University examinations including the remuneration of the examiners.

6.—Senate shall defray the cost of carrying out all its duties as herein prescribed as well as those of the boards of faculty and of Convocation.

DIFFERENTIATION OF INCOME.

7.—Senate shall distinguish between such portion of its income (herein-after called internal income) as arises from fees paid by students of the University and such portion of its income (herein-after called external income) as may arise from other sources.

8.—Payments made in pursuance of clauses 3 and 4 of this article shall be made out of external income if and so far as Senate is in possession of such income.

CLAIM FOR DEFICIT.

9.—If in any year the internal income received from the Durham division or from the College of Medicine or from Armstrong College shall not suffice to cover the cost of examining its students as well as its proper share as herein-after defined of the payments made by Senate in pursuance of clause 6 of this article, and of the payments made in pursuance of clauses 3 and 4 also, as far as they are not met out of external income, then the council of the Durham colleges or the College of Medicine or Armstrong College as the case may be, shall make good the deficiency to Senate, and until this is done Senate shall be relieved of any obligation to examine students of the institution in question or to propose their admission to degrees.

10.—For the purposes of this article "students" shall include past as well as present students, and any person examined in the faculty of medicine shall be deemed to be a student of the college of medicine.

DISPOSAL OF SURPLUS INCOME.

11.—The annual residue of the internal income of Senate, after the payment of the charges accruing in pursuance of clauses 1, 2, 5, and 6 of this article and of such part of the charges accruing in pursuance of clauses 3 and 4 as cannot be met out of external income, shall be apportioned amongst and paid to the council of the Durham colleges, the College of Medicine, and Armstrong College respectively, in such manner that each of these institutions shall receive from Senate as nearly as may be the amount of internal income received from its students by Senate less the costs incurred by Senate in the examination of its students and its proper share as herein-after defined of the payments made by Senate in pursuance of clause 6 of this article and of the payments made in pursuance of clauses 3 and 4 as far as they are not made out of external income.

The payment to the council of the Durham colleges of the sum of eight hundred and eighty pounds in pursuance of clause 1 of this article shall be deemed to be a payment to the said council on account of internal income received from students of the Durham division and the payment to the College of Medicine of four hundred pounds in pursuance of clause 2 shall be deemed to be a payment to the said college on account of internal income received from students thereof.

12.—For the purposes of the foregoing clauses the term "proper share" shall in all cases be construed to mean one-third.

13.—The annual residue, if any, of the external income of Senate, save any portion of it that may be subject to the provisions of particular trusts, shall be devoted to the support of teaching and research in the two divisions of the University, for which purpose it shall be apportioned amongst and paid to the council of the Durham colleges, the College of Medicine and Armstrong College respectively, in such manner and at such times as statutes shall direct.

14.—Senate shall annually cause to be audited and published all the University accounts.

XII.

CONVOCATION.

1.—Convocation shall be constituted as heretofore.

2.—The time, place, and procedure of meetings of Convocation and the manner of summoning its meetings shall be determined by the chancellor. Provided that at least one meeting of Convocation shall be held in each term.

3.—The conferring of degrees in the University, shall be, as heretofore, by vote of Convocation upon proposals by Senate. Ad eundem degrees shall no longer be granted, but Senate may propose members of the teaching staff in the Durham division of the University, at Armstrong College or at the College of Medicine or at colleges hereafter affiliated, for degrees without examination. Honorary degrees, the holders of which shall not have a vote in Convocation, may be conferred as heretofore on distinguished persons.

4.—Convocation shall be empowered to consider and make representations to Senate or to the chancellor upon any matter affecting the interests or concerns of the University.

5.—No change shall be made in the constitution of the University as settled or as subsequently modified under the provisions of this Act unless Convocation has been consulted as to the proposed change and allowed a reasonable time to express an opinion upon it.

6.—No resolution of Senate for the establishment of a new faculty, degree, title, diploma, or other University distinction shall be of effect unless the proposal for the establishment of such new faculty, degree, title, diploma, or distinction shall have been submitted to Convocation and Convocation shall have been allowed a reasonable opportunity of expressing an opinion upon it.

7.—Upon appeal made in pursuance of clause fifteen of Article V of this schedule, Convocation may veto any resolution of Senate affecting the regulations of the University.

8.—The Chancellor shall be empowered to summon meetings of particular faculties at his discretion. He shall summon a meeting of a faculty within a reasonable period after the receipt by him of a written request so to do from any thirty members of the faculty. The time and place of all such meetings and the mode of procedure thereat shall be determined by the chancellor.

9.—A faculty in meeting assembled shall be empowered to consider and make representations to Senate or to Convocation or to both upon any matter affecting the interests or concerns of the faculty.

XIII.

TREASURER.

1.—Frederick William Ritson, M.A., at present treasurer of the University, shall remain treasurer of the University and of the Durham division subject to such terms and conditions as now govern his office, and provided that the said terms and conditions may at any time be altered by joint consent of the treasurer and of Senate or by joint consent of the treasurer and the council of the Durham colleges as the case may be. Subject to any alteration made as above provided, one hundred pounds of the salary of the said Frederick William Ritson shall be paid by Senate and the remainder by the council of the Durham colleges.

2.—Senate shall provide for the custody of the property and moneys of the University and the council of the Durham colleges for the custody of the property and moneys of the Durham division after the said Frederick William Ritson has ceased to be treasurer.

XIV.

REGISTRAR AND REGISTRY.

1.—There shall be a Registrar of the University.

2.—Walter Kercheval Hilton, M.A., at present registrar of the University, shall remain registrar subject to such terms and conditions as now govern his office and provided that the said terms and conditions may at any time be altered by joint consent of the registrar and of Senate. Subsequent registrars shall be appointed by Senate, who shall prescribe the terms, conditions, and tenure of their office.

3.—The office of the registrar shall be in the city of Durham.

SCHEDULE II.

THE LETTER FROM SENATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF DURHAM TO THE CORPORATION OF SUNDERLAND.

Under date the eighteenth of June, nineteen hundred and seven, referred to in Section three (4) of this Act.

UNIVERSITY OF DURHAM,

JUNE 18TH, 1907.

GENTLEMEN,

In reference to your application of the 18th ult. for the affiliation of the Sunderland Technical College to the University of Durham, I am desired by Senate to inform you that the Committee appointed to consider the application, and to inspect the buildings and equipment of the college in connection with it, have reported to Senate, and that Senate has adopted the conclusions of the report, which are in the following terms:—

“The Committee are of opinion that there is ample opportunity for the development of University teaching in Sunderland, and a prospect of it actually taking place in a near future, and that the technical college is well adapted to serve as a nucleus. At present, however, the college is not in a position to undertake the curriculum the University requires in pure science, as it offers no teaching in geology, zoology, or botany. The Committee is of opinion that the college would be competent to undertake the University curriculum in engineering and electrical engineering if the following extension of its present resources could be provided :—

- “ A more extensive physical laboratory, more fully provided for the teaching of branches of physics other than electricity.
- “ A separate lecturer at the head of the department of electrical engineering, who should by preference be a practising electrical engineer.
- “ An extension of the laboratory accommodation and appliances for teaching electrical engineering.
- “ A more adequate engineering laboratory, provided with the necessary steam machinery.”

I am further desirous to inform you that it will give Senate sincere pleasure to hear further from you upon the matter, should you see your way to extend the resources of the college to meet the requirements which the University regards as essential for University teaching in engineering and electrical engineering ; or further so to extend the scope of the education carried on in your college as to cover the University curriculum in pure science, or in any of the other branches of applied science recognised by the University as qualifying for degrees.

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) W. K. HILTON,

(Registrar).

A CHARTER

GRANTED TO THE UNIVERSITY OF DURHAM,

AUGUST 25TH, 1897.

VICTORIA, BY THE GRACE OF GOD of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, To ALL TO WHOM these presents shall come, greeting :

1. WHEREAS by Letters Patent granted by His late Majesty King William the Fourth, under His said Majesty's Privy Seal bearing date at Westminster the First day of June in the Seventh year of His said Majesty's reign His said Majesty granted, constituted, declared and appointed certain persons therein mentioned and all persons who then were or who should thereafter be duly admitted members of the University of Durham (in pursuance of a regulation therein recited or according to such rules and regulations as might be thereafter made and established by the Dean and Chapter of Durham under their common seal with the consent of the Lord Bishop of Durham for the time being for the admission of members thereof) should be and remain for ever thereafter one Body politic and Corporate under and by the name of The Warden, Masters and Scholars of the University of Durham and by that name should have and enjoy all the properties, rights and privileges which were assured by an Act of Parliament therein recited, passed in the Third year of His said Majesty's reign, to the University therein contemplated and authorised, or were incident to a University established by a Royal Charter ;

2. AND WHEREAS by Letters Patent granted by Us under Our Privy Seal the 28th day of May, in the Fifty-eighth year of Our reign divers other powers, rights, and privileges therein specified were granted to the University of Durham ;

3. AND WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether the Warden, Masters and Scholars of the University of Durham have power to cancel, revoke, annul, or take away any degree or title conferred by the University of Durham upon any person who shall have been proved to be unworthy to be a Member or Graduate of a University and whether such power was at the date of the Charter first hereinbefore recited, and now is a right or privilege incident to a University established by Royal Charter ;

4. AND WHEREAS it is expedient to remove such doubts as aforesaid and to declare and confirm in and to the Warden, Masters and Scholars of the University of Durham the power to cancel, revoke, annul or take away any degree or title conferred or to be conferred upon any person whom the Warden, Masters and Scholars of the University of Durham shall for good and weighty reasons as hereinafter appearing consider to be unworthy to be a Member or Graduate of the University of Durham.

Now Know ye that We do of especial Grace, certain Knowledge and mere motion by these presents for Us, our Heirs and Successors will, grant, ordain and declare that the said Warden, Masters and Scholars of the University of Durham shall be empowered, and are hereby authorised and empowered to cancel, annul, revoke and take away any degree or title that has been, or shall hereafter have been conferred by the University of Durham upon any person of whom it shall be reported to Convocation by the Warden and Senate that such person has been convicted of a crime for which he has been sentenced to penal servitude or imprisonment, and that such crime is one which renders him unfit to be a Member or Graduate of the University of Durham.

AND FURTHER KNOW YE that We do in like manner, will, grant, ordain and declare that all parts of the Charter first hereinbefore recited shall be read and construed as if the powers hereby conferred and declared were expressly contained in the said Charter, and were among the rights and privileges of a University established by Royal Charter.

AND LASTLY : We do hereby, for Us our Heirs and Successors, grant and declare that these our Letters Patent or the enrolment or exemplification thereof shall be in and by all things valid and effectual in law, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and shall be construed and adjudged in the most favourable and beneficial sense for the best advantage of the said University, as well in all our Courts as elsewhere, notwithstanding any non-recital, mis-recital, uncertainty or imperfection in these our Letters Patent. IN WITNESS whereof, we have caused these our Letters to be made patent.

WITNESS Ourselves at Westminster, the Twenty-fifth Day of August, in the Sixty-first Year of our Reign.

By warrant under the Queen's Sign Manual.

MUIR MACKENZIE.

STATUTES

REGULATING THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF DURHAM AND THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF ITS VARIOUS AUTHORITIES AND CONSTITUENT BODIES AND THE DISPOSITION OF ITS EXISTING PROPERTY MADE BY THE COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF DURHAM
ACT, 1908 (8 EDW. VII. c. 20).

CONSTITUTION.

1.—The University shall consist of the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, the Proctors, and other officers; the professors, lecturers, demonstrators, tutors, and other recognised teachers; the graduates and matriculated students, and all such persons as may from time to time be admitted by Convocation to the privileges of members of the University.

2.—From the date of these statutes the corporate name of the University shall be "The Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Durham."

3.—There shall be two Divisions of the University, to be called respectively the "Durham Division" and the "Newcastle Division."

The Durham Division shall consist of so much of the University as is placed by these Statutes under the control of the Council of the Durham Colleges.

The Newcastle Division shall consist of the College of Medicine and Armstrong College.

THE VISITOR.

4.—The Lord Bishop of Durham for the time being shall be the Visitor of the University, and, in addition to all particular powers expressly vested in the Visitor by these Statutes, shall in that capacity exercise such general powers as are usually exercised by the Visitor of a University.

THE CHANCELLOR.

5.—There shall be a Chancellor of the University. The Chancellor shall be the Head and Chief Officer of the University. The Chancellor shall, by virtue of his office, be a Member of Senate and of Convocation.

6.—The Chancellor shall hold office during his life or until his resignation.

7.—The Chancellor shall preside at all meetings of Senate and of Convocation at which he is present. In case of an equality of votes on any question, the Chancellor shall have a second vote.

8.—The Very Reverend George William Kitchin, D.D., Dean of Durham, shall be the first Chancellor.

9.—If at any time the Chancellor shall from illness or any other cause become incapable of discharging the duties of his office, those duties shall be discharged by the Vice-Chancellor during the continuance of such incapacity. Whether at any time such incapacity in fact exists, the Visitor on application made to him by Senate shall determine.

If for a period of one year after the Visitor has determined in accordance with this Statute that the Chancellor is incapable of discharging the duties of his office such incapacity shall continue to exist the Visitor may on application made to him by Senate declare the office of Chancellor to be vacant.

10.—When a vacancy shall occur in the office of Chancellor, a fit and proper person shall be appointed Chancellor by Convocation upon the nomination of Senate. The procedure to be followed at nominations and appointments to the office of Chancellor shall be such as Senate may, from time to time, by regulation prescribe.

THE VICE-CHANCELLOR.

11.—There shall be a Vice-Chancellor of the University and not less than two Pro-Vice-Chancellors who shall be appointed by the Chancellor on nomination by and from among the members of Senate. The Vice-Chancellor and Pro-Vice-Chancellors shall hold office for a period of two years from the date of their respective appointments and shall be eligible for re-appointment. The seniority of the Pro-Vice-Chancellors shall be determined according to the order of their appointment.

12.—The Vice-Chancellor, or in his absence the Senior Pro-Vice-Chancellor present, shall preside at all meetings of Senate and of Convocation at which the Chancellor is not present, and shall have such powers and perform such duties under the Chancellor as Senate may from time to time determine.

13.—In addition to such powers and duties as Senate may from time to time assign to the Vice-Chancellor, the Chancellor may (in any case of special emergency) depute any of the powers or duties of his office to the Vice-Chancellor to be exercised and discharged by him in the name and place of the Chancellor.

14.—During any vacancy in the office of Chancellor the duties of that office shall be performed by the Vice-Chancellor or person appointed to discharge the duties of Vice-Chancellor under the provisions of the fifteenth Statute.

15.—If at any time the Vice-Chancellor shall from illness or any other cause become incapable of discharging the duties of his office, Senate may appoint one of the Pro-Vice-Chancellors to act during the continuance of such incapacity. Whether at any time such incapacity in fact exists the Visitor on application made to him by Senate shall determine.

SENATE.

16.—Senate shall for the present consist of thirty-nine persons in all, that is to say, the Chancellor and thirty-eight other members.

The following persons shall with the Chancellor constitute Senate:—

- (a) Six members to be appointed by His Majesty the King in Council :
- (b) Six members who shall include the Dean (unless the Dean shall be Chancellor) and the several members of the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Durham, together with so many other persons to be elected by the Council of the Durham Colleges as may be required to complete the number of members mentioned in this sub-clause ;
- (c) Six members to be elected from time to time (for a period not exceeding four years) by such professors, tutors, and lecturers of the Durham Division as are not members of the above-mentioned Chapter ;
- (d) Four members to be elected from time to time (for a period not exceeding four years) as representatives of the College of Medicine in the manner following, that is to say, two by the Council of the said College and two by the Academic Board of the College ;
- (e) Four members to be elected from time to time (for a period not exceeding four years) by the Council or other executive authority of Armstrong College ;
- (f) Four members to be elected from time to time (for a period not exceeding four years) by the professors of Armstrong College ;
- (g) Eight members to be elected from time to time (for a period not exceeding four years) by Convocation from among graduates of the University nominated (by not less than seven graduates of the University in each case) as follows :—four who shall have been students of the Durham Division from among graduates of the University nominated as aforesaid by graduates who have been students of that Division ; two who shall have been students of the College of Medicine from among graduates of the University nominated as aforesaid by graduates who have been students of that College ; and two who shall have been students of

Armstrong College from among graduates of the University nominated as aforesaid by graduates who have been students of that College;

Provided always that if at any time hereafter the College of Medicine and Armstrong College shall unite to form a single institution, then in place of the twelve members of Senate mentioned in sub-clauses (j), (k), and (l) of this Statute, six members shall be elected by the Council or other executive authority, and six members by the professors, of the said united institution; of which six last-mentioned members two at least shall be professors in the Faculty of Medicine:

Provided further that, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (g) of this Statute it shall be lawful for Senate with the approval of Convocation to constitute and prescribe such other procedure for the election of the eight Members of Senate mentioned in that sub-clause as may appear to Senate better calculated to ensure that the four graduates elected members of Senate who are required to have been students of the Durham Division shall represent the majority of the graduates of that Division who are Members of Convocation, and that the two graduates elected Members of Senate who are required to have been students of the College of Medicine shall represent the majority of the graduates of that College who are Members of Convocation, and that the two graduates elected Members of Senate who are required to have been students of Armstrong College shall represent the majority of the graduates of that College who are Members of Convocation.

Except where otherwise expressly provided, members of Senate need not be graduates of the University.

17.—When any office or member of Senate shall become vacant by death, resignation, or effluxion of time, a new member to fill such office shall forthwith be appointed or elected by the authority by whom such deceased or retiring member was appointed or elected. Retiring members shall be eligible for reappointment or re-election.

18.—When any person is appointed or elected a member of Senate to fill a vacancy arising by reason of death or resignation, such person shall continue in office only so long as the member in whose place he is appointed or elected would have done had such member not vacated his office.

19.—Senate shall be the supreme governing and executive body of the University, and shall have entire control over all real and personal property (except the property mentioned in the forty-ninth Statute) of which the University shall at the date of these Statutes be or thereafter become possessed. Senate shall prescribe the form and have the custody and use of the common seal of the University.

20.—Senate shall determine the time and place of its meetings and the procedure to be followed thereat. Not less than one meeting of Senate shall be held in each term.

21.—Senate shall keep the matricula of all persons entering the University, and shall receive all fees paid to the University for matriculations, examinations, or admissions to degrees or titles or other distinctions or privileges. All income arising from property vested from time to time in the University shall be received by Senate.

22.—Senate shall propose to Convocation all persons who are to be admitted to degrees in the University; and no grace for a degree shall henceforth require any allowance by the Dean and Chapter.

23.—All examiners in University examinations shall be appointed by or under the authority of Senate, and Senate shall prescribe the duties and remuneration of such examiners.

24.—Subject to the provisions of these Statutes, Senate shall have full power and authority to define the terms and conditions upon which all University offices, to which appointments are made by it, may be held. Senate may prescribe the duties and remuneration of all holders of such offices.

25.—Senate may, on good cause assigned, suspend or remove from the privileges and Membership of the University any officer (except the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor) or any professor (except the Professors of Divinity and Greek), tutor, lecturer, or other teacher of or in the University, or any graduate of the University. Provided that any person suspended or removed under this Statute shall have a right of appeal to the Visitor.

26.—Senate may accept and administer (as trustee or otherwise) endowments for the establishment, continuance, or maintenance of professorships, lectureships, readerships, fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, or prizes, or for other kindred purposes, or for the promotion of post-graduate study and research. Any such endowments, subject to any special condition annexed thereto by the founder or benefactor, may be applied by Senate in either the Durham or Newcastle Division, or in both Divisions jointly, or otherwise for the benefit of any college or institution affiliated to or connected with the University.

27.—Senate may formulate, modify, or revise schemes for the establishment of new faculties in the University. No such scheme shall come into operation until it shall have been submitted to Convocation and Convocation shall have been given a reasonable opportunity of expressing an opinion upon it.

28.—Senate may undertake the inspection and examination of schools and charge fees for such inspection and examination. Senate may appoint persons to act as such inspectors and examiners, and prescribe the duties and fix and provide for the remuneration of such persons.

29.—Senate may direct that academic costumes shall be worn by members of the University, and prescribe the form of such costumes.

30.—All resolutions of Senate and regulations in force in the University at the date of these Statutes shall (so far as not inconsistent therewith) remain in force until altered or revoked by Senate or other competent authority.

31.—Senate may make regulations for the University, prescribing (inter alia)—

(a) The conditions qualifying for matriculation in the University :

(b) The conditions, whether of study, keeping of terms, examination, or otherwise, upon which candidates may be admitted to the various degrees, titles, and other distinctions conferred by the University, and such conditions need not be identical in all parts of the University :

(c) The time, place, and manner of holding University examinations :

(d) The fees to be paid for matriculation, for examination, for admission to degrees, titles, and other University distinctions, and for any other University privilege :

(e) The conditions under which fellowships, scholarships, and other prizes and emoluments may be held of the University :

(f) The conditions under which members of affiliated colleges or students of other institutions associated with the University may be admitted to the privileges and degrees of the University.

Provided always that Senate shall not impose any examination as a test for matriculation upon students proposing to enter the Durham Division without the consent of the Council of the Durham Colleges, nor upon students proposing to enter either of the Colleges of the Newcastle Division without the consent of such College :

Provided also that religious knowledge shall continue to be a subject in the course of study and examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts :

And provided further that no new regulation affecting the Faculty of Theology shall have any force or effect, nor shall any regulation be amended or abrogated, so far as that Faculty is concerned, without the consent of the Visitor.

32.—Except in the Faculty of Theology, no religious test shall be required of or imposed upon, any teacher or student of the University: Provided always that where any condition involving such test has been attached by the founder to a benefaction accepted by the University, Senate in any regulations made by it in the administration of such benefaction shall as far as possible give effect to the wishes of the founder.

33.—Subject to the provisions of these Statutes, Senate may at any time alter or revoke any Statute or Chapter relating to the University or any regulation in force in the University; Provided always that so much of any regulation in force at the date of these statutes as may determine the period of residence or study (whether within the University or elsewhere) required to qualify a candidate for any degree, title, or other University distinction, shall not be altered without the consent, in the case of students of the Durham Division, of the Council of the Durham Colleges, and in the case of students of either of the Colleges in the Newcastle Division, of the Council or other executive authority of the College whose students will be affected by such alteration.

34.—No resolution of Senate making a new regulation of the University or amending or revoking any existing regulation shall take effect until after seven clear days from the adoption thereof. If within such period twelve members of Senate shall send notice in writing to the Chancellor of their intention to appeal to Convocation against such resolution, the same shall remain inoperative until confirmed by Convocation.

CONVOCATION.

35.—Convocation shall consist of the following persons:—

- (a) The Chancellor and the Vice-Chancellor of the University for the time being;
- (b) All persons who are members of Convocation at the date of these Statutes, so long as they shall retain their several qualifications and conform to the regulations of the University
- (c) All persons regularly admitted to the degrees of Doctor of Divinity, Doctor of Civil Law, Doctor of Medicine, Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Master of Surgery, in the University, and conforming to the regulations thereof; and
- (d) Such Doctors and Masters in other Faculties as Senate with the consent of Convocation may from time to time determine:

Provided always that no person admitted to the degree of Master in any Faculty shall be entitled to vote in Convocation by reason of such qualification until the first day of the term next following that in which he was admitted to such degree ; and provided further that no female graduate of the University shall be a member of Convocation unless and until a regulation shall have been passed by Convocation admitting female graduates to such membership.

36.—Every member of Convocation shall supply his name and address to the Registrar to be entered in a register to be called the Register of Convocation. Such register shall be conclusive evidence that any person whose name appears therein at the time of claiming to vote is entitled to vote in Convocation and that any person whose name at such time does not appear therein is not so entitled.

37.—If any dispute shall arise at any time as to whether the name of any person has been improperly entered in or omitted from the Register of Convocation, such dispute shall be referred to the Chancellor whose decision shall be final.

38.—Meetings of Convocation may be held in the city of Durham or the city of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or elsewhere. The Chancellor shall prescribe the time and place of meetings of Convocation, and the procedure to be followed thereat. At least one meeting of Convocation shall be held in each term.

39.—Convocation may consider any matter affecting the interests or concerns of the University and make representations thereon to the Chancellor or to Senate : Provided always that Senate shall have the exclusive right of originating any University regulation.

40.—Any proposed Statute involving a change in the constitution of the University as settled by these Statutes shall, before being made, be communicated to a meeting of Convocation summoned by the Chancellor, and the opinion of such meeting in regard to the proposed Statute, if returned to Senate within two months of the holding of the meeting, shall be taken into consideration. In computing such period of two months, no part of the months of July, August, or September shall be counted.

41.—Whenever notice of an appeal to Convocation against any resolution of Senate shall have been given to the Chancellor, pursuant to the provisions of the thirty-fourth Statute, the Chancellor within a reasonable time shall summon a meeting of Convocation (by notice sent to every member thereof) to consider the matter of such appeal, and it shall be competent for Convocation at such meeting to veto such resolution or to confirm the same, or to remit the matter to Senate, as Convocation so assembled may think fit.

42.—No resolution of Senate establishing any new Faculty or instituting any degree, title, diploma, or other University distinction not heretofore granted shall take effect until such resolution shall have been submitted to a meeting of Convocation summoned by the Chancellor, and the opinion of such meeting in regard thereto, if returned to Senate within two months from the holding of the meeting, shall be taken into consideration. In computing such period of two months, no part of the months of July, August, or September shall be counted.

COUNCIL OF THE DURHAM COLLEGES.

43.—There shall be a Council in the University, to be called the Council of the Durham Colleges in the University of Durham. Such Council shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal, and may, without any further licence in mortmain, take, purchase, and hold, and also sell, grant, exchange, demise, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property, and act under its common seal in all matters within the scope of its powers as by these Statutes defined.

44.—The Council of the Durham Colleges shall consist of :—

- (a) The Dean and the several members for the time being of the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Durham ;
- (b) The Master for the time being of University College ;
- (c) The principal for the time being of Bishop Hatfield's Hall ;
- (d) The Treasurer for the time being of the Durham Division ;
- (e) The professors for the time being of Mathematics, Hebrew, and Music in the Durham Division ;
- (f) The Censor or Censors for the time being of unattached students in the Durham Division ;
- (g) The head for the time being of any hall of residence established in connection with the Durham Division duly licensed as such by the Council of the Durham Colleges so long as the number of students residing in such hall shall not be less than twenty-five ;
- (h) Seven members, each of whom shall hold office for fixed terms (not exceeding three years) to be appointed from time to time, as follows :—

One member by Senate ;

Three members (graduates of the University and former students of the Durham Division) by Convocation ;

Three members by such professors, tutors, and lecturers of the Durham Division as are not ex-officio members of the said Council.

The three members last-mentioned shall be so appointed that the term of office of at least one such member shall expire in each year.

45.—When any vacancy shall occur in the office of a member of the Council of the Durham Colleges appointed for a fixed term by reason of death, resignation, or effluxion of time, a new member to fill such office shall forthwith be appointed by the authority by whom such deceased or retiring member was appointed. Retiring members shall be eligible for reappointment.

46.—Any member of the Council of the Durham Colleges appointed to fill a vacancy arising by reason of death or resignation shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office of the member in whose place he is appointed.

47.—There shall be a President of the Council of the Durham Colleges who shall be elected by the Council from among its members and who shall be entitled to preside over all meetings of the Council at which he is present. The other powers and duties of the President and the period of his office shall be such as the said Council may from time to time determine.

48.—The Council of the Durham Colleges shall be the governing body of the Durham Division, and in addition to the powers expressly conferred upon it shall exercise all such powers and enjoy such privileges as may hereafter from time to time be granted to it by Senate or Convocation in pursuance of their powers in that behalf.

49.—All property at the date of the Act vested in the Warden, Masters, and Scholars of the University, including the University library, observatory, and museum, as well as Bishop Hatfield's Hall, and the interest possessed by the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars in the Castle of Durham (with the obligations thereto annexed) shall from the date of these Statutes be deemed to have been transferred to and shall vest in the Council of the Durham Colleges, who shall stand possessed thereof in trust (except in so far as the fiftieth and fifty-first Statutes otherwise provide) for the following among other purposes:—

- (a) The payment of any professors, tutors, lecturers, or officers appointed by the said Council;
- (b) The carrying on of University education in Durham;
- (c) The maintenance of University College and Bishop Hatfield's Hall as residential Colleges;
- (d) The maintenance of the aforesaid library, observatory, and museum;
- (e) The maintenance and repair of the said Castle and its precincts, in so far as the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars have hitherto been liable therefor;
- (f) The endowment of fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, bursaries, and prizes;

- (g) The holding of such University extension classes as the said Council may from time to time authorise ; and
- (h) All such other matters of a like nature as are generally undertaken by University Colleges ;

Provided always that Senate shall continue to be entitled to hold its meetings in the Castle of Durham as heretofore, and provided further that in administering the said property the said Council shall at all times pay due regard to the original purposes for which the same was transferred to the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars, and to the circumstance (where the fact so is) that the same formerly constituted part of the endowments of the Cathedral Church of Durham.

50.—All property at the date of the Act vested in the University in trust for the maintenance of any fellowship, scholarship or prize shall be administered by the Council of the Durham Colleges as trustee thereof, and shall (save as provided in the fifty-first Statute) be subject to the like trusts as heretofore, and the words "University of Durham," or any words of similar import in any trust deed having reference to any such fellowship, scholarship, or prize, where used for the purpose of defining the persons who may be beneficiaries of the trust, shall be construed, unless a contrary intention appears, as applying to the Durham Division only.

51.—The Council of the Durham Colleges, with the consent of the Visitor (to be signified in writing) may from time to time abolish any of the fellowships of the University existing at the date of these Statutes other than fellowships founded by private persons, and, in the case of such abolition, the income which would otherwise have been applied to the maintenance of any fellowship so abolished shall thereafter be applied to such University purpose or purposes in the Durham Division as the Council of the Durham Colleges, with the consent of the Visitor shall from time to time direct : Provided always that the powers given by this Statute shall not be exercised so as to affect the rights of any person who may be a fellow of the University at the date of these Statutes.

52.—Out of the income received by the Council of the Durham Colleges from the property mentioned in the forty-ninth Statute the said Council shall (inter alia) annually pay (1) to Armstrong College, (a) the sum of £1,200 ; (b) the income annually arising from certain capital moneys at present invested in and represented by £4,020 6s. 9d. three per cent. debenture stock of the London and North Western Railway Company, and charged with the payment of a grant to the said College ; (2) to the College of Medicine, the income annually arising from certain capital moneys at present invested in and represented by £3,883 of the aforesaid debenture stock and charged with the payment of a grant to the last-mentioned College.

The moneys received by the aforesaid Colleges in respect of the said annual payments shall be applied by them to such lawful purposes as the Councils of the said Colleges shall respectively determine.

53.—The Council of the Durham Colleges shall prescribe the duties and fix and provide the remuneration of the professorships of the University existing at the date of these Statutes, in Divinity, Greek, Mathematics, Hebrew, and Music, except in so far as such remuneration is already fixed and provided by particular endowment. The Council shall also prescribe the duties and fix and provide the remuneration of any other professor, tutor, lecturer, or officer appointed by it: Provided always that no condition shall be imposed by the Council upon any professor to whose chair a canonry of the Cathedral Church of Durham is attached, which shall debar him from performing the ecclesiastical duties of his canonry.

54.—The Council of the Durham Colleges shall provide for and exercise full control over the teaching, residence, maintenance, and discipline of all students of the Durham Division, and may for such purposes at any time make, amend, or revoke such regulations (not inconsistent with the provisions of these Statutes) as it shall deem fit and proper. The powers in this behalf formerly exercised by the Warden and Senate of the University shall be transferred to the said Council.

55.—Every person who, at the date of these Statutes holds any office in the Durham Division, whether as tutor, lecturer, or otherwise, to which he has been appointed by or under the authority of the University of Durham, shall thereafter continue to hold such office under the authority of the Council of the Durham Colleges, as if he had been appointed thereto by such Council, and the terms and conditions of his office shall not be altered without his consent.

56.—The word "Warden" and the word "Senate" and the words "Warden and Senate," in every regulation of the University or resolution of Senate in force at the date of these Statutes shall be construed to mean the Council of the Durham Colleges, when used in reference to matters authority over which is transferred to the said Council and in all other connections shall be construed to mean the Chancellor or Senate as the case may be.

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE.

57.—The College of Medicine shall have full power and authority to regulate its constitution and government by Articles of Association made in conformity with its Memorandum of Association, and for this purpose to alter and amend such Articles from time to time. All officers and all professors, lecturers, demonstrators, tutors, and other teachers of the College of Medicine shall be appointed in such manner and for such time and on such terms and conditions as the Articles of Association of the said College and the regulations made thereunder shall from time to time provide.

ARMSTRONG COLLEGE.

58.—Armstrong College shall have full power and authority to regulate its constitution and government by Articles of Association made in conformity with its Memorandum of Association, and for this purpose to alter and amend such Articles from time to time. All officers and all professors, lecturers, demonstrators, tutors, and other teachers of Armstrong College shall be appointed in such manner and for such time and on such terms and conditions as the Articles of Association of the said College and the regulations made thereunder shall from time to time provide.

PROFESSORS.

59.—There shall be professors of the University and professors in the University.

I.—The following persons shall be professors of the University :

- (1) The persons who, at the date of these Statutes, shall respectively hold the following chairs, so long as they continue to occupy such chairs :—

Divinity and Ecclesiastical History
Greek and Classical Literature,
Mathematics and Astronomy, Hebrew,
Medicine,
Surgery,
Midwifery and Gynæcology,
Physiology,
Anatomy,
Comparative Pathology,
Music ;

- (2) Any persons hereafter appointed to the chairs of Divinity or Greek (to each of which a canonry in the Cathedral Church of Durham is annexed), so long as they shall continue to occupy such chairs ;

- (3) Any person hereafter appointed to a chair established or endowed under the provisions of the twenty-sixth Statute whom Senate may, by resolution, declare to be a professor of the University, so long as he shall continue to occupy such chair.

II.—The following persons shall be professors in the University :

- (1) Any person appointed to the office of professor by any of the following authorities so long as he shall continue to hold such office :—

(a) The Council of the Durham Colleges.

(b) The Council or other executive authority of the College of Medicine.

(c) The Council or other executive authority of Armstrong College.

(2) All such other persons as may be determined by Senate under the provisions of the one hundred and twelfth Statute to be professors in the University.

60.—The terms and conditions upon which the professors of the University in Divinity, Greek, Mathematics, Hebrew, and Music (in office at the date of these Statutes) severally hold their appointments shall not be altered without their consent respectively.

61.—The canonries in the Cathedral Church of Durham now annexed to the University professorships of Divinity and Greek respectively shall continue to be so annexed, and appointment to these chairs shall be made as heretofore by the Lord Bishop of Durham.

62.—Appointments to the chairs of Mathematics, Hebrew, and Music (held at the date of the Act by professors of the University), shall henceforth be made by the Council of the Durham Colleges: Provided that if the said Council shall at any time cease to provide the stipend attached to any of the chairs mentioned in this Statute, the right of the said Council under these Statutes to appoint to such chair shall determine.

63.—Senate may at any time declare any chair to be a professorship of the University, and the Council of the Durham Colleges, or any Council or authority in which is vested the property or income of any College in or connected with the University may (with the sanction of that College), for the purpose of providing or augmenting the stipend of any chair which is or may hereafter be so declared to be a professorship of the University, transfer to the University any portion of the property or income held by it: Provided that such transference is not inconsistent with any trust affecting such property or income, or the due performance of any obligation imposed by these Statutes upon the Council or authority proposing to transfer the same.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE.

64.—There shall as heretofore be a Master of University College, who shall have the right of appointing to all other offices in that College at stipends to be fixed by the Council of the Durham Colleges. The Reverend Henry Gee, D.D., Master of University College at the date of the Act shall be entitled to continue to hold that office, and the terms and conditions of his appointment shall not be altered without his consent. All future appointments to the office of master of University College shall be made by the Chancellor on nomination by the Council of the Durham Colleges who shall fix the salary of the office.

BISHOP HATFIELD'S HALL.

65.—There shall as heretofore be a Principal of Bishop Hatfield's Hall, who shall have the right of appointing to all other offices in that Hall at stipends to be fixed by the Council of the Durham Colleges. Frank Byron Jevons, D.Litt., Principal of Bishop Hatfield's Hall at the date of the Act, shall be entitled to continue to hold that office, and the terms and conditions of his appointment shall not be altered without his consent. All future appointments to the office of Principal of Bishop Hatfield's Hall shall be made by the Chancellor on nomination by the Council of the Durham Colleges who shall fix the salary of the office.

PROCTORS.

66.—There shall be two Proctors of the University as heretofore, to be called the Senior Proctor and the Junior Proctor respectively. The Proctors shall be appointed annually by the Chancellor in Convocation on the nomination of Senate. They shall hold office for one year from the date of their appointment and be eligible for reappointment.

67.—The Proctors shall direct the proceedings in Convocation under the Chancellor and have charge of the ordinary discipline of the University. The Proctors shall perform such other duties and in such manner as Senate may by regulation prescribe.

68.—If at any time a vacancy shall occur in the office of Proctor by reason of death or resignation, the Chancellor shall forthwith appoint a person to fill such vacancy. Any proctor so appointed shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office of the person in whose place he is appointed.

CENSOR OF UNATTACHED STUDENTS.

69.—There shall be a Censor of the Unattached Students in the Durham Division who shall be appointed annually by the Council of the Durham Colleges. The Censor shall hold office for one year from the date of his appointment and be eligible for reappointment. The remuneration of the Censor shall be fixed and provided by the said Council which shall also prescribe the duties of the office. When any vacancy shall occur in the office of Censor, the said Council shall forthwith appoint a person to fill such vacancy, but a Censor so appointed shall only remain in office so long as the Censor in whose place he is appointed would have done had he not vacated his office.

The said Council may in their discretion also appoint a Censor of women unattached students in the Durham Division for such period and on such terms and conditions as the said Council shall think fit.

REGISTRAR.

70.—There shall be a Registrar of the University, whose office shall be situate in the city of Durham. The Registrar (save as provided in the seventy-second Statute) shall be appointed by Senate, and Senate shall at each appointment prescribe the terms, conditions, and tenure of the office.

71.—The Registrar (subject to the provisions of the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh Statutes) shall keep the Register of Convocation. The Registrar shall enter in the Register of Convocation the names and addresses as furnished to him of all persons entitled to vote in Convocation, and shall remove therefrom the name of any person at any time appearing therein who is not so entitled. The Registrar shall attend the meetings of Senate and of Convocation, and conform in the discharge of the duties of his office to such regulations as Senate may prescribe.

72.—Walter Kercheval Hilton, M.A., shall be entitled to continue to hold the office of Registrar subject to the same terms and conditions as governed his appointment at the date of the Act: Provided always that such terms and conditions may at any time be altered by the joint consent of the said Registrar and Senate.

TREASURERS.

73.—There shall be a Treasurer of the University, who shall (save as provided in the seventy-fifth Statute) be appointed by Senate and hold office on such terms and conditions and receive such remuneration as Senate shall determine. Senate shall from time to time make such regulations regarding the custody of the property and moneys of the University as it shall deem necessary. The Treasurer in the discharge of his duties shall conform to all regulations of Senate governing his office.

74.—There shall be a Treasurer of the Durham Division, who (save as provided in the seventy-fifth Statute) shall be appointed by the Council of the Durham Colleges and hold office on such terms and conditions and receive such remuneration as the said Council may determine. Regulations shall be made by the said Council regarding the custody of the property and moneys of the Durham Division, and the Treasurer of the Durham Division shall conform to all such regulations in the discharge of the duties of his office.

75.—Frederick William Ritson, M.A., the Treasurer of the University at the date of the Act, shall be entitled to continue to hold that office and shall also be Treasurer of the Durham Division, subject to the terms and conditions now governing his appointment: Provided that the said terms and conditions may at any time be altered with the joint consent (so far as concerns the office of Treasurer of the University) of the Treasurer and Senate, and (so far as concerns the office of Treasurer of the Durham Division) of that Treasurer and the Council of the Durham Colleges.

So long as the terms and conditions upon which the said Frederick William Ritson held his appointment at the date of the Act remain unaltered, his salary shall be paid as to £100 thereof by Senate and as to the remainder thereof by the Council of the Durham Colleges.

FACULTIES.

76.—In and for the purposes of these Statutes the word "Faculty" shall denote any branch or aggregate of branches of study in which degrees are conferred by the University.

There shall be a Board for each of the following Faculties, namely:—

Theology,
Medicine,
Arts, Science,

and for the several Faculties of Law, Letters, and Music if and so soon as Senate shall in each case so resolve.

77.—The board of each Faculty shall consist of—

- (a) such holders for the time being of professorships, tutorships, lectureships, or other offices on the teaching staff of or in the University as Senate may declare to be ex-officio members of that Faculty;
- (b) one member at least to be appointed by Senate; but if the number of members of the board of any Faculty as above constituted shall be less than three, Senate may in such case appoint so many additional members as may be required to raise the number to four members;
- (c) Further members not exceeding three to be appointed by co-optation.

Appointed members shall hold office for one year from the commencement of the academical year next ensuing that in which they are appointed, but shall be eligible for re-appointment.

Any person may be a member of more than one Board of Faculty; and members of the Board of a Faculty need not be graduates of the University.

78.—The Board of each Faculty shall elect annually from among its members a chairman (to be called the Dean of that Faculty) and a secretary. The Dean and Secretary shall respectively remain in office until their successors are appointed. The Board of each Faculty shall provide for the manner of summoning its meetings and the procedure to be followed thereat.

79.—The Board of each Faculty shall have the following powers and duties :—

1. To watch the working of the curricula and examinations in the Faculty, and to advise Senate and the Councils or other executive authorities of the Colleges in the University.
2. To submit the names of persons suitable for appointment as examiners :
3. To nominate committees to consider and report on any special subject of study or combination of such subjects :
4. To report to Senate on regulations dealing with courses of study for degrees and other distinctions and on any questions relating to the work of the Faculty :
5. To require the Secretary of the General Board of Faculties to summon a meeting of that board to consider and report upon any matter under consideration by Senate which concerns the business of the Faculty :
6. To deal with any matter which may be referred to them by Senate.

No Board or Dean of any Faculty shall hereafter have power to require the postponement of any part of the business of Senate.

80.—Meetings of members of particular Faculties may be summoned by the Chancellor at his discretion. When thirty members of any Faculty shall send to the Chancellor a request in writing that a meeting of the members of that Faculty may be held, the Chancellor shall within a reasonable period thereafter summon such meeting to assemble at such time and place as he shall direct. The procedure to be followed at such meeting shall be determined by the Chancellor.

81.—The members of a Faculty in meeting assembled shall have power to consider any matter affecting their interests or concerns as members of the Faculty, and to make representations thereon to Senate or Convocation, or to both.

82.—Nothing in these Statutes shall affect the term of office of any person who may be a member of the Board of any Faculty at the date of these Statutes.

THE GENERAL BOARD OF FACULTIES.

83.—There shall be a Board of all the Faculties of the University, to be called the General Board of Faculties. The General Board shall consist of all the members of the several Boards of Faculties and shall meet as Senate shall by regulation direct.

84.—There shall be a chairman and secretary of the General Board of Faculties, who shall be elected annually by that board from among its members before the close of each academical year, and who shall hold office until their successors are appointed. The General Board of Faculties shall provide for the manner of summoning its meetings, and for the procedure thereat.

85.—The General Board of Faculties may make representations to Senate upon any matter concerning the curricula or examinations of the University, and shall report to Senate upon any matter which may have been referred to it by Senate.

86.—The Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor of the University shall be ex-officio members of the board of each Faculty and of the General Board of Faculties.

TERMS.

87.—The academical year shall be divided into three terms, to be called the Michaelmas, Epiphany, and Easter terms respectively.

88.—The date at which each term shall begin and end shall be determined annually by Senate upon recommendation by the following authorities; in the case of and so far as respects the Durham Division by the President and Council of the Durham Colleges; in the case of and so far as respects the College of Medicine, by the Council of that College; and in the case of and so far as respects Armstrong College by the Council of that College.

DEGREES.

89.—The following degrees may be granted by the University as heretofore (that is to say):—Doctor of Divinity, Bachelor of Divinity, Master of Arts, Bachelor of Arts, Doctor of civil Law, Bachelor of Civil Law, Doctor of Medicine, Bachelor of Medicine, Master of Surgery, Bachelor of Surgery, Doctor of Hygiene, Bachelor of Hygiene, Doctor of Science, Master of Science, Bachelor of Science, Doctor of Letters, Bachelor of Letters, Doctor of Music, and Bachelor of Music. Those graduates in Arts who have pursued in the Durham Division a course of study which has included Latin and Greek, and who have satisfied the examiners in both of those subjects, shall be entitled to append the words "In Litteris Antiquis" to the title of their degree. No other graduate shall be so entitled.

90.—Licenses in Theology, Associateships in Science, Diplomas in Public Health, in the Theory and Practice of Teaching, and in Foreign Languages, may be granted by the University as heretofore.

91.—The Council of the Durham Colleges and the Council (or other executive authority) of the College of Medicine and of Armstrong College, and of any College affiliated to the University may respectively from time to time formulate and propose for the consideration of Senate new curricula of University study, together with schemes of examination founded thereon, with the view of assisting Senate to prescribe qualifications for initial degrees applicable to the students of the Durham Division or of any such College, as the case may be. No such curriculum or scheme shall take effect unless approved by Senate.

92.—Any graduate of another University, or any distinguished person, may be admitted by Convocation on the proposal of Senate to an honorary degree, but no such degree shall entitle the holder thereof to be a member of Convocation.

93.—No degree ad eundem shall be granted by the University after the date of these Statutes; but Senate may propose members of the teaching staff in either the Durham or Newcastle Division, or in any College affiliated to the University, for admission to degrees without examination.

94.—Women students who shall have fulfilled the requirements of the University respecting residence and standing may be admitted to the public examinations of the University and to degrees in any Faculty except Theology.

FINANCE.

95.—Separate accounts shall be kept by Senate of the income of the University arising from fees paid by students (such income to be called "Internal Income") and of the income of the University arising from all other sources (such income to be called "External income").

96.—Senate shall out of its income annually pay to the Council of the Durham Colleges (by instalments or otherwise) in respect of such portion of the receipts of the University from degree, examination, and Convocation fees, as has hitherto been applied to defray expenses the burden of which will hereafter be borne by such Council, a sum of £880, and this sum for the purposes of the adjustment of accounts (pursuant to the one hundred and fourth Statute) shall be deemed to be a payment to the said Council on account of internal income accruing to the University from fees paid by the students of the Durham Division.

97.—Senate shall out of its income pay to the Council of the Durham Colleges a further sum of £200 annually, so long as the Treasurer of the University shall also be Treasurer of the Durham Division, and after the Treasurer of the University shall cease to be likewise Treasurer of the Durham Division, in lieu thereof, the sum of £300 annually.

98.—Senate shall out of its income annually pay to the College of Medicine the following sums (that is to say):—

(a) the sum of £400 in lieu of grants formerly made to the said College out of the moneys received by the University in respect of degree fees ;

(b) the sum of £100 for the maintenance of a scholarship or scholarships in connection with the said College.

The aforesaid sum of £400 shall for the purposes of the adjustment of accounts (pursuant to the one hundred and fourth Statute) be deemed to be a payment on account of internal income accruing to the University from fees paid by the students of the said college.

99.—The annual payments to be made by Senate of (a) £200 or £300, as the case may be, to the Council of Durham Colleges in pursuance of the ninety-seventh Statute, and (b) £100 for the maintenance of a scholarship or scholarships in connection with the College of Medicine, in pursuance of the ninety-eighth Statute, shall be made out of the external income of the University, in so far as Senate is in possession of such income.

100.—All costs and expenses of holding all University examinations, including therein the remuneration of examiners, shall be paid by Senate.

101.—Senate shall fix and pay the stipends and other remuneration of the Vice-Chancellor, the Proctors, Registrar, Treasurer, and other officers of the University, except in so far as the remuneration of any such officer may be otherwise fixed or provided for under these Statutes.

102.—All costs and expenses properly incurred by or under the authority of Senate in the discharge of its duties or on account of the business of Convocation or of the General Board of Faculties or of any other Board of Faculty either under the one hundredth and one hundred and first Statutes, or otherwise, shall be paid by Senate.

103.—If in any year the internal income accruing to the University from any unit thereof shall be insufficient to cover the following expenses (that is to say):—

(1) The cost of examining the students of that unit ;

(2) One third of the aggregate of the annual payments required to be made by Senate (a) to the Council of the Durham Colleges under the ninety-seventh Statute, (b) to the College of Medicine for the maintenance of a scholarship or scholarships under the ninety-eighth Statute (in so far as these payments are not met out of external income); and

- (3) One-third of the payments to be made by Senate under the one hundred and second Statute;

then such unit shall make good to Senate the deficiency so arising, and until such deficiency is so made good Senate may refuse to examine the students of such unit, or to propose them for admission to degrees.

104.—After the payment of the following sums and charges, that is to say:—

- (1) The sum of £880 to the Council of the Durham Colleges;
- (2) The sum of £400 to the College of Medicine;
- (3) The charges payable by Senate under the one hundred and second Statute;
- (4) Such portion of the charges payable to the said Council under the ninety-seventh Statute and for the maintenance of a scholarship or scholarships in the said College of Medicine under the ninety-eighth Statute as cannot be met out of external income;

the annual residue of the internal income of the University shall be apportioned by Senate amongst and paid respectively to the several units of the University in such manner that each unit (not being in default under the one hundred and third Statute) shall receive as nearly as may be the amount of internal income arising from its students to the University, less (a) the expenses incurred by Senate in their examination, and (b) a one-third share of the payments made by Senate under the one hundred and second Statute, and of such further payments as Senate may have had to make out of the internal income of the University in respect of the moneys payable to the Council of the Durham Colleges, under the ninety-seventh Statute, and for the maintenance of a scholarship or scholarships to the College of Medicine under the ninety-eighth Statute.

For the purposes of this Statute and of the ninety-fifth, ninety-eighth, and one hundred and third Statutes any person examined in the Faculty of Medicine shall be deemed to be a student of the College of Medicine.

105. The annual residue (if any) of the external income of the University (save in so far as the same or any part thereof may be subject to the provisions of any particular trust or gift) shall be appropriated by Senate to the support of teaching and research in the two Divisions of the University and paid, for such uses, to the respective Councils of the Durham Colleges, the College of Medicine, and Armstrong College, in such manner and proportions and at such times as Senate may determine.

106.—Senate shall annually cause all its accounts, including the accounts of the several units with the University, to be audited by a duly qualified accountant. The results of such audit shall be published.

AFFILIATED COLLEGES.

107.—Any College or like institution within the United Kingdom or any part of the British Dominions which provides adequate instruction for students in the subjects of study of any Faculty or Faculties in the University may apply to be affiliated to the University in such Faculty or Faculties: Provided that its members shall be incorporated by Royal Charter, or that provision shall have been otherwise made for its establishment on a permanent and efficient footing and for its government.

108.—Any application by a College or like institution for affiliation to the University shall be made to the Chancellor, who shall refer the same to Senate. Senate shall appoint a committee to consider the application and report thereon. Senate may accept or reject the report of such committee or refer the same back for further consideration and report.

After considering the original or any subsequent report of such committee Senate shall decide whether the application for affiliation ought to be granted and if Senate shall decide in favour of such application, the Chancellor shall as soon as may be, thereafter, propose to Convocation by special resolution that the College in question be affiliated to the University in one or more Faculties, as the case may be, and if Convocation assent to such resolution such College shall be so affiliated accordingly.

Not less than twenty-eight days' notice in writing shall be sent by the Registrar to all members of Convocation of any special resolution to admit any College or like institution to affiliation to the University under this Statute.

109.—In considering the application of any College or like institution for affiliation to the University, regard shall be had in every case to the following particulars:—

- (a) The standing and permanence of the institution seeking affiliation;
- (b) The facilities its teaching staff may afford for the adequate training of students in subjects set for examination by the University:

- (c) The equipment of the institution with such buildings, laboratories, machinery, or other appliances as may be necessary for the proper instruction of students in the subjects of the Faculty or Faculties in respect of which the application for affiliation is made.

110.—Any College or like institution in the Counties of Northumberland, Durham, Cumberland, or Westmoreland affiliated to the University by resolution of Senate approved by Convocation shall be entitled to such representation on Senate as Senate by Statutes made under the powers conferred by Section 6 of the Act shall determine.

111.—Where Application is made for affiliation to the University by any College in the counties of Northumberland, Durham, Cumberland, or Westmoreland and such application is refused, such College shall be entitled to appeal from such refusal to His Majesty in Council, and if on the hearing of such appeal the same shall be allowed, such College shall forthwith be affiliated to the University and entitled to appoint so many representatives on Senate as His Majesty in Council may determine.

112.—The officers, professors, lecturers, demonstrators, tutors, or other recognised teachers and the students of any College or institution affiliated to the University shall enjoy such privileges in the University and be admitted to degrees upon such terms and conditions as Senate may from time to time by regulation determine. This Statute shall not be construed to diminish the privileges granted to the students of the Sunderland Technical College under the one hundred and fifteenth Statute.

113.—Carrington College, Harbottle, and Foulah Bay College, Swinburn, shall remain affiliated to the University on the same terms and conditions as heretofore.

114.—Senate may allocate the affiliation of any College or like institution affiliated to the University; but Senate shall not exercise its power in this behalf until it shall have considered the report of a Committee specially appointed to enquire into the circumstances of the case, and without the consent of the Visitor. Nor shall the privileges in the University at present enjoyed by the students of Carrington College, Harbottle, and Foulah Bay College, Swinburn, be diminished without the consent of the Visitor.

SUNDERLAND TECHNICAL COLLEGE.

115.—The Technical College of the county borough of Sunderland shall be entitled to be affiliated to the University in the Faculty of Science so soon as the authorities of the said College shall have satisfied the requirements of Senate as stated in their letter dated June 18th, 1908, and set forth in Schedule II. of the Act, by providing the following additional educational facilities for students attending the College :—

- (a) A more extensive physical laboratory more fully equipped for the teaching of branches of physics other than electricity :
- (b) A separate lecturer (by preference a practising electrical engineer) at the head of the Department of Electrical Engineering :
- (c) Extended laboratory accommodation and appliances for teaching electrical engineering :
- (d) A more adequate engineering laboratory equipped with the necessary steam machinery.

When any application is made for affiliation to the University under this Statute, a committee appointed by Senate shall inquire and report whether the foregoing conditions have been adequately complied with, and if such committee shall report that all such conditions have been so complied with, the Chancellor shall forthwith declare the said College to be affiliated to the University in the Faculty of Science ; and thereupon the students of the said College shall be entitled to be admitted as candidates for degrees in engineering and in electrical engineering without being required to attend lectures or instruction other than the teaching provided by the said College.

116.—So soon as the Technical College of the county borough of Sunderland shall be affiliated to the University under the provisions of this last preceding Statute, the Council or other executive authority of the said College shall be entitled to nominate two persons to serve on Senate as representatives of the said College.

MISCELLANEOUS.

117.—Subject to the provisions contained in section 6 of the Act after the 31st day of December, 1909, Senate shall have power to make Statutes altering or supplementing these Statutes so far as they affect the Chancellor, or Senate, or Convocation, or any Advisory Board of the University, or any matter under his or their control at the time such power is exercised, and in particular, providing for the representation on Senate of any College which may hereafter become affiliated to the University ; and the Council of the Durham Colleges shall have the like power in so far as these Statutes may, at the time such power is exercised by the said Council, affect the Durham Division only : Provided always that no Statute so made by Senate or the said Council shall alter the equality of representation in Senate of the Durham and Newcastle Divisions or any provision of these Statutes having particular reference to property or finance, or to the Faculty of Theology, or to religious instruction.

118.—Any notice required to be given to a member of Convocation by these Statutes, or by any regulation of the University, shall be taken to have been duly given if it has been sent by post, directed to such member at his registered address. No notice of any business of Convocation shall be required to be sent to any member of Convocation whose registered address is not within the United Kingdom.

119.—Nothing in these Statutes shall prevent the College of Medicine and Armstrong College uniting at any time to form a single institution. The powers to be exercised and the privileges to be enjoyed by the College of Medicine and Armstrong College respectively under these Statutes shall in the event of such union thereafter jointly reside in such single institution.

120.—From the date of these Statutes it shall not be necessary to obtain the consent of the Lord Bishop of Durham (except where by these Statutes otherwise expressly provided) to the making, amendment, or abrogation of any Statute or regulation affecting the constitution or government of the University and the office, powers, and authority of the Dean and Chapter as Governors of the University shall cease and determine.

121.—From the date of these Statutes the offices of Warden, Sub-Warden, and Deputy Warden of the University shall cease and determine, and the title Chancellor shall take the place of that of Warden, and the title of Vice-Chancellor of that of Sub-Warden and Deputy Warden in the University, as the case may be; and all Acts of Parliament, Charters, Orders in Council, Statutes of Chapter, Regulations of the University, Resolutions of Senate, Articles of Association, of Armstrong College, deeds and other instruments now in force shall be construed accordingly: Provided always that this Statute shall not be construed to annex the office of Chancellor to the Deanery of the Cathedral Church of Durham.

122.—These Statutes shall come into force so soon as they are approved by His Majesty the King in Council.

123.—The Chancellor shall, so soon as conveniently may be, take all necessary steps to carry the provisions of these Statutes into effect.

124.—The present Senate and authorities of the University shall continue to exercise their powers and discharge their duties as heretofore until the new Senate and authorities as constituted by these Statutes shall have been appointed.

REGULATIONS OF THE UNIVERSITY.

TITLE I.

OF ADMISSION.

1.—In order to be Matriculated, a student must have produced to the officers of his College such testimonials of character as they may require, and have passed the prescribed examination. He shall, at the time of matriculation, subscribe a declaration of obedience to the authorities of the University.

2.—The nature and conditions of the examination to be imposed as a test for matriculation shall be such as Senate may from time to time by standing order require, regard being always had to the proviso of Statute 31.

TITLE II.

OF DISCIPLINE.

1.—Every member of the University in statu pupillari shall be liable, in case of misconduct, to such punishment as the Chancellor, or any officer acting under his authority, shall inflict; provided that no one shall be expelled from the University except by sentence of the Chancellor declared in Senate, or by vote of Senate with the concurrence of the Chancellor.

The College of Medicine and Armstrong College shall provide for and exercise the same control over the teaching, residence, maintenance, and discipline of all students of those Colleges as is conferred by Statute 54 on the Council of the Durham Colleges.

2.—Every member of the University not in statu pupillari shall be subject to the authority of the Chancellor, and shall be liable, in case of misconduct, to be fined by him in any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, to be paid into the University chest. No such member of the University shall be liable to any other punishment, excepting by a formal sentence passed by Senate and Convocation.

TITLE III.

OF KEEPING TERMS, AND OF STANDING IN THE UNIVERSITY.

1.—No student shall be held to have kept any term unless, being duly matriculated, he shall have complied with such conditions as the Senate of the University and the Council of the Durham Colleges, or the College of Medicine, or Armstrong College, by their standing orders may from time to time determine.

2.—In question of standing, every term shall be counted during which a person has been a member of the University, and has conformed to the regulations of the University, so far as they apply to him.

TITLE IV.

OF WOMEN STUDENTS.

1.—The residence of women students attending lectures in Durham will be subject to the conditions prescribed by the Council of the Durham Colleges.

The residence of women students attending lectures at the Newcastle Colleges will be subject to the conditions prescribed by those Colleges.

2.—Any student of eighteen years of age, who has completed a course of two years' study and examination at any one of the following Colleges or Institutions: The Ladies' College, Cheltenham; Queen's College, Harley Street, London; the Women's Training College, Darlington; or the Women's Training College, Ripon; and has passed either the Intermediate Public Examination in Letters or the First Public Examination in Arts, may then, or at any future time, if her testimonials are approved, petition the University that the two years kept at such College or Institution may count as one year towards the Degree of B.Litt. or of B.A. respectively.

The arrangements made in this clause shall be terminable at twelve months' notice, reserving the privileges of then-existing students.

TITLE V.

OF THE STANDING AND EXERCISES REQUISITE FOR PROCEEDING TO DEGREES.

Section I.—Of the Standing and Exercises requisite for proceeding to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts in litteris antiquis.

1.—No grace for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in litteris antiquis shall be granted, unless the petitioner is a student in Arts and has kept six terms at least by residence, excepting as provided in clause 2 of this section.

Any student in Theology, who is recommended by his College, may petition the University that terms kept by him as a student in Theology may count as terms kept by him as a student in Arts, provided that he shall have passed the examination appointed for the admission of students in Arts, and that he shall not be admissible to the Final Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts unless he has kept three terms at least as a student in Arts.

2.—No grace for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in litteris antiquis shall be granted unless the petitioner has passed two public examinations, excepting as provided for in the next paragraph and in Clause 4, paragraph 7. The first of these shall be for students who have kept three terms at least, or in the case of Candidates for Honours who matriculate in Epiphany Term two terms at least; the second for such as have passed the first and have kept six terms at least in Arts. Students who have passed the Final Examination for the Licence in Theology, having previously resided six terms at least in the University of Durham, and have further resided one ordinary term as students in Arts, and Bachelors of Letters who have kept three terms at least in Durham, shall be admissible to the Final Examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Any student who, having passed the previous public examination in Theology, shall have completed the residence required for admission to the Final Examination for the Licence in Theology at a time when no such examination is appointed to be held, shall be allowed, with the consent of Senate, to keep the ensuing term as a student in Arts; and such term shall count as though it had been kept after the examination for the Licence in Theology had been passed.

Any person who has been admitted as a student in Arts after completing his course of study and examinations at one of the following Theological Colleges:—St. Aidan's, St. Augustine's, Burgh, Chichester, Cumbræ, Dorchester, Edinburgh, Gloucester, Highbury, Islington, Jamaica, Lichfield, Lincoln, Moore College (Sydney), Salisbury, Selwyn College (Dunedin), Truro, Warminster, Bishop Wilson School (Isle of Man), the Theological Department of King's College, London, or the Theological Department of Queen's College, Birmingham, shall be allowed to count the final examination of his College in lieu of the first public examination, and shall be admissible to the final examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts after he has kept three terms at least by residence as a student in Arts in Durham. Such terms must include a Michaelmas, an Epiphany, and an Easter Term.

3.—The first of these examinations shall be conducted by three examiners at least. The subjects and books to which it shall be directed shall be fixed by Senate eleven months at least before its commencement; the subjects and books fixed for candidates for Honours being distinguished from the subjects and books fixed for other students.

Everyone admitted to this examination shall be required to prove his knowledge of Scripture History, of one Gospel in the Greek tor, in the case of conscientious objectors, in alternative subjects to be provided by Senate), of three Greek Plays, and six books of Virgil, or of equivalent portions of Greek and Latin authors, melioris ævi et notæ, and of two of the following subjects:—Logic, Arithmetic, Euclid I, II, Hebrew, French, German; of which Arithmetic or Euclid must be one. Candidates for Mathematical Honours shall be required to prove their knowledge of only one of the three Greek Plays, or its equivalent.

All those who satisfy the examiners shall receive certificates, and the candidates for Honours shall be classed according to their attainments. The number of classes shall be determined by the examiners, but the order of the names in each class shall be alphabetical.

4. —The Second and Final Examination shall be conducted by three examiners at least. Everyone who is admitted to it shall be required to prove his knowledge of the Evidences of Religion (Natural and Revealed), of one Gospel, and of the Acts of the Apostles in the Greek, except those who offer special Theological Subjects as provided in the following paragraphs. In the case of conscientious objectors, however, alternative subjects may be provided by Senate.

Students not candidates for Honours, who offer the Evidences, one Gospel, and the Acts of the Apostles, shall in addition be required to prove their knowledge of one Greek and one Latin book, melioris ævi et notæ, approved by Senate, and of two at least of such other subjects as Senate shall determine. Particulars respecting these subjects shall be published by Senate eleven months at least before the Examination.

Candidates for Honours, who offer the Evidences, one Gospel, and the Acts of the Apostles, shall in addition be examined in such subjects and books in Classical and General Literature, and Mathematical and Physical Science, as shall have been fixed by Senate eleven months at least before the examination; they may be examined also in other subjects and books selected by themselves, provided these subjects and books shall have been submitted to Senate and approved by it six months at least before the examination. No Licentiate in Theology shall become a candidate for Honours in the Final Examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts until he has passed the First Public Examination in Arts.

Candidates for Classical Honours only need not be examined in Mathematics, nor candidates for Mathematical Honours only in Classics. Every candidate for Classical Honours may be examined both vivâ voce and on paper.

The Examination for Mathematical Honours shall be divided into two parts, as follows:—Part I: Euclid, Geometrical Conics, Algebra, Trigonometry, Analytical Plane Geometry, Elementary Mechanics and Hydrostatics, Geometrical Optics and Plane Astronomy. [The use of the Differential and Integral Calculus is not permitted in this part of the Examination.] Part II: Differential and Integral Calculus, Differential Equations, Analytical Geometry of three dimensions, Newton's Principia i—iii, and any of the higher portions of the subjects of Part I. The Examiners shall have power to excuse from examination in the Classical Portion of the subjects for the Pass degree those Candidates who, having failed to obtain Honours, yet have shown sufficient knowledge of the subjects of Part I.

Students not candidates for Honours who have passed either the First Public Examination in Arts, or the Final Examination in Letters, and have subsequently kept three terms at least, may offer, instead of the above subjects, to be examined in such subjects mainly Theological as Senate may from time to time determine, provided that they shall be required to prove their knowledge of either one Greek or one Latin book, melioris ævi et notæ, approved by Senate, or of a portion of the Hebrew text of the Old Testament. Particulars respecting the subjects shall be published by Senate eleven months at least before the Examination.

Licentiates in Theology who have obtained Honours in the Final Examination for the Licence, and Licentiates in Theology who, having obtained the Licence without Honours under the Regulations existing before June 26th, 1906, have satisfied the Examiners for the First Public Examination in Arts, shall without residence as Students in Arts be admissible to the Second and Final Examination for the degree of Bachelor in Arts, and shall be required in that examination to prove their knowledge of (1) either one Greek or one Latin book, melioris ævi et notæ, approved by Senate, or of a portion of the Hebrew text of the Old Testament prescribed by Senate, and (2) one of such subjects as Senate shall from time to time determine. Particulars respecting these subjects shall be published by Senate eleven months at least before the examination.

Candidates for Honours in Theology shall be examined in such books of the Old and New Testament in the original Tongues, and such other Theological Subjects as shall have been fixed by Senate eleven months at least before the Examination.

All who satisfy the examiners shall receive certificates. For those who are judged worthy of Honours there shall be three separate classifications, one for such as have distinguished themselves in Classical and General Literature, one for such as have distinguished themselves in Mathematical and Physical Science, and one for those who have distinguished themselves in Theology. In each of these classifications there shall be four classes; the examiners being at liberty to leave any one or more of these classes vacant. Thus the Class Paper will be drawn up according to the form annexed:—

Class, and Gen. Lit.	Math. and Phys. Sc.	Theology.

} Examiners.

The conditions under which students, not candidates for Honours, shall be held to have passed with distinction shall be determined by Senate.

5. In all cases in which an undergraduate is admitted from another University, or a student of this University, not originally a student in Arts, becomes a student in Arts, such student shall be required to keep three terms by residence as a student in Arts before he is admitted to the Final Examination for the degree of B.A.

6.—Students of the University of Durham College of Medicine, or of Armstrong College, at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, may petition the Council of the Durham Colleges that terms kept by them at either of these Colleges, equivalent in duration to three terms kept by students in Arts at Durham, may count towards the degree of B.A. in litteris antiquis, provided that they shall have passed the First Examination appointed for students in Arts, at the beginning of the second year, and that they shall not be admitted to the Final Examination for the degree of B.A. in litteris antiquis unless they have kept three terms at least by residence as students in Arts at Durham.

Section II.—Of the Standing and Exercises requisite for Students in the Durham Colleges proceeding to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts (other than in litteris antiquis).

1.—No grace for the degree of Bachelor of Arts shall be granted unless the petitioner is a student in Arts nor except as provided in clause 2 of this section unless the petitioner has kept nine terms at least, and has passed two examinations, viz., the Intermediate Examination and the Final Examination.

2.—The Intermediate Examination shall be conducted by Examiners appointed annually by Senate. The periods and books to which it shall be directed shall be announced eleven months at least before its commencement.

The subjects of the Intermediate Examination shall be the following :—

- (a) Religious Knowledge or an alternative subject.
- (b) English Language and Literature.
- (c) English History.
- (d) Latin or Greek.
- (e) French.
- (f) German.
- (g) Mathematics.

Everyone admitted to this examination shall be required to satisfy the examiners in Religious Knowledge (or an alternative subject), in English Language and Literature, and in three of the following subjects, of which two shall be languages, one being an ancient language : Latin or Greek, French, German, Mathematics, English History. No candidate shall be admitted to this examination until he shall have attended the lectures prescribed by the Council of the Durham Colleges for three terms at least, provided always that in the year 1910 candidates, who without having previously attended lectures shall pass an examination accepted by the Council of the Durham Colleges in lieu of the Intermediate Examination, shall be counted as having passed the Intermediate Examination, and as having kept the first three of the nine terms required by clause 1 of this section ; and provided also that, up to and including the year 1913, candidates who pass the Intermediate Examination without having previously attended lectures, shall be counted as having kept the first three of the nine terms required by clause 1 of this section.

All those who satisfy the examiners shall receive certificates.

3. - The Final Examination shall be conducted by examiners appointed annually by Senate.

The periods and books to which it shall be directed shall be announced two years at least before its commencement.

The subjects of the Final Examination shall be the following :—

- (a) Religious Knowledge or an alternative subject.
- (b) English Language and Literature.
- (c) Latin or Greek.
- (d) French.
- (e) German.
- (f) Modern History.
- (g) Mathematics.
- (h) Logic.
- (i) Psychology.
- (j) Education.

Everyone admitted to this examination shall be required to satisfy the examiners in Religious Knowledge (or an alternative subject), in English Language and Literature, and in three other subjects, of which one shall be a language.

The Final Examination on the following subjects
 Religious Knowledge or an alternative subject,
 English Language and Literature, Latin or Greek,
 Modern History,
 Mathematics, Education,

shall be divided into two parts, and no candidate shall offer himself for the first part of the Examination until he has attended lectures for three terms on the subjects in which he offers himself for examination, nor for the second part of the examination until he has attended lectures for three more terms.

For the Final Examination on the following subjects, viz. : French, German, Logic, Psychology, no candidate shall offer himself until he has attended lectures upon them for six terms.

No candidate shall, save by leave of the Council of the Durham Colleges, offer himself for examination in any subject save Logic or Psychology or Education, unless he has already offered it in the Intermediate Examination.

A candidate who has failed to satisfy the Examiners in any portion of the Final Examination may be exempted from re-examination in such subjects as the Examiners think fit.

All those who satisfy the Examiners shall receive certificates.

Section III. Of the Standing and Exercises requisite for Students in Armstrong College proceeding to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts (other than in litteris antiquis).

1.—No grace for the degree of Bachelor of Arts shall be granted unless the petitioner is a matriculated student in Arts and has attended lectures for nine terms at least and has passed two examinations, viz., the Intermediate Examination and the Final examination.

2. The Intermediate Examination shall be conducted by Examiners appointed annually by Senate. The periods and books to which it shall be directed shall be announced eleven months at least before its commencement.

3.—Except in so far as is provided in Clause 14, the course for the Intermediate Examination shall occupy one year at least and shall comprise study in five subjects. Not less than four of the subjects chosen shall be taken at one examination.

4.—The subjects admissible for the Intermediate Examination shall be chosen from the following list, one subject at least to be chosen from each group :—

- i. Two of the following languages, one of which must be an ancient language :—Latin, Greek, French, German.
- ii. Religious Knowledge or Ancient History or Modern History.
- iii. Logic or Mathematics.
- iv. English or Geography or Economics or any one of the above subjects not previously selected.

5.—The Final Examination shall be conducted by Examiners appointed annually by Senate. The periods and books to which it shall be directed shall be announced two years at least before its commencement.

6.—The Final Examination shall be of two kinds (a) the Pass examination ; (b) the examination in Honours.

7.—The period of study for the Pass Final Examination shall occupy at least two years, and shall comprise either four principal courses or three principal and two subsidiary courses.

8.—The following subjects shall be admissible for either principal or subsidiary courses :—Latin, Greek, French, German, Religious Knowledge, Modern History, Mathematics, Philosophy, English, Education.

The following subjects shall be admissible for subsidiary courses only :—Science, Ancient History, Economics, Geography.

The subject of one at least of the principal courses shall be a foreign language, ancient or modern. If the sole language included among the principal courses be a modern language, one of the other courses, either principal or subsidiary, shall be either in Philosophy or in Mathematics.

All candidates for the Pass Final Examination shall be required to offer one at least of the following : Religious Knowledge, English, Modern History.

9.—Subject to the provisions of Clauses 4 and 8, the courses for the Intermediate and Pass Final Examination shall be chosen at the candidate's option, provided that no two of them cover wholly or substantially the same ground.

10.—Subject to the approval of the Head of the Department concerned, candidates of special proficiency may present themselves for examination in the subsidiary subjects or the Pass Final Examination at any time after the completion of their Intermediate Examination. A pass in any one of these subjects shall count towards the Final Examination.

11.—No candidate shall be examined in the principal subjects of the Pass Final Examination until a lapse of at least two years from the completion of his Intermediate Examination. But examination in any principal subject may be taken separately, and a Pass in any one shall count towards the Final Examination.

12.—Subject to the above provisions a candidate shall be admitted to any part of the Pass Final Examination so soon as he shall have completed his prescribed course of study.

13.—Candidates for the Final Examination in Honours shall be required to have passed the Intermediate Examination before entering upon Honours study. The course for the degree in Honours shall occupy not less than three and not more than four years from matriculation. Of this period not less than two and not more than three years shall be occupied with Honours studies.

14.—Candidates for Honours who, having passed the Intermediate Examination before entering the College, elect to spend the last part of their course in original research, shall be allowed to present themselves for an examination in Honours at the end of their second year of study. But no candidate shall proceed to a degree in Arts before the end of the third year of study.

16.—Honours shall be awarded in any one of the following subjects or groups of subjects:—

- (a) Any two of the following languages, with their literatures:—Latin, Greek, French, German, English.
- (b) The language and literature of England, or France, or Germany, together with a corresponding division of Modern History.
- (c) English language and literature.
- (d) Philosophy.
- (e) Ancient History.
- (f) Modern History.
- (g) Mathematics.

17.—All candidates who satisfy the Examiners shall receive certificates to that effect.

Section IV.—Of the Standing and Exercises requisite for proceeding to the Degree of Bachelor of Science.

1.—No one, not being a Graduate, shall be held to be a Student in Science unless he shall have passed the Matriculation Examination in such subjects as Senate shall from time to time determine, or such other examination as Senate shall deem equivalent.

2.—No grace for the Degree of Bachelor of Science shall be granted to a Student in Science unless the petitioner shall have attended the requisite courses of Lectures and Laboratory Practice extending over three years, consisting of three terms each, at Armstrong College, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, except as provided in paragraphs 4 and 5.

3.—No grace for the Degree of Bachelor of Science shall be granted unless the petitioner shall have passed at least two public examinations. The First Examination shall be for students who have kept three terms at least. The subsequent Examination shall be for students who have passed the First Examination, and shall be taken in such portions, and after attendance at such courses of instruction in the different subjects, as Senate may from time to time determine, provided that the final portion of the examination shall not be taken before three years have been kept.

4.—Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Science may be exempted from the first year of study required therefor, provided that they have pursued in this or any other University a Course of study equivalent thereto, and may further be exempted from the first examination for the degree, provided that they have passed in this or any other University an examination equivalent thereto.

5.—The Faculty of Science shall have authority to determine, in any particular case, whether a Course of Study pursued or an Examination passed by a candidate in this or any other University may be accepted for the purpose of the above Regulations, and may delegate this authority from time to time to any Committee approved by Senate consisting of not less than five members of its own body.

6.—The Faculty of Science shall currently report to Senate all proceedings taken under the foregoing Regulation.

Section V.—Of the Standing and Exercises requisite for proceeding to the Degree of Master of Arts.

1.—No grace for the degree of Master of Arts shall be granted unless the petitioner is a Bachelor of Arts of the standing of nine terms at least from his admission to that degree.

2.—Any Bachelor of Arts of the requisite standing who has obtained Honours at the Final Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or has passed with distinction, or who, after passing the Final Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, has passed either the examination for a Licence in Theology, or the examination for the degree of Bachelor of Civil Law, or for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine, or for the degree of Bachelor of Letters, shall be admissible to the degree of Master of Arts without further examinations or exercises. Other candidates for the degree of Master of Arts shall pass such examinations or perform such exercises as Senate may require.

Section VI. —Of the Standing and Exercises requisite for proceeding to the Degrees of Master of Science and Doctor of Science.

1. No grace for the degree of Master of Science shall be granted unless the petitioner is a Bachelor of Science of the standing of two years at least from his admission to that degree, nor unless he has satisfied the examiners appointed by the University in some branch of one of the scientific studies professed in Armstrong College, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

No grace for the degree of Doctor of Science shall be granted unless the petitioner is a Master of Science of the standing of twenty-one terms at least from his admission to the degree of Bachelor of Science, nor unless he has performed such exercises as Senate may require.

Section VII. —Of the Standing and Exercises requisite for proceeding to Degrees in Theology and Civil Law.

1.—No grace for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity shall be granted unless the candidate has passed the examination for Bachelor of Divinity.

No one shall be admitted to the examination for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity unless, being not less than twenty-five years of age and in Priests' Orders, he shall have produced satisfactory testimonials of moral character, and shall either (1) be a B.A. or M.A., B.Litt., or L.Th. of this University, or a B.A. or M.A. of some other University in the British Empire, and be of at least two years' standing from his Final Examination for B.A., B.Litt., or L.Th.; or (2) have kept three or more terms by residence at Durham and have passed the Final Examination for L.Th. and be of at least two years' standing from such Final Examination; or (3) be a clergyman of not less than fifteen years' standing from Deacons' Orders.

Candidates for the examination for the degree of B.D. shall be required to be well acquainted with the New Testament in Greek, and with such portion of the Old Testament and in such languages as Senate shall from time to time determine; as well as with such other branch or branches of Theological study as shall be prescribed by Senate from time to time.

The examination shall be conducted by two or more examiners.

No person who has been admitted to this degree shall be admitted to the degree of Doctor of Divinity unless he has previously been admitted to the degree of Master of Arts in some University in the British Empire.

No grace for the degree of Doctor of Divinity shall be granted unless the petitioner is a Bachelor of Divinity, of the standing of thirty terms at least from the date of his admission to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, nor unless he has performed the exercises required by Senate.

2.—No grace for the degree of Bachelor of Civil Law shall be granted unless the petitioner is of the standing of twelve terms at least from the date of his admission to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, nor unless he has passed the examination in Civil Law appointed by Senate.

No grace for the degree of Doctor of Civil Law shall be granted unless the petitioner is a Bachelor of Civil Law and is a Master of Arts of the standing of twenty-one terms at least from the date of his admission to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, nor unless he has performed the exercises required by Senate.

Section VIII. —Of the Standing and Exercises requisite for proceeding to Licences and Degrees in the Faculty of Medicine.

1. No one shall be held to be a student in Medicine unless he has passed the Matriculation Examination in such subjects as Senate shall from time to time determine, or such other of the Registration Examinations recognized by the General Medical Council as Senate shall deem equivalent.

2. No grace for the Degree of Bachelor of Medicine shall be granted unless the petitioner is of the age of twenty-one years, and has, since his registration, spent five years in medical and surgical study, and has been registered in the books of the General Medical Council, one of the said five years having been spent at the University's College of Medicine, Newcastle-upon-Tyne. He may spend the other four years of the curriculum either at Newcastle-upon-Tyne or at one or more of the recognized Medical Schools.

No grace for the Degree of Bachelor of Medicine shall be granted unless the petitioner has passed four public examinations.

The first of these examinations may be passed immediately after attendance on the necessary courses of instruction.

No one shall be admissible to the second of these examinations unless he has spent two academical years at least in medical study as above prescribed, and has passed the first examination.

No one shall be admissible to the third of these examinations unless he has spent three years at least in medical study as above prescribed, and has passed the second examination.

No one shall be admissible to the fourth of these examinations unless he has spent five years in medical study as above prescribed, and passed the third examination.

No one shall be admissible to any one of these examinations unless he has produced to the Secretary of Examinations, or other officer appointed by the Council of the College of Medicine, satisfactory testimonials of conduct, and such certificates of attendance on Lectures and Hospital Practice as Senate shall require.

Each of these examinations shall be conducted by three or more examiners, and shall be directed to such subjects of Medical Science and Practice as shall have been fixed by Senate.

3. No Bachelor of Medicine shall be admitted as a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Medicine unless he has satisfied the Examiners for the Matriculation Examination either in Greek or German, or has passed in one of these languages in an Examination which exempts from the Matriculation Examination.

4.--No grace for the degree of Doctor of Medicine shall be granted (except as provided in the following clause) unless the petitioner is a Bachelor of Medicine, of the age of twenty-four years, and has been engaged, for at least two years subsequent to the date of acquirement of the Degree of Bachelor of Medicine, in attendance on the practice of a recognized Hospital, or in the Military or Naval services, or in medical or surgical practice, nor unless he has performed such exercises as Senate shall require.

5. Senate shall have authority to arrange a Special Examination for the degree of Doctor of Medicine, to which persons who have been engaged in the active practice of their profession for fifteen years, and are of not less than forty years of age, and who have produced satisfactory testimonials of moral character, shall be admissible, due regard being had to their attainments in Arts.

6. --No grace for the degree of Bachelor of Surgery shall be granted unless the petitioner has passed the examination for the degree of Bachelor of Medicine, and has fulfilled such conditions as regards attendance on Lectures and passed such examination as Senate shall require.

7.—No grace for the degree of Master of Surgery shall be granted unless the petitioner is of the age of twenty-four years, has obtained the degree of Bachelor of Surgery, and has fulfilled such conditions as regards attendance on Lectures and passed such examination as Senate shall require.

8.—No grace for the Degree of Bachelor of Hygiene shall be granted unless the petitioner is a Graduate in Medicine of a recognized University and of the age of twenty-two years, and has, subsequent to the attainment of a first registrable qualification in Medicine, Surgery, and Midwifery, spent one year of professional study in attendance upon Lectures, &c., at the University of Durham Colleges, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and shall have passed such examinations as Senate shall require.

No grace for the degree of Doctor of Hygiene shall be granted unless the petitioner is a Bachelor of Hygiene, and has, subsequent to the date of his acquiring the degree of Bachelor of Hygiene, been engaged for two years in practice as a Medical Officer of Health, and shall have passed such examinations as Senate shall require.

Section IX. —Of the Standing and Exercises requisite for proceeding to Degrees in Letters.

1.—No one, not being a Graduate, shall be held to be a student in Letters unless he shall have passed the Matriculation Examination in such subjects as Senate shall from time to time determine, or such other examination as Senate shall deem equivalent, or the Intermediate Public Examination in Letters.

2.—a. No grace for the Degree of Bachelor of Letters shall be granted unless the Petitioner shall either have passed the two public examinations prescribed in this sub-section, or having passed, in lieu of the Intermediate public examination, such other examination as Senate shall deem equivalent, shall have passed the Final public examination prescribed in this sub-section.

3. Every student in Letters admitted to the Intermediate Public Examination shall be required to prove his knowledge of:—

- (a) English Language, Literature, History, and Composition, with detailed knowledge of specified books and periods of history.
- (b) Two other Languages, of which one shall be ancient and one modern, with detailed knowledge of specified books and periods of history.
- (c) Either a language not previously offered; or Logic and Ancient History, or Logic and European History.

7. Every student in Letters admitted to the Final Examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Letters shall be required to prove his knowledge of :

(a) English Language and Literature of a period not previously offered, to be studied as a two-year course.

(b) Two other languages, to be studied as a two-year course ; and specified periods of history and literature not previously offered.

(c) One two-year course and one one-year course or three one-year courses chosen from the following :—

(1) Two-year courses :—A third language, Education, Logic with Psychology.

(2) One-year courses :—European History, Economics, Logic, Ethics.

3.—Senate shall fix the particular languages, periods, books, and subjects, to be offered at the examinations prescribed in sub-section 2, and shall also have power to authorize the examiners to award Honours in one or more of the said examinations, and shall lay down rules for the purpose.

4.—No student shall be admitted to the examination prescribed in sub-section 2, 7, unless, not being a Graduate of this University, he shall have attended courses of instruction for two academical years after passing the Intermediate Public Examination (supra 2, β), or else for three academical years as a student in Letters, matriculated under Title I, 1, 2, or VIII, 1, 2, or being a Graduate, as aforesaid, he shall have attended courses of instruction for one academical year as a student in Letters in the University ; or having passed the Final Examinations of the University of Oxford or Cambridge for Honours in Classics, Modern Languages, Moral Sciences, or History, shall have attended a course of instruction for one academical year as a student in Letters in the University.

5.—No grace for the Degree of Doctor of Letters shall be granted unless the petitioner shall be a Bachelor of Letters of five years' standing from that Degree, and also a Graduate in some other faculty, and shall have obtained Honours in some Public Examination of this University ; nor unless he shall, in addition to such other examination or exercise as shall have been prescribed by Senate for this Degree, have submitted a thesis or published a memoir or work, which shall be, in the judgement of Senate, an original contribution to learning. And Senate shall have power to require the publication of such thesis or work if not already published.

Section X.—Of the Standing and Exercises requisite for proceeding to the Degree of Master of Letters.

1.—No grace for the degree of Master of Letters shall be granted unless the petitioner is a Bachelor of Letters of the standing of three years at least from his admission to that degree.

2.—Any Bachelor of Letters of the requisite standing who has obtained distinction or been placed in Division I at the Final Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Letters, or who, before or after passing the Final Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Letters, has proceeded to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, shall be admitted to the degree of Master of Letters without further examination or exercise. Other candidates for the degree of Master of Letters shall pass such examinations or perform such exercises as Senate may require.

Section XI.—Of the Standing and Exercises requisite for proceeding to Degrees in the Faculty of Music.

1.—No one shall be held to be a Student in Music unless he has passed the Matriculation Examination in such subjects as Senate shall from time to time determine, or such other Examination as Senate shall deem equivalent.

2.—No grace for the degree of Bachelor of Music shall be granted unless the petitioner has passed two public examinations. Every Student in Music admitted to the First Examination shall be required to prove his knowledge of Harmony and Counterpoint in not more than four parts. No one shall be admitted to the Second Examination who has not passed the First Examination and sent in an exercise to the Examiners, on or before a date to be announced from year to year, and from them received permission to be admitted. The Exercise shall consist of a Vocal Composition, either sacred or secular, containing five-part harmony and good fugal counterpoint, with an accompaniment for a string band. Every one admitted to the Second Examination shall be required to prove his knowledge of:—(1) Harmony; (2) Counterpoint; (3) Imitation, Canon and Fugue; (4) Form; (5) History of Music; (6) The full scores of such works as shall be previously announced.

3.—No grace for the degree of Doctor of Music shall be granted unless the petitioner shall be of fifteen terms' standing, and shall have composed an exercise and passed an examination in Music. The Exercise shall consist of a Vocal Composition, sacred or secular, preceded by an Instrumental Overture, and containing eight-part harmony and good fugal counterpoint, with an accompaniment for a full band. The Examination for the degree of Doctor of Music shall consist of:—(1) Harmony; (2)

Counterpoint (each of these including examples in eight parts); (3) Imitation, Canon and Fugue; (4) Form; (5) Instrumentation; (6) History of Music (A.D. 1500 to the present time); (7) Elementary Acoustics; (8) Knowledge of the scores of the standard works of the great composers.

These examinations in Music shall be conducted annually (at a time to be fixed by Senate) by two or more Examiners.

TITLE VI.

OF THE STANDING AND EXERCISES REQUISITE FOR THE LICENCES OF STUDENTS IN THEOLOGY.

1. —Students in Theology shall be licensed to present themselves to the Bishop for Ordination by grace of the University.

2. —No grace shall be granted unless the petitioner has kept the requisite number of terms as a student in Theology, is of approved moral and religious character, and of competent attainments.

The period of residence required of a student who has been admitted after passing the examination for the degree of B.A. in litteris antiquis shall be one ordinary term; that required of a student who has been admitted after passing the examination for the degree of B.A., or some higher degree, at another University, where the examination is of a character similar to that required at this University, shall be three terms; and that required of any other student six terms. Terms kept at one of the Theological Colleges specified in Title V, Section 1, clause 2, may be counted in lieu of residence in Durham, provided that the candidate has passed all the examinations required by his College.

In proof of his attainments, he shall produce certificates of having passed two public examinations in Theology, except as provided in the following paragraphs. The first examination shall be conducted by two or more examiners. No student shall be admissible to this examination unless he has kept three terms at least by residence in the University, or at one of the Theological Colleges specified in Title V, Section 1, clause 2.

The final examination shall be conducted by three or more examiners, and shall be directed to such subjects as have been fixed by Senate eleven months at least before its commencement.

Any student who has been admitted after passing the examination for the degree of B.A. in litteris antiquis shall be admissible to the final examination in or after the first term of his residence; any student who has been admitted after passing the examination for the degree of B.A., or some higher degree at another University, where the examination is of a character similar to that required at this University, shall be admissible to the examination in or after the third term of his residence ; and any student admitted under Title v, section VII, clause 1, shall be admissible to this examination either before or during residence. All students admitted as above shall be excused the first examination. No other student shall be admissible to the Final Examination before his sixth term, nor unless he has previously passed the First Public Examination in Theology.

Any student who has passed the First Public Examination in Theology, and has subsequently obtained a second class at least in the Preliminary Examination of Candidates for Holy Orders, shall be excused the Final Public Examination in Theology.

Any student in Arts, who is recommended by his College, may petition the University that terms kept by him as a student in Arts may count as terms kept as a student in Theology, provided that the terms so counted shall have been kept after the age required for admission as a student in Theology, and that he shall have passed the examination appointed for the admission of students in Theology, and that no one shall be admissible to the Final Examination for the Licence in Theology unless he has kept three terms at least as a student in Theology.

3. No such grace shall be granted unless the petitioner has previously declared in writing that he is a bond fide member of the Church of England as by law established.

TITLE VII.

OF THE MANNER OF CONDUCTING PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS.

Section I.—Of Ordinary Examinations.

1.—The Council of the Durham Colleges, the College of Medicine, and Armstrong College, shall be responsible for the conduct of University examinations held at Durham and in those Colleges respectively.

2.—There shall be three Secretaries of Examinations, one for the Durham Colleges, one for the College of Medicine, and one for Armstrong College. They shall be nominated by the respective Colleges and shall be appointed and paid by Senate. They shall hold office for a period of five years and shall be eligible for re-election.

The name in full of every student offering himself for any public examination and of his College (if any) must be signified by himself or some responsible person to the Secretary of Examinations for the Durham Colleges, or the College of Medicine, or Armstrong College, as the case may be, at such time before the commencement of the examination as the College in question shall determine. An account, in writing, of the books or subjects selected by him, when any option is allowed, together with all necessary certificates, shall be delivered to the Secretary of Examinations at the same time.

Every student, on his name being received by the Secretary of Examinations, shall pay for any public examination the fee fixed for that examination by Senate, and the Secretary shall transmit the fees so received to the University Treasurer.

The Secretary of Examinations shall have printed an alphabetical list of those whom he admits to any public examination, and shall cause copies of it to be delivered to each of the examiners, and to be affixed on some public place or places appointed by Senate, seven days before the commencement of the examination.

Every student sending in his name after the time appointed shall pay such additional fee as Senate may determine.

No student may offer himself for examination after the list has been printed, unless he pay such additional fee as Senate may determine.

Any student may withdraw his name from the list of those to be examined, provided he give notice to the Secretary of Examinations nine days before the beginning of the examination, and in that case the fee is held over. Otherwise the fee which has been paid is forfeited.

3.—Any official entrusted with the duty of superintendence in a University examination may immediately suspend or dismiss from examination a candidate guilty of flagrant breach of the rules, but such action shall be immediately reported to one of the Proctors.

4.—All questions arising among the examiners as to the framing of questions, the rejection of candidates, or any other matter, shall be determined by a majority of votes, the examiner in the chair having a casting vote.

5.—Any student who, at any final honour examination, presents to the examiners a sufficient assurance of his being in ill-health shall, if the examiners so recommend, be deemed to have passed the examination, and be placed in a separate class. This class shall be distinguished by the word "Ægrotant," or some similar title. The names of those who are placed in it shall be arranged alphabetically.

6.—The names of those who obtain certificates at any public examination shall be entered in a register, and the entry shall be attested by the signatures of the examiners. The examiners shall also draw up, for publication, lists of the successful candidates.

Section II.—Of Extraordinary Examinations.

1.—If a student has been kept away from any public examination by severe illness or other urgent cause, and shall satisfy Senate that it would be a great hardship for him to wait for the next ordinary examination, he may apply to Senate to grant him an extraordinary examination.

2.—The number of examiners shall be the same for this as for an ordinary examination. The examination itself shall not be less rigorous, but no honours shall be awarded.

3.—Not more than one extraordinary examination for the same class of students shall be granted within one academical year.

4.—Every student who is admitted to an extraordinary examination shall pay, on his name being received by the Secretary of Examinations, such fee as Senate shall from time to time determine.

5.—Those who pass any extraordinary examination shall be registered in the same book with those who pass the ordinary examination, but in such a manner as to be distinguished from them.

TITLE VIII.

OF THE AFFILIATION OF CODRINGTON COLLEGE, BARBADOS, AND FOURAH BAY COLLEGE, SIERRA LEONE, TO THE UNIVERSITY.

1.—Students of Codrington College, Barbados, and Fourah Bay College, Sierra Leone, may have their names placed on the register of the University as matriculated students of the same, provided that the Principal of their College, or other person authorized to act in his behalf, shall have certified that they have passed an examination similar to that required for the admission of students in the several faculties in the University of Durham; and the aforesaid Colleges shall be accounted affiliated Colleges of the University of Durham.

2.—Students of the affiliated Colleges, having been so matriculated, shall be admissible to the exercises and public examinations required for proceeding to degrees, licences, and academical rank in the several faculties, provided that they shall have forwarded certificates of having fulfilled the same conditions as to residence, attendance at Lectures, and conformity to discipline in their own College, as are required from other students of the University so admissible, terms of residence being counted from the time of passing the Admission Examination of their own College.

3.—The Principals of the said Colleges shall forward to the Secretary of Examinations lists of students of their respective Colleges who are candidates for any examinations, together with the certificates required, in time for them to be received at Durham four weeks at least (and, in the case of candidates for Honours, six weeks at least) before the commencement of the examinations at Durham. The examination papers shall be sent to the Principals of the Colleges, in sealed packets, by the last mails, or last mails but one, that leave England previously to the commencement of the examination at Durham. The papers so sent shall be set to the candidates as nearly as possible on the days of the examination at Durham, and the answers to them returned, unread, as soon as possible after the conclusion of the examination to the Secretary of Examinations (who shall transmit them to the examiners), together with a certificate signed by the Principal of each College, or the person acting in his behalf, that the examination has been duly conducted, and the above-named conditions complied with.

4. -The examiners, after examining the papers, shall issue and publish in the usual manner supplemental lists of those who have passed the examination, and of those who have been adjudged worthy of Honours; which lists shall be sent by the Registrar without delay to the respective Principals of the Colleges; and one combined list of all who have passed the examination in England, Barbados, and Sierra Leone, shall be inserted in the next issue of the University Calendar.

5. All prescribed conditions having been fulfilled, graces for degrees, licences, or academical rank, shall be prayed in Convocation, in the usual manner, on behalf of students of the affiliated Colleges; and certificates of such graces, having been granted, shall be forwarded by the Registrar to the respective Principals of the Colleges; after the receipt of which the degrees, licences, or academical rank, for which graces have been granted may be conferred by their Lordships the Bishops of the dioceses in which the affiliated Colleges are respectively situated, as Visitors of the same, or by a Deputy Visitor, acting under commission from the Chancellor.

6. -The above arrangements may be terminated at any time either by the University or by the authorities of each affiliated College on notice of six months at least being given beforehand.

Anyone who previously to Michaelmas Term, 1875, has completed his course of study and examinations at Codrington College, Barbados, and has produced to Senate satisfactory testimonials of character, shall be admissible to the Final Examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and, having passed that examination, to the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

TITLE IX.

OF ADMISSION FROM OTHER UNIVERSITIES.

Any person, who has fulfilled the conditions for Matriculation, shall be allowed, with the consent of Senate, to count terms which have been kept in another University under conditions similar to those required in this University, due regard being paid to the number and length of the terms into which the year is divided in each.

TITLE X.

OF MEMBERSHIP OF CONVOCATION.

No one shall be entitled to a vote in Convocation unless he has continued without interruption to be a member of the University from the date of his admission to the degree by which he claims his seat, and either has paid a fee of two pounds, or is a member of the staff.

TITLE XI.

OF DEGREES CONFERRED WITHOUT EXAMINATION.

Any person admitted to an Honorary degree under the provisions of Statute 92, though having no claim to membership of Convocation, shall enjoy the rank and wear the dress of his degree, and shall have admission to the Library and Museums, under such restrictions as may be imposed from time to time.

Members of the teaching staff admitted to degrees without examination under the provisions of Statute 93 shall enjoy the full rights and privileges belonging to the degrees conferred upon them; but any right such a person may have to membership of Convocation in virtue of such a degree shall cease when he ceases to be a member of the teaching staff.

No person admitted to a degree without examination, by vote at Convocation, shall proceed from a degree thus conferred to any other degree.

TITLE XII.

OF THE CHANCELLOR.

When a vacancy shall occur in the office of Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor shall, within a month of the occurrence (the months of July, August, and September excepted), summon a special meeting of Senate, in order that Senate may nominate a fit and proper person for the post of Chancellor.

No nomination shall be submitted to Senate to vote upon, unless the nomination be made by a member of one division of the University and seconded by a member of the other division of the University.

If more than two persons be nominated, there shall first be taken a preliminary vote, and no name shall be submitted to Convocation which has not received an absolute majority of the votes of those present and voting.

A meeting of Convocation shall be summoned by the Vice-Chancellor within a month (the months of July, August, and September excepted) of the special meeting of Senate, and a motion shall be submitted to Convocation by the Vice-Chancellor that the person nominated by Senate be appointed Chancellor by Convocation.

If the person nominated by Senate be not appointed by Convocation, the Vice-Chancellor shall forthwith summon a special meeting of Senate for the purpose of nominating (in the way above set forth) a fit and proper person.

When a person nominated by Senate has been appointed by Convocation, the Senate shall make such arrangements and prescribe such ceremony for admitting to the office of Chancellor the person thus nominated and appointed as shall befit the dignity and solemnity of the occasion.

TITLE XIII.

OF THE PROCTORS.

1.—The Proctors shall be appointed at the final Convocation in Easter Term, and shall come into office at the first Convocation in Michaelmas Term.

One Proctor shall be nominated from the Durham Division, and one from the Newcastle Division of the University.

2.—On coming into office each Proctor shall nominate two Pro-Proctors, one of whom shall take his place in case of his absence; but a Pro-Proctor nominated by either may act for the other. Each Proctor and Pro-Proctor shall make the declaration provided in the Standing Orders.

3.—In addition to their statutory duties, the Proctors shall see that nominations of the necessary examiners for University examinations are submitted to Senate, and shall certify to the University Treasurer the amount due to each examiner. They shall also decide, on an emergency, any question connected with a University examination which may be referred to them. The Durham Proctor may act alone in respect of an examination held at Durham, and the Newcastle Proctor in respect of an examination held at Newcastle; but it shall be competent for either to assist, or act in the place of, the other, when requested to do so by his colleague.

4.—The Proctors shall examine the claims of candidates for degrees, and shall report to Convocation, on behalf of Senate, whether they have fulfilled the necessary requirements.

The names of those candidates who are students of the Durham Division shall be proposed to Convocation by the Durham Proctor, and of those who are students of the Newcastle Division by the Newcastle Proctor.

CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMITTEE OF FINANCE.

(1) There shall be a Committee of Finance, the members of which shall be charged with the following duties :—

- (a) to make themselves familiar with the finances of the University, in relation with the Colleges and otherwise, and to see that the financial provisions of the Statutes are duly observed ;
- (b) to draw up for the authorisation of Senate a scale of the standing or periodical payments to examiners and other officers, and to revise this list at least once a year ;
- (c) to authorise expenditure not of a periodical character and not exceeding £20 ;
- (d) to authorise any ordinary and necessary expenditure in connection with meetings of Convocation, Senate, and Boards of Faculties ;
- (e) to examine and accept estimates or otherwise order the printing of the Calendar, Examination Papers, and other publications ;
- (f) to examine and report upon any proposal involving expense which is referred to the Committee by Senate ;
- (g) to advise Senate generally on matters of Finance ;
- (h) in conjunction with the Treasurer to control the banking account of the University, the signatures of the Treasurer, and of two other members of the Committee being requisite on each cheque ;
- (i) to meet at least once before each ordinary meeting of Senate and to cause the minutes of its meetings, with any recommendation made, to be printed and circulated with the Minutes of Senate.

(2) The Committee shall consist of such members as Senate may appoint but shall include, besides the Vice-Chancellor and Treasurer, not less than six other members. Three members shall constitute a quorum.

(3) The Treasurer shall be Secretary, and shall keep the Minutes.

(4) All proposals involving expense shall be referred to the Committee for report before Senate takes any action upon them, except when Senate expressly votes such a course to be unnecessary.

(5) In the long vacation, if financial business arises which in the Treasurer's opinion is urgent the Committee may take action upon it in advance of any report to Senate, provided the Treasurer and at least three other members of the Committee consent thereto, and such consent may be signified in writing.

UNIVERSITY SOCIETIES AND CLUBS.

PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY.

All past and present Students in the Colleges of the University, all past and present members of the University, and of the College Staffs and Councils are eligible for membership of this Society. The usual programme consists of about ten meetings in Newcastle, two meetings in Durham, and one excursion, at which papers are read and discussed, and objects of interest examined, the more important papers being published in the Society's "Proceedings." The subscription is five shillings, and may be paid at the College Office.

There are four sections of the Society :—

- (a) Chemical and Physical.
- (b) Biological.
- (c) Mathematical.
- (d) Archæological and Historical.

OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS CONTINGENT.

The object of the Officers Training Corps is to enable undergraduates to obtain such a training as will fit them, if they so desire, to obtain commissions in the Special Reserve of Officers, or in the Territorial Army.

DURHAM DIVISION.

Every student pays terminally to the Treasurer the sum of £1. Of this 10s. is paid to the Treasurer of his College Clubs, and 10s. to the Central Finance Committee which manages all University Clubs. Every student, therefore, is ipso facto a member of the Union, Reading Rooms, and Debating Society, the University Boat Club, Cricket Club, Football Club, Tennis Club, and Hockey Club. Each body has its own Boat Club, Debating Society, &c.

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE.

Every student is required to become a member of the Students' Union, at an annual subscription of two and a half guineas, payable to the Secretary at the time of registration. This fee covers the subscriptions to the Athletic Club, the Student's Medical Society, the College Gazette, and the Students' Union Rooms and Gymnasium.

The Medical Society meets fortnightly during the winter, in the Royal Victoria Infirmary. At these meetings interesting papers are read and clinical cases are exhibited and discussed.

ARMSTRONG COLLEGE.

UNION SOCIETY.

This Society is composed of Men Students from all Departments of the College. Meetings are held each fortnight during the first two terms when debates upon subjects of general interest take place.

ATHLETIC UNION.

This Union includes Cricket, Lawn Tennis, Football, Hockey, Golf, and Swimming Clubs. The subscription to each of the clubs is five shillings, but a composition subscription of 15s. entitles Students to membership of all the Clubs.

CHORAL SOCIETY.

This is a Society for the practice of high-class Choral Music, with membership open to all past or present Students of the College. The Subscription is five shillings per session for Honorary Members, and two shillings and sixpence for Active Members.

AGRICULTURAL STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION.

The objects of this Association are to unite together the students, past and present, of the Agricultural Department of the College, and to promote the study and development of Agriculture.

LITERARY SOCIETY.

The Society meets three or more times during the session, for the reading of papers on literary subjects, and the discussion of questions arising thereout.

Further information with regard to societies and clubs can be obtained from the Secretaries.

OLD STUDENTS' UNION.

This Society has been formed for the promotion of social intercourse between past Students and the advancement of the interests of the College.
